at the weekend and were steady to firm. Butterfat was generally 1c above Seattle. Market for eggs continued to show a much mixed tone even though top prices were unchanged. Undergrades continued to take the bulk of the local trade.

These were called from extras There remained generally unsatisfied demand for colored or large spring chickens in the local trade with active bidding. Other chickens were unchanged in price Poor quality was shown among late arrivals of tom turkeys. The stock was so flabby as to be almost worthless. Hens, were gen-the coming week suggested. Hogs, lambs and beef were unchanged Demand for Wool

Strong; Supplies

Limited, Boston BOSTON, May 6-(AP)-A continued strong demand with limited supplies of wool in the Boston market, today turned prices to higher levels than prevailed at the close of last week. All grade of terri.ory wools were sold at advanced prices, medium and low quality wools leading in the advance. Some lots of the finer territory wools were held above recent prices. Offerings of fleeces were restricted and a few lots of medium realized advances of 2 to 3 cents in the grease over prices accepted early last week.
