Butter, Egg Marts Continue Firm: Lamb Still Dull: Asparagus Down 10c

PORTLAND, May 16-(AP)-Market for butter reflected individual strength for Portland which was keeping supplies well cleaned up. Demand for fresh consumption as well as for storage was taking care of whatever supplies were available; and there appears scarcely sufficient of these to fill current regulrements. Demand for top quality butter supply, the local market continued above that of Seattle. Butterfat values here the highest in the northwest for similar

PORTLAND, May 16-(AP)-The largest single block of free wool to go on sale in the United States this year, 2,800,000 pounds of the Idaho 1932 clip, was snapped up by eastern and northwest bidders here today in the fast time of 61/2 hours, and for prices ranging from 20 to 27 cents a pound. It was the largest single sale ever undertaken at Portland. Ranging in size from 500 to 126,000 pounds, the lots were sold in an average time of two minutes each, with 8 to 10 bidders naming prices on every clip. Twenty bidders from eastern and northwest mills attended the

The light shrinking wools were reported officially to have sold at prices of 24 to 25 cents a pound, with the higher price of 27 cents offered for some of the best grades. The heavy shrinking wools went at 20 to 21 cents.

At first it was thought because of the large number of lots in which the block was divided the the sale might have to be continued tomorrow, but the part pace at which the bidding started was sustained, and the entire amount was in the hands of buyers late today.

IN TRAGEDY

Tragedy is etched deeply on the face of 17-year-old Loretta Schmitz, of Elgin, Ill., following the ordeal she recently underwent, when she was forced to stand by and witness the murder of her father, John Schmitz, by a crazed farm hand, Oliver Day. After Day had show the girl's father, he forced her to take the gun and shoot him. Frightened out of her wits, the girl
