ending road and trail construction and betterment, construction of telephone lines, building and improvement of public camp sites and felling snags along strategic ridges as a means of fire prevention and control. It is also believed some attention will be given to beetle control in yellow pine regions and blister rust control in white pine areas.

Two state camps will be established in northern Coos county, where most of the 70,000 acres of state forest land is located. Croomiller heads Lynn F. Croomiller, state forester, will be in charge of state and private land camps, but the work will be executed in cooperation with the private agencies and the federal forest service. Croomiller was planning to leave Salem tomorrow to inspect camp sites and complete the gathering of data preparatory to submitting final plans for the work.

In substance, the agreement between the federal government and the state provides that the governor recommend to the state legislature the passage of legislation enabling the state to reimburse the federal government when and if the state reaps the benefits accruing from the conservation work. This would be at the rate of $1 a day for each man, the pay given the men in the civilian conservation corps.

The first camps on national forest lands are scheduled to open next Monday. The federal forest service will supervise work in these camps as well as in those established on the Oregon-California grant lands.

MAYOR OF ASTORIA TRIES PEACE MOVE

price and the gillnetters had demanded 8 cents. A preliminary meeting arranged by the chamber of commerce came to naught. At a meeting called last night by C. H. Gram, Oregon labor commissioner, the packers boosted their price to 4 1/2 cents and granted certain concessions, but the fishermen refused to come down from their 8-cent demand.

"In view of reports that many of your numbers have indicated a desire to start fishing and in view of the fact that your return to work is vital to the welfare of this community," Mayor Ten Brook said in issuing his call, "I desire to discuss the situation with you and have therefore called a meeting of gillnetters only, to be held in the auditorium at 8 p. m. Wednesday."

KELLER CONVICTION IN POLK IS UPHELD

ance and to make mortgage loans, were first publicized by The Oregon Statesman and indictments against the firm's officers followed. Keller and several others were named recently defendants in a suit brought in federal court in Montana by the federal government on the charge of using the mails to defraud. The court found Keller and others guilty and sentenced them to terms in federal prison. The case is on appeal. Sale of stock in the Baldwin Radio company was involved.

Mrs. W. F. Fargo is Elected Head Of Arts League

The Salem Arts league, meeting for the last time until fall, last night elected Mrs. W. F. Fargo president, to succeed Lynn F. Croomiller, state forester. Other new officers are: S. H. Van Trump, first vice-president; Mrs. William Kirk, second vice-president; Mrs. Jesse Singleton, secretary; Mrs. A. Lytle, financial secretary; Mrs. Mary Fletcher, treasurer; and Perry Reigelman, publicity director. The program, held at the chamber of commerce, included moving pictures of Salem gardens, shown by Miss Kathryn Gussnell, and music.

Dr. Doney to be Commencement Speaker for S.H.S.

President Carl Gregg Doney of Willamette university Tuesday accepted the invitation extended him by the Salem high school officials to deliver the commencement address to the senior class at the Elsinore theater June 2. The exercises will begin at 10:30 a. m. So far 377 students have been listed as eligible for graduation this spring, the class this year exceeding the record 1932 class by 22 members.

MOTORCYCLE STOLEN
While auto thieves rested, another thief last night stole a motorcycle belonging to Charles Rice, 147 South Commercial street, the owner reported to city police. The machine, with Oregon license plates, C-94, was stolen from the 1700 block on Berry street.

The Call Board

ELSIKORE
Today — Paul Lukas and Loretta Young in "Grand Slam."

Today — Loretta Young in "They Call It Sin."
Friday — William Haines in "Fast Life." Short, "Roosevelt, the Man of the Hour."

GRAND
Today — Loretta Young in "Zoo in Budapest."
Thursday — Bela Lugosi in "Night of Terror."

If you have been annoyed by the well-known blitzer post (and who hasn't) you will have an opportunity to have a good laugh at the expense of this nefarious tribe in the latest First National picture, "Grand Slam," which opens at the Elsinore today.

Altogether there are 50 kibitzers in the picture, who sit or stand around to annoy the players in a world championship tournament, which is one of the highlights in this uproariously funny comedy romance based on the novel by R. Russell Herta. Whether or not one takes bridge seriously, no one will be able to keep from chuckling over the humorous situations and complications that arise over the great American indoor sport. The picture is enacted by a splendid cast with Paul Lukas and Loretta Young in the leading roles.

WORKMEN RETURN, PAY IS INCREASED

of them were among firms that greeted pickups with screaming whistles that called men back to work. Among the concerns that boosted wages: Supreme Shirt company of Philadelphia, 10 per cent; Armstrong Rubber company, 10 per cent. Monday E. L. Cord announced a 5 per cent increase for his companies and the Norfolk Tire & Rubber company a bonus of 5 per cent on weekly wages. Many of the employers referred in announcing payroll increases to President Roosevelt's admonitions in that respect and to the $3,000,000,000 public construction plan to revive business as completed by his advisors.

Federated Clubs Will offer Final Program May 16

The Marion County Federation of Community clubs will hold the final program of winning numbers in the numerous divisions of the contest at the high school auditorium Tuesday night, May 16, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of two plays by Bethel and Halesville clubs, music by orchestra from Silverton Hills, chorus from Liberty and public speaker from Silverton Hills. Dr. Philip A. Parsons of the University of Oregon will award the prizes to the winners in all contests at this time. There will be a nominal admission.

Decline in Auto Licenses Great

Motor vehicle registrations in Oregon during the past year decreased 6.8 per cent below those in 1932. Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, reported Tuesday. This was greater than the national average decline of 6.6 per cent. Washington was the only state to report larger registrations last year than in 1932. Arkansas shows the largest decline in registrations.

Flower Thefts Here Numerous

The fifth of a series of flower garden thefts has been reported to city police by Mrs. A. A. Graber, 1191 North Winter street, who states that sometime Saturday night vandals stole a seven-year-old azalea plant from her yard. Police have recently received similar complaints from 1780 North Cottage street, 1840 North Capitol, the 1700 block on North Winter, and 545 E street.

Block Company To Open Store

H. H. Dappe of Portland, representing Block's Shoe Stores, Inc., was in Salem Tuesday closing a lease for the store room on Liberty street now occupied by Elise's dry goods store. The Block organization now operates 15 shoe stores in Oregon and Washington. They plan to open about June 15.

no crime. I refuse to submit to arrest on charges framed by the power interests and Medford's old gang."

The state believed it further strengthened its case against the two defendants today when after a hot battle with opposing attorneys, it was successful in admitting as evidence a loaded automatic pistol, a supply of ammunition and a cartridge belt allegedly found in the Banks home. Prescott was shot to death with a rifle.

Intent is to Show Act Premeditated
Circuit Judge G. F. Skipworth, in admitting this evidence, ruled that "under the charge of first degree murder the state must show intent, premeditation and premeditation. While it is admitted the weapon was not the one used in the alleged killing, it still has a bearing on the purported premeditation for battle of the defendants."

RELIEF PLAN WILL AID SCHOOLS HERE

The Crescendo club, senior high school music society, to contribute $125, to be matched by the board, toward purchase of a grand piano for the auditorium. The supplies committee was delegated to confer with club leaders in regard to raising additional funds. The present piano is an upright, purchased a year ago for $125. It was pointed out that with a good piano, the high school auditorium could be rented to musical organizations of the city.

The board again granted the city playground board permission to use the Lincoln school grounds and Olinger field for the summer playgrounds this year.

Stamp Society Gathering Here Well Attended

Third regular meeting of Salem Stamp society was held in the Y. M. C. A. with usual good attendance Monday night. Membership is now 52 with a good percentage regular attendants. Interesting stamps on original cover, first day and first flight covers and many interesting stamp collections are on display at the meetings.

It is hoped to make some arrangements for regular receipt of approval books from which the members may fill in the vacant spaces in their albums and in the meantime interesting talks and general information are being traded back and forth by the society members. A special meeting will be held at the Y Monday, May 22, when it is planned to have a special talk by Joseph Weber, concerning methods of printing and engraving the different postal issues. The general public as well as collectors is cordially welcomed.

Radio Detail of Guard Prepares For Encampment

Preparing for summer encampment, the radio detail of Headquarters battery, 249th coast artillery, Oregon national guard, went on the air from the army Sunday morning for test purposes and its calls were heard by numerous Salem residents. The detail used one of its three 50-watt transmitters on a wavelength of 327 meters to communicate with Fort Stevens. Its regimental call letters are DW-1, and battalion calls, L-9-0 and L-9-N.

Those from the Island districts who will graduate are Martha and Frances Sanderson, Marie Miller, Beatrice Milford, Wibbar Milford, Howard Rockhill and Charles Berger. Greater Oregon Group Requests Local Exhibits
The Woman's Greater Oregon association is sending out a call to local industries to exhibit at the annual Oregon products dinner to be held at the armory, Wednesday night, May 24. In order to defray expenses of the dinner, a dollar display fee will be levied. About 400 persons are expected for the dinner, which will be accompanied by a style show. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith is Salem resident of the association, and Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, chairman of the industries committee.

Local Medics Hear Seattle Physician

Dr. Alexander Hoppler of Seattle lectured on "Urology" at the May meeting of the Yamhill-Polk-Marion Medical society held in the Masonic temple banquet room last night. This was one of a series of meetings on specialized subjects to which the association has invited all doctors in the central Willamette valley region.

NURSES INSURED

Industrial accident commission coverage for the staff of the Marion county health department was discussed yesterday by the executive board. The department has had this coverage but certain items needed clearing up. Twice recently the insurance has been used, in the case of Miss Grace Taylor, who was beaten about the face by Mrs. Rose Farlow, and Miss Margaret McAlpine, who suffered a broken kneecap as the result of an automobile accident.

CHINESE DECLARE CITY ISN'T TAKEN

TIENSIN, China, May 10. — Wednesday — (AP) — Contrary to Japanese reports that they had occupied Tiensin in North China, Chinese dispatches today claimed Chinese forces were holding the city despite heavy attacks. "Ten Japanese airplanes rained bombs upon the city, starting fires," the advices said, "and 3000 Japanese infantry, with artillery supporting, attacked, but the Chinese are holding the city." Further Chinese advices stated the Japanese were conducting heavy air bombing generally to the east of the Lwan river, taking a heavy toll of civilian life and property.

HAZEL GREEN, May 9 — N. P. Williamson is having his grounds landscaped and planted. The lily pond, bird bath and rock garden will be finished when weather permits. Colored rocks are being hauled from Gervais.

SEVEN MILLION FOR HIGHWAYS POSSIBLE

Oregon would receive approximately $7,000,000 for highway construction operation this year if the bill offered by the National Association of Highway Officials is incorporated in President Roosevelt's public works program which probably will be introduced in congress today. This information was received yesterday from J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway commission, who left for Washington recently to assist the Oregon delegation in congress in obtaining road funds for unemployment relief.

MUSICAL STUDENTS PRESENT PROGRAM

AUMSVILLE, May 9 — Miss Mabel Kullander and Miss Gladys Burgess presented their gleeful and orchestra students in a concert at the school house Friday night. Members of the glee club are Neva Ham, Thelma McDonald, Velma Royce, Viola Bradley, June Rischel, Lucille Getchell, Leora Gearhart, Virginia Garbe, Grace Weagle, Cleo Barry, Gladys Burgess and Angeline Fieber. Members of the orchestra are Mabel Kullander, Bessie Panther, June Rischel, Roy Trudgen, Orville Snider, Dorothy Asche, Wilfred Ditter, Frances Ruetgers and Neva Ham. An accident that came near being serious happened Sunday afternoon when two of the little Haney girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haney, ran into the street from Cheffings store, apparently never looking either way and ran directly in front of a car driven by a Mr. Neuman of Salem. When they noticed the car one of the girls ran but the other did not. The driver of the car applied his brakes but as the pavement was wet he skidded into her knocking her down. The child was uninjured.

Gardens Look Fine At Mill City Even As Rains Persist

MILL CITY, May 9 — Rain, accompanied by heavy wind from the south has been falling here almost steadily the past three days. On the mountains to the east and south of the city snow has fallen and a heavy fall is reported from the Detroit district. In spite of the unusual rain fall, gardens and grain fields are looking good and with a few days of warm sunshine bumper crops will undoubtedly be experienced.

Klamath Doesn't Know It's Spring

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 9 — (AP) — Snow fell here today for the ninth consecutive day, the longest since the fluffy flakes in May since 1918, when snow fell every day of May. Little snow remained on the city's streets, but surrounding hills have been covered since last winter.
