Bridge Benefit is Planned by Auxiliary

aday, May S. 1939 The OREGON Survey ...

The American Legion Auxiliary will entertain again this spring with its annual bridge benefit which is anticipated as one of the smart affairs of the spring season. Mrs. King Bartlett is general chairman for the arrangements and will soon have plans ready for announcement. The date has been set for May 15.

The general plans for the affair were made at the Monday night meeting of the Auxiliary. Another plan announced Monday night was that the Auxiliary will entertain the War Mothers with an evening party May 15. This will be in compliment to Mother's day. Mrs. A. M. Johnson is general chairman to work out plans for this and will be asaisted by Mrs. Christopher Butte, Mrs. Henry Fournier, Mrs. Glenn Porter, and Mrs. F. N. Waters.

A group of Salem Auxiliary women will motor to Portland Thursday to attend the luncheon which is being given by the Portland unit in compliment to Mrs. 6. Alford Blackburn, national president of the Auxiliary visiting the west from her home in Versailles, Kentucky.

Those to motor down include Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. William Watkins, Mrs. Albert Gragg, Mrs. Pascal Traglio, Mrs. E. N. Waters, Mrs. A. N. Johnson, Mrs. Leif Bergsvik, Mrs. Ted Kuhn, Mrs. Nota Henderson, Mrs. H. R. White, and Mrs. Mem Pearce.

The national championship trio of Salem will also attend this luncheon and will sing. The trio includes Mrs. D. T. Bowe, Mrs. Robert Wyatt, and Mrs. Walter

Engagements Told At Pretty Dinner Affair

Mrs. J. Lyman Steed and Mrs. F. Grussing were hostesses Monday night at the school for the deaf in compliment to women of the faculty of the school. At this time the engagement of two of the faculty was announced in clever manner.

A large white bell was suspended over the dinner table and from this streamers ran to each cover. Caught in each streamer was a tiny scroll bearing the names of Miss Mary Ballinger and Sam Farmer, and of Mrs. Dorothy Graves Striplin and Floyd Ellis. The table was centered with a miniature church with tiny brides and grooms on the steps. Bridal
