Further Advances

Come In Ohio and Fleeces Similar BOSTON, May 18 -(AP) -

Further advances have recently been made in several grades of Ohlo and similar fleeces. Prices realized, on strictly combing 56s and 48-50s, grades bright fleeces, were mostly in the range 30-31c in the grease for the bulk. Sales have been reported at slightly higher than 31c, but these were exceptionally choice wool. Clothing staples out of similar lines have brought up to 20c in the grease.

Prices Firm to Higher All Along Line; Butter Steady

PORTLAND, May 18. - (AP) -Extreme strength of the poultry trade locally and along the coast generally was attracting more than normal attention. Demand has for some days past been in excess of supply with the latter somewhat below normal considering the period of the year. Prices recently have been steady to strong and firm to higher all along the line, even undersized broilers moving out promptly at quotable prices white the heavier sorts were higher in spots. Demand for light weight hens was far in excess of the current offering which suggested reason why lights were selling mostly at exactly the same price as mediums. In fact there was but 1c spread generally in the price obtained for hens on the Portland Market for butter was showing fully steady tone on the open trade and without price changes. Demand was best for top score to go into coolers but all grades were showing satsifactory deman/. Butterfat was firmly held. market was without han e. Prices were mostly mainstred. Receipts were holding up well. Market for country killed hogs and calves was steady to firm for the day and prices were well sustained generally. Lambs and yearlings continued more or less easy, but ewes remain in call. Yesterday's weakness in asparagus gave way today to a shewing of at least steadiness with prices steady to firm and slightly higher.

Receipts for the day were moder-
