PAGE SIX

The OREGON STATESMAN, Salem, Oregon, Sunday Morning, May 21, 1933

Salem Philharmonic Orchestra Monday Night at Armory in Final Concert

By OLIVE M. DOAK

'Sing, brother, sing, that's why darkies were born" or something to that effect is the theme of a popular song - a consoling phil-osophy for there is no greater boon to humanity than music in some form, jazz, classic, religious, or folk music. Each to fts devotees acts as a gloom chaser and sedative for trouble. To many it is an inspiration for greater accomplishments, and to all but a negligible few, music in some form is a necessary and vital part of their lives.

Each city has its representative musical organizations which are as much a part of the city progress as its chamber of commerce and its industries. The more advanced the city, the more highly developed its musical organizations, because such organizations thrive on the support of the public and therefore the advancement of the public is reflected in such organizations.

Monday night will demonstrate in part the splendid advancement that Salem has made in the past year in musical activity. The Salem Philharmonic symphony or-chestra will present its third concert under the direction of Jacques Gershkovitch and with it will be presented the Willamette university philharmonic choir of which Cameron Marshall is director.

This choir has taken on a civic color along with the symphony orchestra for it has been chosen by Governor Meler to represent Oreson in the world fair which is opening in Chicago in a few weeks.

Both organizations are in their infancy but each is a child prodigy. Of a group of about 50 players in the symphony orchestra there are 32 students, several of whom are grade school children, two of them 9 and 10 years old respectively, a larger number high school and junior high. school students and the remainder students at either Monmouth or Willamette university. The Philharmonic choir has a complete personnel of Willamette students.

Many of the symphony personnel have had to overcome some severe obstacles to be able to take a place in the orchestra. Some have had no instruments, some have not had money to pay for lessons to musically equip themselves to play with the orchestra, others have families to support or live at considerable distance from Salem and find transportastacles have been overcome.

One of the members of the or-Here are a few personalities chesta took offense at a statement which intimated that many had concerning the five people shown had to sacrifice in order to take in the cut. Miss Eddress Green, advantage of the chance to play teacher in Dallas high school, armonic orchestra. To call it a sacrifice to overcome any child but gave it up for some of the obstacles was ingratitude reason. Ten years elapsed and in the opinion of this young musithen came the symphony this cian-business man. To have the last fall. She began practicing opportunity to play in the orchesand now drives to Portland once tra was a "break" for which each a week, takes a cello lesson with should thank his lucky stars. Herbert Sorensen, seldom misses But why try to tell the public a rehearsal and finds time to about the orchestra this same give a cello lesson regularly to young man went on to say. "Eva small girl who could not othererybody knows that we are just wise have the lesson. beginners and that we are far You will see her in her place from perfect-we are working Monday night, slim, dark, gracehard and improving each time ful and seeming to express in but still we are a long way from every movement the deep, sensiunderstanding the music upon tive beauty of her instrument. which we are working-it takes Then there is Wesley Roeder. a long time to be able to underyoung graduate of Willamette stand the beauty and intelligence university whose hobby is bands, of classical music. We can't and brasses in the symphony. He play like the large symphony orplays and teaches them all but chestras that the public likes to he prefers the trumpet. He has talk about. We are just getting worked out some very nice trum-"educated" in music and I don't pet work with both Willamette think the public would care students as director of the uniabout going to school with us," versity band for four years and A splendid simplicity and sinwith high school students as cerity on the part of this young director of the high school band musician. He has by the way this year. taken up the flute at his odd He is a slim young man, moments between working very pleasing to meet, with quick enhard in one of the cogs of a thusiasm for his work and for large corporation. This was two the orchestra. He majored in years ago. He read first concernpsychology in college having taking music and studied musical en work in addition to Willaminstruments and instrumentation ette in the University of Oregon and came to the conclusion that and also the University of Washthe flute was his choice. After ington. In each school he was two years of persistent applicaa member of the University symtion he has a reputation in the phonies, having traveled in the orchestra for his superior intertours made by the University of pretation of his instrument. Oregon symphony. He has also And if the public which does and still does radio broadcasting it is true, likes to talk about the and just now is playing each splendid orchestras that it has Friday night with the 162nd Inheard in New York, or San fantry band in Portland. As was Francisco, or Portland, or said before, he "loves" bands. abroad, could but listen in on This young musician is also a one of the rehearsals which is tennis enthusiast, having been held several times during the captain of the Willamette team week with one grand rehearsal for two years. He is also particueach week, there is no doubt larly fond of "The Surprise Symin my mind but that it would phony." gladly come for each program And there is Hortense Taylor and be delighted with sharing who has seen much of Salem. the education that these young She is the daughter of Rev. Fred people are getting and taking so S. Taylor who was pastor of the seriously. First Methodist church here be-There is something fine in fore being called to Portland. sharing the accomplishments of Miss Taylor is, according to others, and in reality the orchesthose who work with her in the tra belongs to Salem for it is a civic organization, supported by the individual contribution of orchestra, a very talented young lady. She has won several violin you and you and you. And those contests in school tournaments. shekels are supporting a serious She has studied the violin for the past six years and is now an industrious student hoping to and deeply, almost reverently appreciative group of musicians who admit with fine intelligence major in music although at presthat they are being "educated." ent she is started as a freshman. in Willamette on a language In the personnel is a dentist who finds time to give two course. hours a day to his violin for She carries 14 hours in Wilpractice. Another works in an lamette, gives three hours a office a half day, plays in three week to the orchestra, takes a orchestras and finds time to give lesson each week and gets in several cello lessons. Another plenty of practice on this. Just works all day, takes care of the now she is ,laying with the orduties of a family of four, and chestra of the university prohas never missed a rehearsal. duction of "The Bohemian Girl" Another sells papers to pay for which is soon to be presented in lessons that will allow him to Portland. She also finds time play with the orchestra and still to keep up sorority duties as a another does housework for her member of Beta Chi sorority. music lessons. In the orchestra aside from is principal second. Her choice the large number of students in music-modestly she suggestthere are bookkeepers radio ed that her experience was yet technicians, salesmen, music hardly sufficient to venture a teachers, office workers and a criticism but she is very fond of farmer. The farmer lives at some the music of Handel. distance from Salem and has to And there is blond Heinz Eydrive in for rehearsals and he mann, modest, quiet and a has missed but a very few. A splendidly sincere musician. He called rehearsal caught him off has the first flute position in the guard one night. He received the orchestra. Why did he choose a telephone message at f e'clock | flute-well, that instrument is tion a problem but these ob- and dispensing with supper he to the wood vind section of the sensitive. It can express such it is said was the first to recogarrived in time for rehearsal. orchestra what the violin is to splendid versatility. "There was nize this versatifity of the flute dence. the string section. The flute is Mendelssohn was it not whom and then made much opportunity

A delight to talk-to this young Officers are Birthday Party Will Be Festive Affair for its use in his music?" man who deftly sketched the woodwind section, the clarinet, basson, oboe, flute, piccolo, English horn and perhaps some oth-ers which did not just then come to mind, and proceeded to make for the listener each a newfound friend in the orchestra. And there is Gershkovitch, director and friend and teacher. He is the inspiration of those music students who made up the orchestra said one of those talked to. Perhaps each one does not have semblage of the interested public such an urge to play but each has an urge to do for Gershkovitch the very best that he can do. Each feels that for both the sake of music and for the sake of the splendidly sincere and enthusiastic teacher he must do all that is possible for him to do. The organization is strong and it is built around the splendidness of the director according to this discerning young man who expressed his opinions upon the strength and sylendidness of the symphony as an organization.

Hauser, charity; Miss Ruth Mel-Any one listening to him as he son, hope; Miss Cleo Ritner, faith; directs would not doubt this sum-Miss Marie Stutesman, chaplain; ming up of the strength of the or- Miss Jane Fisher, drill leader; ganization. He will eye his play- Miss Edna Savage, red; Miss Marers with a penetrating gaze, raise jorie Humphreys, orange; Miss his stick over a perfectly quiet Laneta Bellinger, yellow; Miss almost breathless group of play- Martha Sprague, green; Miss Ruth ers and with the first motion of Eoff, blue; Miss Helen Worth, inthe stick there is sudden life, digo; Miss Dorothy Murphy, viomusic comes forth - perhaps a let; Miss Julia Johnson, music; little trembling or a bit sour but Miss Frances Ellis, choir director; there is instant action. He may the Misses Jean Doolittle, Alice stop on the first sour note, or he Speck, Betty Smith and Barbara may let the players go on and a MacDonald, members of the choir; bystander might think he had Miss Eleanor Trindle, confidential missed the discord. But wait until observer; Miss Daisy Varley, outer the measure is finished and then, observer. "You, and you, and you" - his hands are waving, his eyes are blazing, his stick is poking holes in the air. Then follows individual work, red faced and almost suffocating student attempts to follow the flow of picturesque English and get from his instrument the meaning that the master is asking. A few more attempts and the trouble is righted and then comes the sunshine from the delightful master's face and once more there is happiness and accord and again the practice goes forth.

If you can't play with them, at least Mr. and Mrs. Public, share with them the splendidness of what they are doing, this Philharmonic symphony!

Mrs. Carl O. Emmons assisted at Ada Chapter, Order of Eastern the tea hour. Mrs. Ted Grim Star has invited Chadwick chap- held winning score for cards. ter of Salem to be its guest Mrs. Fred Duncan and Mrs. Ted Tuesday evening in Indepen- Grim of Monmouth were special guests.

VEGETABLES

HEATS

Installed by

Rainbow

RDER OF RAINBOW install-at Masonic temple. A large as-was present to witness the cere-of Miss Johnson, and Miss Margaret Savage had charge of instal-

Miss Ruth Johnson, worthy ad-associate advisor; Miss Margaret

Those installed included:

Leslie P. T. A.

7:45 o'clock.

Campbell.

BUTTER

To Conclude Season

The last meeting of the year for Leslie junior high school will be held Monday evening in the school auditorium, beginning at

Mrs. Dan McLellan, president, will preside. Vocal numbers will be given by Miss Arbutus

Rudie. The address of the evening will be given by Judge J. U.

Mrs. Kenneth Waters was hostess to the Bono Tempo club at tion ceremony.

ed officers Saturday night

with an impressive service

Members of the St. John's Lutheran Ladies ald will sponsor a festive affair Thursday at the Y. M. C. A. when they entertain with the annual "birthday" party.

Mrs. A. C. Laus is chairman' of the committee in charge and assisting her is Mrs. J. Mielke, Mrs. C. Byrd and Mrs. William E. Hinz.

Mrs. William H. Fischer will mony which placed Miss Ruth act as toastmistress. A program Johnson in the chair of worthy ad- to represent the 12 months of visor. Miss Alta Johnson, sister the year will be presented.

Officers of the Aid include Mrs. Charlotte Gross, president: ation. A group of DeMolay head-Mrs. Emile Ruscker, vice presied by Waldo Mills, master coundent; Mrs. Seima Fischer, secrecillor, had charge of the corona- tary; and Mrs. A. C. Laue, treasигег.

. visor; Miss Iris Jorgensen, worthy Hal Hibbard Group Is Entertained

> "Manilla" day was observed by the members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Henry O. Miller Friday afternoon. A feature of the afternoon was the memorial service presented.

At the tea hour Mrs. Miller was assisted by Mrs. Albert Jairl, Mrs. C. T. Harrington, and Mrs. Lulu Humphrey.

Present were Mrs. J. Woodward, Mrs. John Seymour, Mrs. Charles McKinley, Mrs. Kathryn Stryker, Mrs. Emma D. Vesper. Mrs. Orel Garner, Mrs. Charles Brant, Mrs. Frank Millet, Mrs. Arthur Girod, Mrs. F. M. Alley. Mrs. U. G. Bane, Mrs. J. H. Arnold, Mrs F. A. Thompson, Mrs. Mark Baker, Mrs. E. E. Buckles. Mrs. Lela Kuhn, Mrs. L. Mickelson, Miss Margaret Brant, and Miss Mercedes Miller.

her home Thursday afternoon.

Snipley

Greater

It is most economical to choose bread of Proven Goodness and Food Value

In the normal, balanced diet BREAD FURNISHES one-fourth of the needed body energy.

SUGAR

Bread, the most important food in our daily diet, should be chosen with greatest care. Be sure the bread you buy has all the nutritive elements and Energy Giving Qualities of good bread.

Made in Salem by

The Genuine Nutritive Goodness of Hillman's Master Bread supplies growing youngsters with necessary elements for strong bones, sound teeth and sturdy bodies.

14

24

Buying MASTER BREAD Is True Economy for it is the "Balanced Food" containing all the nutritive elements properly blended and baked delivered to you OVEN-FRESH in the new lock-seal package.

Store