Eggs Cent Higher and Veal is up to $7; Cattle Weaker

Wool and mohair prices have been boosted locally, following sale of the Idaho and eastern Oregon pool in Portland at prices which averaged 23 % cents, Locally, dealers were offering 20 cents a pound on medium wool, and 18 cents on coarse, Mohair is up to 10 cents a pound, an increase of four cents over this time last week.

No 1933 wool is offered here yet, cold weather holding back shearing operations. Hogs are quoted at $5 even. and dressed hogs at $7.50, while veal is up to $7. Eggs were quoted a cent higher yesterday, with 14 cents on extras, 13 cents on standards and 12 cents on mediums. Cattle were a bit weaker.

NEW YORK, May 17-(AP)security markets were cheerfully disposed foday and prices again advanced. The stock trend was upward fit taking ate into the many extreme gains of 1 to more than 5 points. Shorts in American Telephone pent an uncomfortable day. Apparently they reduced their commitments to a sizeable extent both before and after declaration of the usual $2.25 quarterly dividend, for the stock shot up to

Prunes Injured By Rain, Fall is Worse Than Usual

Prunes in the higher districts have been injured severely by persistent rains in the last fortnight. Notice is hereby given that S. H. VanTrump, county horticulturist, reported yesterday. The prevailing rains have also adversely affected the cherries, which had just started to set when the precipitation started, he said. The fruit and berry crops generally are very much in need of sunshine, VanTrump said. Fall of the newly set fruit has been heaver, and Secretary of said Commission. M. 13-14-16-17-18-19- ier than usual at this season of the year.
