Little Business Is Transacted in Wool at Boston

BOSTON, May 1—(AP)—Little business was transacted today in the wool market on Ohio and similar fleeces, owing to a practical cleanup of last year's wool, and the extremely limited quantities of the new wool available. Up to 21 in the grease was reported paid for fine Ohio Delaines last week. Houses specializing in these wools were not inclined to offer new wools at this level, because of recent price advances in the country.

Receipts of domestic wool here during the week ending April 29 estimated by the Boston Grain and flour exchange amounted to 632,200 lbs., compared with 2,527,400 lbs., the previous week.

The Cleveland Indians should have plenty of color this year, their new uniforms abounding in red and black stripes.

BUTTER MARKET IN GOOD SHAPE, SAID

Eggs and Poultry Steady; First Labish Turnips Arrive at Portland

PORTLAND, May 1.—(AP)—The local butter market was in good shape and steady today. Prices ruled evenly with the week's close at 23 cents on extras. The shortage of last week has been caught up on larger receipts and the storage movement was expected to get under way on an appreciable basis within the next few days.

Most classes of the local egg market were steady. The new oversize grade was unchanged at 17 cents. The Front street market was somewhat upset, however, over what appeared an uncertainty in prices quotable to the country. General aspects of the trade indicated no new developments of importance.

Local cheese market was fully firm as the week opened with the general aspects of the trade about the same as of the past week.

All poultry was firm to steady. Heavy hens were quotable at 13½ cents, light broilers 12 to 13 cents and heavy colored broilers 16 to 17 cents.

In the country meat market, veal was weak at 7½ cents top, beef unsteady and unchanged, lambs steady at 14 to 15 cents on springs and mutton weak at 1c down to 3 to 4 cents.

PORTLAND, May 1.—(AP)—A fair amount of activity was evident in today's session of the East Side Farmers' market.

The first load of Oregon turnips arrived from Lake Labish and caused a bit of comment among dealers. The load was small with the price set at 60c dozen.

Asparagus was quoted at $2 a pyramid, up 25c because of a scarcity due to cold weather.

Green onions were unchanged at 25c dozen.

Carrots were ranging higher at $1.40 a sack.

Radishes were in fair offering at $1.25.

CLEAR LAKE PLANS TO CONSTRUCT HALL

CLEAR LAKE, May 1 — The Community club met at the school house Friday night for its last meeting of the year. Officers for the coming year were elected: Ross Chapin, president; Kelly Mason, vice president; Miss Texia Bostrack, secretary; Mrs. Roy Smith, treasurer and Roy Smith as sergeant-at-arms. They talked of erecting a community hall. Mrs. J. Pugh donated a piece of ground south of her store building. Directors were elected: Kelley Mason for one year, C. C. Russell two years, Fred Hammock three years, Lloyd Mason four years and Luther Chapin Sr. five years. It was voted that they go ahead and collect money and see about building immediately.

Radishes and Onions Down; Asparagus Is now Local

A number of price changes opened the week for fruits and vegetables. Potatoes are stiffer, at a top of $1.25 on locals, with Yakimas stronger. Radishes and green onions are down to 20 cents per dozen bunches. Local asparagus has supplemented California offerings, with the price boosted to $1 a dozen.

Fresno strawberries are on the market at $1.85 for 20-cup boxes. Local turnips are bringing the grower 50 cents a dozen bunches.

Peas are down a bit, to four cents a pound; lettuce is cheaper, with quotations from $2 to $2.75; rhubarb is lower at 1½ cents; beets are up 10 cents per dozen bunches, to 70 cents; and spinach is quoted 75 cents to $1 per orange box.

TRADING TURBULENT ON STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, May 1—(AP) — Financial markets today repeated the now familiar story of rising prices and turbulent trading.

Various groups swept into the leadership at intervals during the 6,042,210-share market, rails showing to particular advantage on one spurt. Commodity issues were less active.

Net gains of 1 to 2 points were retained by Santa Fe, Union Pacific, U. S. Steel preferred, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, American Can, Consolidated Gas of New York, International Harvester, Public Service of New Jersey, Texas Gulf Sulphur, United Fruit, American Water Works, National Tea and South Porto Rico sugar.

U. S. Steel's rise of nearly 3 points faded to a major fraction, while American Telephone, also up 3 points at the best, closed with a slight gain. Allied Chemical, Woolworth, American Smelting, National Steel, Westinghouse, Montgomery Ward and Case were off fractions to 1⅛ net. The Standard Statistics - Associated Press composite for 20 rails closed at a new 1933 high. Moody's index of 15 leading staples surpassed its 1933 high.
