

Albert-Spauling Nuptials Celebrated in Brilliant Church Ceremony

Miss Josephine Albert Becomes Bride of Bruce Spaulding May Day Night

Guests From Over Northwest Attend Brilliant Wedding Which was An Event of May day Weekend at the University

IMPRESSIVE and beautifully solemn was the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Josephine Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, and Bruce Spaulding, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Spaulding of Hood River, Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

Only candlelight lighted the lovely auditorium of the church. Arrangements of three slender tapers in single holders in each window shed light along each side of the room and at the altar tall peach tapers arranged on each side and high on the choir loft rail shed a lovely glow upon the bridal party. Ferns, peach colored flowers and palms banked the chancel.

Mrs. Windsor Calkins, harpist, and Miss Martha Patterson, violinist, both of Eugene, played soft duets preceding the service and the bridal party took its place to the strains of an organ wedding march played by Prof. Frank Churchill.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Joseph Albert, who gave her in marriage. A ribbon aisle led the way to the altar. Little flower girls, Pauline Wallace and Judy Hutcherson of Vancouver, B. C., in peach tulle dresses and carrying green baskets tossed flowers along the path of the bride. Small Joy Albert, in a peach colored Lord Fauntleroy suit carried the ring on a tiny peach colored silk pillow. The bride wore a gown of peach crepe made in close fitting lines with long leg o'mutton sleeves up each cuff of which were buttons. A spreading peacock train adorned the gown and a strand of peach colored pearls were her only ornament. Her veil was peach tulle caught with a drooping wreath of peach colored lilies of the valley. A tiny screen of the veil fell over the bride's face which added to her alluring beauty. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and Tullamann roses.

Mrs. Axel Eoff, matron of honor and sister of the bride, wore a gown of close fitting peach colored crepe with an exaggerated flare in the skirt which produced a bustle effect. A jacket, double breasted and with short puffed sleeves and a panache hat with a drooping brim of maline and a ruffled back of tulle completed her costume. The bride's maids each wore peach gowns made similarly to that of the matron of honor only their jackets were of tulle and their hats were a bit more of toque effect. The bride's maids were Miss Genevieve Thayer, Miss Grace Jorgensen, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, and Miss Cusilda Mayotorenas. Flowers for the matrons of honor were sweet peas, freesias and maidenhair fern. The maids carried maidenhair bouquets. The matron of honor and maids each was presented with a locket of green edged in pearls.

Mr. Spaulding was attended by Gurnee Fletcher as best man. Ushers were Edward Stadler, Dr. Filmore Carter of Portland, Lucien Cobb of Roseburg, and Axel Eoff. A formal reception at the Albert home followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, parents of the bride, and Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Spaulding of Hood River, parents of the groom, received the guests. Assisting at the living rooms were Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Mrs. Gurnee Fletcher, Mrs. Charles Swan of Newberg and Mrs. Aubrey Fletcher of Eugene. Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen and Mrs. Glen Sigel of Portland, Mrs. Fred A. Wiggins of Seattle and Mrs. J. C. Griffith presided at the urns. Mrs. Oscar White, Miss Florence Powers, Miss Sue Pringle, Miss Rosalie Buren and Miss Jennie Delzell assisted in serving. Mrs. John J. Griffith had charge of the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding left for Minneapolis, Minn., Saturday night for their wedding trip. In Minneapolis Mrs. Spaulding will be one of the young artists of the United States to compete in the contest of the American Federation of Music, May 29.

They will return to make their home in Dallas where they will be at home to their friends after June 15. Both Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding are graduates of Willamette university. Mr. Spaulding graduated from the school of law. Both have been very popular members of both the university and city social circles. Mrs. Spaulding has been prominent in musical circles of the city and state. Out of town guests hidden for the wedding included:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albert, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen, Mrs. F. M. Delrymple, Miss Grace Jorgensen, Miss G. Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krane, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Rollins, Dr. and Mrs. Filmore Carter, Miss Marie Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sigel, Miss Charlotte Zieher, all of Portland; Miss Cusilda Mayotorenas, Miss Marie Beckwith, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Cusilda Mayotorenas, both of Los Angeles; Mrs. Harvey McDonald of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calkins, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freuden, Dr. and Mrs. David Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spaulding, all of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Spaulding of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Spaulding of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spaulding of Montana, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Pemberton of Woodburn, Judge and Mrs. Arlie G. Walker of McMinnville, Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Wiggins of Seattle,

Arts League to Meet Chamber Commerce

Tuesday evening, May 9, at 8:15 in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the Salem Arts League will present Miss Kathryn Gunnell, who will show her collection of color motion pictures of Salem gardens, interiors and civic center, as well as beautiful and striking views of eastern Oregon and the Oregon beaches. These pictures have been viewed by Frank Branch Riley and others, who have been lavish in their praise and pronounce them unusual and marvelous in their composition and artistry.

Mrs. Gladys McIntyre Thomas, one of Salem's popular young musicians will sing a group of songs which will be the Arts League's contribution to Music Week.

A social hour will follow the program, in charge of Mrs. Blanch Jones, Mrs. William F. Fargo and Mrs. Ella Hathaway. The hosts for the evening will be the officers of the league and the leaders of the league sections.

This is the annual meeting of the Salem Arts League with election of officers, and the business meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock.

All league members are urged to be present for the business meeting and friends of the league and those interested in the program are cordially invited to be present for that and the social hour.

Hosts for the evening include Lynn P. Cronemiller, president; Mrs. Edna Dally, Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, Mrs. Ella C. Hathaway, Mrs. C. A. Lytle, Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, S. H. Van Tassel, J. M. Clifford, Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Perry Reigelman, Miss Julia Webster, Mrs. Elise Ebsen, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. Jessie Singleton, Mrs. D. L. Shrode.

Mrs. C. H. Wilbur will act as chairman of the program meeting for the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church at the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A tea hour will follow the business and program meeting and Mrs. Waldo Mills and her committee will be in charge of this.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary held a meeting of interest Friday afternoon in the armory, in connection with plans for the annual state encampment of Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary in July. The next meeting will be a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Arnold, 1830 North 21st street, May 19.

The American Legion Trio following its appearance at the luncheon at the Congress hotel in Portland Thursday, honoring Mrs. Alfred S. Blackburn, national auxiliary president, appeared in a group of numbers over KGW in an unaccompanied program. It also sang at the banquet given by the Portland unit at the Multnomah hotel in the evening. Friday night the trio sang in Silverton. At this time Mrs. Lena Belle Turtar, director, attended them. Miss Lois Plummer accompanied them.

The Association for Childhood Education will meet in the music room of Garfield school for its regular meeting Tuesday at 3:45 o'clock. The picnic which had been scheduled for the association for this weekend was cancelled because of too much conflict with other activities.

Forty-Eighth Birthday To be Honored

One of the most interesting meetings of the year for the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will be that planned for 2:15 o'clock Wednesday in the church parlors at which time the 48th anniversary of the local organization will be observed.

Mrs. R. G. Baldersee will be in charge of the program and Mrs. P. F. Stoitzel will lead the devotions. Mrs. C. F. Brethaupt will give the history of the organization.

Mrs. A. J. Smith, formerly a missionary in China for many years, will be the chief speaker of the afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Clements will be soloist.

A tea will follow the program and this will be in charge of Mrs. B. B. Blackford, Mrs. R. G. Baldersee, Mrs. Ray Farmer, Mrs. Thomas Holman and Mrs. W. E. Ingalls.

Recent Bride is Complimented

Mrs. Allan Jarvill, nee Bernice Sloper, a recent bride, was the inspiration for a charming dinner followed by a gift shower at the home of Miss Alma Green Thursday night.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Jarvill, and for Elsie Mackenzie, Clara Melike, Beulah Follis, Frances Looney, Veneta Kaser, Blanche King, Katherine Driscoll, Gertrude E. Scott, Myrtle Taylor, Jenny Stott, Anna Schirmer, Lyle Looney, Grace Wilwer, Martha Taitman, Margaret Muehlaupt, Helen Pike, Margaret Binschader of Lebanon and Miss Green.

All members of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. are urged to be present for the meeting of Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. L. O. Clement will preside as president, and Mrs. C. A. Park will have charge of the devotions. This is an especially important meeting.

The Three Link club members are planning a no-host one o'clock luncheon, in commemoration of Mother's day, May 13. All Rebekahs are invited to attend and bring a mother with them, the roll call to be answered with a quotation about mother.

May Day Fete Draws Wide Attention

WITH the spring comes the annual May-day week end for Willamette university, and with the May day affairs comes a flood of social activities for the university set.

Among the pretty affairs given in addition to dozens of house guests entertained and informal social events was the buffet supper for which Beta Chi sorority was hostess Friday night.

Out of town guests for the affair included Miss Evelyn Shields, Miss Adeline Shields, Miss Virginia Carlson, Miss Jean Hollingsworth, Miss Mabel Worrall, Miss Reva West and Miss Catherine Adams, all of Portland; Miss Mary Alice Northwick of Albany, Miss Hazel Plummer, Miss Eleanor Rutledge, Miss Helen Shroyer, Miss Edna Danford, all of Dallas; Miss Pauline Winslow of Tillamook, Miss Pauline Vansteg of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Ruth Billings of Ashland.
