

Willamette Beats Columbia 2-1; Staters Come Today

BURCH WINNER IN MOUND DUEL

Allows 3 Hits, Fans 9; big Rain Spoils Possible Rally for Irish

Behind the three-hit, nine-strikeout pitcher of Don Burch, freshman from Silverton, the Willamette Bearcats noosed out a 2 to 1 victory over Columbia university on Olinger field Wednesday afternoon. Emlberg, Columbia hurler, also allowed but three hits, but the Bearcats took advantage of their opportunities, including one of Columbia's errors, and they played perfect ball behind Burch.

The game was called in the eighth when something in the nature of a cloudburst struck the diamond—and thereby hangs a tale. The Irish had three men on the bags and only one out, and they envisioned a winning rally. On the other hand, the drizzle that had freshened into a lively rain before the umpire called a recess, undoubtedly had something to do with Burch's walking two of those men who were on the paths.

So when the downpour ceased temporarily, the Columbia coach was insistent on a continuation, though the diamond was flooded. His Umps, viewing the ticklish situation, refused to allow play to proceed under the circumstances, but also refused to call the game off until it could be determined if the field would shed enough water to make play possible.

But the weather man, having caused the stalemate, proceeded to solve it by sending another and bigger shower which left no doubt as to the proper decision.

With Burch performing at his best, the Irish did not get a man on base until the fifth, when one walked. In the sixth another walk and the Cliffdwellers' first two hits, produced their lone tally.

Willamette scored in the first when Oravec walked, Manning sacrificed him around to third on a wild play, and he came home on another sacrifice by Gribble. The winning run came in the fourth when Erickson singled, advanced on an infield out and scored on one of Columbia's two errors.

Today, weather permitting, the Bearcats will play Oregon State on Olinger field at 3:30. Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette will start either Oravec or Manning on the mound, and "Slats" Gill of Oregon State will send Woodard or Rasmussen to the hill. If Oravec pitches, Walt Erickson may

Salem High Divoteers Out To Retain State Title in Tournament Opening Today

Hopeful of winning a second successive state championship, the Salem high school golf team today will start competition in the third annual state tournament on the Lake Oswego Country club course at Oswego.

Members of the local team are Millard Groves, Walter Cline, Jr., Richard Pierce, George McLeod, Winfield Needham and Irwin Edwards. The first four mentioned probably will compose the quartet which will engage in competition.

Although Salem high won the Willamette valley association championship with considerable ease in the recent final tournament among district winners on the same course, Coach Tom Wolgamott's boys are expecting to run into tougher competition in the state meet, especially from Parkrose which was Salem's strongest foe a year ago and which has virtually the same team back again.

The Salem team last weekend defeated Astoria 7 to 5, on Astoria's home course, an outcome so indicative as to indicate that the Fishermen also will be in the running at Oswego. Salem tied with Vancouver, Wash., high in another match.

Entry lists and public interest in this annual tournament have been growing steadily since the move in to second base.

SHELLENBACK'S SPITTER WORKS

Stars win 12-3; Bobby by Monroe Permits Seven Run Rally, Fourth

Here last year Salem won after halving its semi-final match with Eugene and being forced into a playoff, and lagging behind Parkrose in the first nine holes of the finals. The final match was so close that the entire outcome depended upon a five-foot putt in the last match to reach the 18th green.

Groves and Cline are the only members of last year's tournament team now competing.

CURT COMMENTS

Just when everybody thought the weather man had reformed, he backslid, and did a thorough job of it as backslider's often do.

Three ball games coming under our official notice were stopped by Wednesday afternoon's sudden downpour; and such contests are nearly always subject to argument. These three terminated in three different ways. However, the weather man having made his job so complete, there was no question about any of them having been called needlessly.

In the case of the Willamette-Columbia game here, it should be pointed out that had Columbia proceeded with its half of the eighth and scored any number of runs, it still wouldn't have won the game unless Willamette completed its half of the eighth, and that couldn't possibly have happened before the second and decisive deluge. At Woodburn, something like that did occur; Chemawa tied the score in its half of the ninth, but Woodburn didn't bat so the score reverted to what it had been at the end of equal times at bat.

Those are just instances of the thoroughness of the baseball rules in providing for fairness under any contingency. If the game here had been allowed to continue under adverse conditions for the team in the field, both teams would have had to suffer. Of course if water began coming down in the last half of an inning after the fifth, just hard enough to handicap the fielding team but not quite enough to stop the game, there would be no help for it.

NO JUNIOR PRACTICE No practice will be held by the Salem American Legion Junior squad this afternoon, Coach Harold Hawk announced. Uncertainty of the weather and the necessity for some of the boys to come from a distance, was the cause for this decision.

OAKLAND, May 10.—(AP)—Oakland evened up the series with Los Angeles by defeating the Angels, 8-7, today. Buck Newsom, talkative Angel twirler, was knocked out of the box in the third. Los Angeles 5 10 1 Oakland 9 12 4 Newsom, Stitzel and Cronin; Joiner and Veltman.

SACRAMENTO, May 10.—(AP)—Night game: San Francisco 9 14 3 Sacramento 12 17 1 Stein, Hollerson, Stutz and McIsaac; Flynn, Noonan and Wirtz.

At San Francisco, Seattle-Mission game postponed, rain.

WOODBURN NINE TOPS CHEMAWA

Indians tie it up in Ninth But Rain Intervenes, Score Reverts

CHEMAWA, May 10.—Erratic fielding in today's game at Woodburn cost Chemawa. In a school's baseball team its last apparent chance for a championship in the Willamette Valley interscholastic league, though the heavy rain which began falling late in the day also had something to do with it. Chemawa lost to Woodburn high on Woodburn's diamond 5 to 3.

Chemawa scored two runs in the first half of the ninth and that would have tied the score; but the rain prevented Woodburn from batting in the last half of the ninth, so the score reverted to what it was at the end of the eighth.

Vivette, Chemawa pitcher, lofted the ball over the fence with one runner ahead of him in that rally that didn't count. Coach Lavelle of Chemawa stated there was no question but that the game should have been stopped as it was.

Vivette pitched exceptional ball, limiting Woodburn to three hits and fanning 13 batters including four in the first inning, but his outfield mates dropped or misjudged nearly every ball hit their way, and the infield work was little better.

Chemawa will go to Lebanon tomorrow for another league game. Chemawa 5 7 9 Woodburn 5 2 1 Vivette and Zundie, Katchia; Gearia and Conyne.

INDEPENDENCE, May 10.—Albany high school took first place with 58 2-3 points, Dallas second with 37 5-4 and Independence third with 33 1-3, in the three-way track meet held at Albany today. Though Independence

PARRISH, ACADEMY QUIT AT 3-3 FIFTH

Farrish Junior high and Sacred Heart academy ball teams decided to call their game a draw after five innings on Sweetland field Wednesday afternoon. The score was tied at 3-all in the fifth, Sacred Heart coming up from behind.

It was raining fairly copiously at the time and the cloud that carried the big downpour of late afternoon was just coming into view. The coaches guessed correctly that there was no use going any further, and decided to quit while everything was equal.

Parrish and Leslie junior high are scheduled to play another game in the city series Friday afternoon at 3:45.

Double Headers To be Numerous Later in Season

CHICAGO, May 10.—(AP)—The great American baseball flood and frost of 1933 will bring a record-breaking deluge of doubleheaders to major league fans this summer.

So wide a swath has been cut through the major league schedules the first 28 playing days of the season by rainfall and cold weather that 43 games—24 in each league—have been forced into the overhauling doubleheader hopper. Better baseball weather isn't in sight yet.

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, May 10.—Virgil Heath, former Gates high school athlete, was a member of the Oregon State two-mile relay track team that defeated University of Oregon here recently in the annual dual meet between these two state institutions. Heath is a one-year letterman.
