Chicago May Hand Pupils Long Holiday

CHICAGO, April 25—(AP)—The affliction of Chicago's school system for many months threatening today to develop into a case of complete paralysis unless a stimulant in the form of cash were immediately provided.

The fine question pondered by city and school officials was: Should the city halt its mounting debt to the long unpaid teachers by closing the schools for three months, thereby relieving them of working for nothing?

Prodded to activity by the increasing anger of the pedagogues over payless paydays—which yesterday led them to invade loop banks with a demand for immediate cash—officials conferred regarding the proposal to declare a moratorium on educational facilities.

Orville J. Taylor, president of the board of education, announced after a conference with Superintendent of Schools William J. Bogan and Mayor Edward J. Kelly that he was in favor of closing the schools from May 13 to October 1. The proposal, already contained in a resolution offered by School Trustee T. Wallace Caldwell, will be debated at the educational board's meeting tomorrow, Taylor said.

There were, however, legal aspects which would have to be clarified, said Taylor, namely: whether the school board could disregard the state statute requiring the city to furnish its youth with a nine month school term.

On the Job every minute
they've just got to be right

Each and every Chesterfield!

Each tray of CHESTERFIELDS from the cigarette-making machines passes under the watchful eyes of inspectors, trained by long practice to see flaws such as an end of torn paper, or a poorly filled cigarette.

And there's still another safeguard... two "electric detectives" on each packaging machine. Electric fingers "feel" each end of every cigarette, and throw out every imperfect package.

Open your pack of Chesterfields, and look at them. It's no accident that every cigarette is round, firm and full. Somebody's been on the job every minute to give you what you want... a cigarette that's made right in every way and that's milder and tastes better.

they Satisfy

Wherever you buy Chesterfields, you get them just as fresh as if you came by our factory door

End-on, this tray full of fresh-made Chesterfields looks like a huge honeycomb. Inspectors, expert from long practice, remove with tweezers each torn or imperfect cigarette.
