Auxiliary Benefit Afternoon is Charming

One of the charming and interesting events of the week was the benefit card afternoon for the Marion Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars for which Mrs. Charles Low and Mrs. R. W. Remington were hostesses Friday afternoon in Mrs. Low's home. Nine tables were in play during the afternoon.

High scores in bridge went to Mrs. Newell Williams and Mrs. Russell Mudd, in 500 to Mrs. O. Lettingwell and Mrs. Otha Lett. The tea table was centered with lilacs and orchid tapers. Lilacs and ferns were used about the guest rooms.

Leslie Can-Does Enjoy Party

Members of the Leslie Can-Do class were entertained at a jolly informal party Wednesday night in the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. Darlow Johnson. Lilacs and tulips were used about the room.

Ornate Trick led a short devotional service and Roberta Johnson played a piano solo preceding the social diversions of the evening.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stripling, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde French, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Orwig, Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Laws, Mrs. Burton, Burgess Ford, Ormal Trick, Miss Helen Ingray, Miss Vesta Mulligan, Miss Claire Wells, Darlow, Roberta, Carroll and Wendell Johnson and members of the committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stacey, Mrs. Winifred Heider and Rev. and Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson.
