

MARRIED FACULTY MEMBERS RESIGN

School Budget Before Voters Monday; Warrant Basis Is Expected

DALLAS, May 18 — Two of the most valued teachers of the Dallas schools resigned this week as a result of the recent drive against married teachers. First to resign was Mrs. E. R. Turner, head of the commercial department for the past 11 years. She is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and had been a teacher for several years before she entered the Dallas schools. She has been in charge of the Dallas typing teams which have won statewide recognition and have placed among the first three teams in the state contest for several years. The second teacher to resign was Mrs. S. E. Whitworth, head of the civics and history department for several years and later in charge of history and the school library. Mrs. Whitworth entered the Dallas schools in September, 1926 and has taught here regularly since that time. She has been in charge of the debate squads at Dallas high for the past few years and the teams coached by her have won many honors for Dallas in district and state meets. A special school election has been called next Monday, May

Funeral Services This Morning For Rev. Gall Eugster

MT. ANGELO, May 17 — Rev. Father Gall Eugster, O. S. B., died at St. Benedict's abbey Wednesday afternoon. He had been suffering from dropsy for almost two years. He was one of Oregon's pioneer priests, born in Alistatten, Switzerland, May 6, 1862. He came to Oregon with the first Benedictines in 1882. He made his profession on Dec. 8, 1897 and was ordained to the priesthood June 22, 1898. He was a doctor of music and taught at Mt. Angelo college for many years. He was also with the Indians at Grand Ronde and for 17 years was resident chaplain at Chemawa Indian school. Funeral services will be held at the abbey chapel Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

SCIO EIGHTH GRADE PROGRAM IS MAY 31

Outside Districts Also Will Send in Pupils for Graduation Event

SCIO, May 18 — The commencement exercises for the 8th grade graduating class will be held at the Christian church Wednesday, May 31, at 8 p.m., according to E. P. Caldwell, teacher, and who is in charge of the grammar school graduation. Rex F. C. M. A., superintendent of schools at Albany will deliver the main address. County school superintendent J. M. Bennett will present the diplomas. Graduates from outside districts will receive their diplomas and graduate with the Scio pupils as has been the custom for the past several years. Students finishing the 8th grade in the Scio school are Andy Heitsendorf, Henry Chrs, Johnnie Bieleks, Lowell Meyers, Allen MacDonald, Velma Palon, Anna Faulstich, Loris Hollis, Legna Asp, Ella Hall, Alleen MacDonald and Virginia Tichenor. Mrs. E. R. Olds, music teacher in Scio presented her pupils in recital at the Christian church in Scio assisted by the Glee club of Scio high school, Tuesday night, May 16, under the direction of Miss Doris Clark. John Denmore Jr., is the new school board member appointed by the county school superintendent to finish the term of Earle Henry Chrs, Johnnie Bieleks, Phillips who resigned when he took over the duties of postmaster in Scio. The Scio group taking part in the music week contest program at Albany Saturday night received the award for second place. Halsey was awarded first prize.
