Nile Club Hostess To Portland Club Officers

One of the smartest affairs of the year for the Nile club of Salem was the luncheon and afternoon of cards at Masonic temple Thursday afternoon in compliment to officers of Nydia temple of Portland.

The lodge rooms were beautifully arranged with a profusion of tulips and ferns. In addition to the card afternoon a program was given which included a whistling solo by Miss Fielda Wiggins of Portland and a violin solo by Joy Turner Moses of Salem.

A pretty feature of the afternoon was the presentation of gifts to Mrs. D. O. Webster, queen of Nydia temple, Mrs. C. H. Cantner, princess recorder, whose wedding anniversary was Thursday, and to Miss Fielda Wiggins, by Mrs. George Burnett, president of the Salem club.

Prizes for cards went to Mrs. Paul Hauser for auction and to Mrs. E. Davidson of Portland for contract.

"Bohemian Girl" To Be Repeated

Because of the unqualified success attending the performance of "The Bohemian Girl" by the Light Opera club of Willamette University last month, the opera will be repeated at the Portland Municipal auditorium, Friday night, June 2. Dean Cameron Marshall announced today that the entire production, in fact, including many additions, would be taken to Portland.

Civic organizations in Portland, including On-To-Oregon, the Willamette Alumni association, chamber of commerce and others, will be the sponsors of the presentation there. All proceeds will go towards defraying expenses of the trip to the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago by the Philharmonic choir, where they will represent Oregon.

C. A. Sprague Will Address Club Women

Salem Women's club will meet today for next to the last meeting of the season.

A musical program has been arranged for the afternoon which will be in compliment to Music Week, and an interesting talk will be given by C. A. Sprague upon a general topic which might be characterized as a "cabbages and kings" matter.

All members of the club are urged to attend this meeting which will be preceded by an executive board meeting and this followed by a brief business meeting.

Knot-A-Care Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Delbert Wilson entertained for the Knot-A-Care club at her home Thursday afternoon. Sewing occupied the afternoon hours and in conclusion an attractive luncheon was served.

Mrs. William Thomas will be the next hostess for the club. Mrs. Carroll Robinson, Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Elton Birch, and Mrs. Delbert Wilson were guests for the afternoon.
