

Reed and Kennedy to Tussle on Mat at Armory Tonight

PREVIOUS FAST BOUT RECALLED

Fans who Considered Editor Lucky to win Will be Back to Find out

A rematch of the pair who staged one of the best and most businesslike wrestling matches Salem fans have seen for many months, is offered to the fans tonight at the armory, when Robin Reed and Jack Kennedy meet again. Kennedy, the muscular veteran from Boise, gave Reed all the trouble that could be wished on the Redemptorist editor by his worst enemy, in their previous bout, but Reed managed to squeeze out a victory.

Kennedy appeared to be no devotee of the vaudeville school of wrestling, but kept forcing ahead with punishing holds and then more of them, and he was so persistent in this course that Reed also had to eschew fireworks and busy himself with wrestling. And they wrestled so doggedly that even those fans who usually aren't satisfied unless somebody pulls out a ring stake and uses it for a club, forgot to howl for blood.

There were a good many fans who thought Reed was lucky to win and they will be back tonight to find out if their judgment was correct. Somebody will have to win unless the bout runs on to midnight, for it is no-time-limit.

Herman Olson and Mutt Eddy, a pair of rugged crowd-pleasers, will grapple for an hour and a half, and a half-hour match between Toby Wallace and a newcomer, Fred Maracci, will open the show. Maracci has been making a favorable name for himself in Portland, and Wallace should make him extend himself here.

BECK FANS 14 AND YIELDS THREE HITS

WOODBURN, May 22.—The Woodburn baseball team of the Portland Valley league took an easy victory from Molalla at Molalla Sunday afternoon winning by a score of 6 to 0. Johnny Beck, pitcher for Woodburn, was working at top form and fanned 14 men.

Woodburn got two runs in the third inning, one in the fourth, two in the sixth and one in the ninth. Molalla got a man to third base in the third and one in the seventh.

Woodburn got 13 hits, 6 runs and no errors; Molalla 3 hits, no runs, 2 errors. Batteries for Woodburn were Beck, pitcher, and Batcher, a new man for this season, catcher. Molalla, Myers and Garbarino, pitchers, and Harlow catcher. Myers pitched six innings and fanned four men, after which Garbarino pitched the three remaining innings and fanned one. Woodburn will cross bats with the "Columbia B's" from Portland next Sunday on the Woodburn home grounds.

WAS ROBIN LUCKY LAST TIME?

CURT COMMENTS

Not many merchants were nicked for those prizes they hung up in front of the Senators Sunday—the Solons tried, like Elmer the Great who is coming to the Elsinore pretty soon and who broke the big league home run record to win something or other, we think it was a girl—but there were no Elmers among them Sunday.

Frank Basher took the cake—the one offered by Cherry City Baking company, for the first put-out, but as "Squeak" Wilson struck the man out, Frank says he'll share with Deibert. Kober won two awards; for the first hit, a clean and press job at Roy Foreman's place on South Commercial, and the one for being the outstanding Solon of the day, which was a carton of cigarettes to be handed out by George Waters. Wonder if Kober smokes?

"Squeak" took the prize for the first base on balls, a pair of heels from Kuhn's repair shop, and for the first error, a pair of sun glasses from Carson's pharmacy. Gibson gets the one for the longest hit, two passes to the Grand theatre, and Adams for the first strikeout, two bits

FEDERALS TOP SENATORS 4-0

14 pop flies Prove Former Legion Junior Hurler is Good as They Claim

Either Ed Demorest is as good a hurler as they claim he is in Portland, or the Salem Senators badly need the enhanced hitting strength which will be available in the next week or two. Demorest caused the Senators to left 17 balls high into the ozone, only three out of that number going too far for the infield or the catcher to handle, as the Wolf-er's Federals won 4 to 0 on Olinger field in the State league opener here Sunday.

The erstwhile West Side Babes collected 10 hits off "Squeak" Wilson, but that wouldn't have been so bad for they were for the most part scattered; but while Wilson's makes played errorless ball, he himself happened to make a couple of excusable bobbles at unfortunate moments, as contributory causes to two of the Federals' scores.

Demorest held the Senators to five hits, two of them which were beaten-out infield rollers, and no two of them came the same inning, so the Solons never became acquainted with third base. Keber and Gibson each collected two blows and Colgan the fifth.

Two hits and an error filled the bases for the Federals in the third and one run was walked in. After two were out in the fourth, Johnson, Courtney and Koch singled in succession and Wilson's wild throw to second allowed them two runs instead of one. The visitors scored in the eighth on a walk, a single and an outfield fly.

Richard, Federals' catcher, gobbled up five Salem's pop-ups and the first baseman, Courtney, caught an equal number.

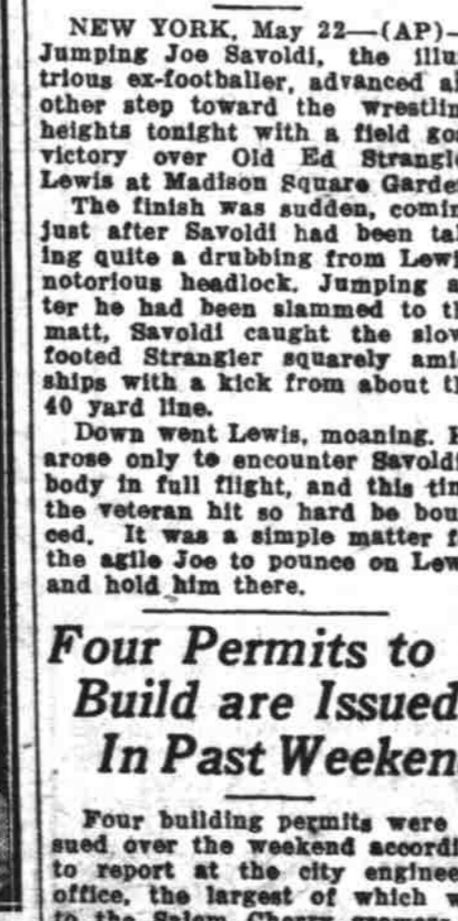

Next Sunday the Senators will play at Albany provided the Alcos have their diamond ready by that time. The following Sunday Bend will come here.

ALP UPSET

Although Primo Carners, giant Italian contender in the world's heavyweight championship, is standing on his head here, he is confident that Jack Sharkey, whom he is to meet in June for the title, can't make him re-nact this feat. De Fresno is training in New York for the bout which he hopes will put a crown on the summit of Mount Carners.

SALEM HIGH TO MEET REDSKINS

If Weather man Reforms; Willamette to Oppose Webfeet Wednesday

Two baseball games which are expected to be among the best of this rainy scholastic and collegiate season, are scheduled to be played in Salem today and tomorrow, though the weather man's latest prediction was "no."

Today Salem high and Chemawa are slated to play at 3:30. The red and black pulled out a victory in their first game on the Indians' lot, but the Chemawa pitchers had been overworked that week, and the outcome may be different. Aside from that game, the Indians have lost nearly every game since they were pulled from the same result that marked both teams' series with Silverton, the third of the county's leading high school teams.

Coach Hollis Huntington of Salem high is planning to start Dolph Wittel on the mound, and he probably will have to match curves and fast balls with Leonard Vivette, the Chemawa ace.

Salem high was rained out of its game with Albany high at Albany Monday, for the third time, and may play it later in the week but on the other hand may give it up as a bad job.

Wednesday afternoon the Webfeet of University of Oregon will come here, if it's bright and sunny, to play the Beavers. Oregon, which has not defeated Willamette in the last three years, will be hot on the trail of victory, but should not have a great deal of edge, as it broke even with Oregon State just as Willamette did.

SIDNEY SCHOOL CLOSES. SIDNEY, May 22.—The Sidney school graduation exercises were held at the Ankeny Grange hall Tuesday night. The program was given by Salem talent.

AMITY NINE WINS. DAYTON, May 22.—The Dayton union high school baseball team lost to Amity three Friday, 13 to 0.

Statesman's Golfers Beat College Boys

The Oregon Statesman four-man golf team made its bow to the public Monday by defeating the strong Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity quartet 8 to 4, on the Salem Golf club course.

Both teams are pioneers in the program to encourage formal competition among local business firms and organizations and both are open to challenges. They may clash again within the next two weeks.

The Statesman team is willing to meet any team composed wholly of men within one business organization.

All of the individual matches Monday were reasonably close, the tightest being the No. 2 match in which Wayne Doughton of the fraternity team won the point for the first nine holes and Gus Hixson came back to take the remaining two points.

Juniors Are Beaten Again By Woodburn

WOODBURN, May 22.—Hopes that Woodburn American Legion junior team may develop into a consistent winning combination became brighter Sunday afternoon when the local youngsters took Harold Hauk's Salem juniors to the score of 6 to 2.

Bevens, Woodburn's ringer pitcher, turned in a nice game. He pitched five innings, during which time Etzel, Salem's first baseman, was the only person to get a hit. Hulla of Woodburn also pitched a hit ball for two innings. Tetter, Woodburn's third pitcher, held Salem scoreless one inning, but Miller and Salstrom scored in the ninth. Voget received the offerings of all the Woodburn hurlers.

Swicker pitched for Salem up to the fourth inning when Penney took the mound. Both pitchers did good work. Aker was Salem's catcher.

In the second frame Bevins hit a two-bagger, scoring Bonney and Kraus, and soon afterward Bevins scored on Voget's hit. In the next inning Woodburn scored twice, Battleson and Coleman crossing home plate. The final Woodburn score was made in the eighth when Barrett capitalized on a hit by Voget.

In a preliminary contest Donnelly's side beat the St. Paul Giants by a score of 5 to 5 in a five-inning affair. The age limit was 13 years for players on either team. Smith pitched for St. Paul. Whitman for Woodburn. Charlie Chaw, Woodburn's catcher, hit a homer in the fifth.

BOSTON, May 22.—(AP)—The Red Sox made it three in a row by taking a series opener from the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2, today. George Pipgras held the visitors to seven hits.

NEW YORK, May 22.—(AP)—Vernon Gomez shut out the Indians with six hits today as the New York Yankees fell on Wesley Ferrell for all of the runs in the eighth inning and a 3 to 0 victory.

Kitball Circuit Still Hopes for Better Weather. Officials of the Salem Kitball league were hoping mightily to start a full week of games Monday, but Pivius thought otherwise. In case June changes his mind, Hollywood Auction will play its first game tonight against Pado's Grocery; and Valley Motor will play the Teachers.
