PORTLAND, May 22-(AP)-Although receipts of cheese were heavier last week than the week before and also heavier than the same week of last year, the market here remained in a firm position at unchanged prices. There was no visible change in the local butter situation. The market was steady, in good position, and no price changes in figures. sight for the day. Receipts were moderate and the into-storage movement continued heavy, with ample supplies of top grades on hand. Prints were quoted at 25 cents. Recent advances in eggs appear to have had no appreciable effect on the retail demand and the market here was fully steady on all kinds, Cold storage movement has increased somewhat but was still 10,000 cases behind the total of approximately 50,000 cases at this time last year. Small Speculators in Salem Markets Corn Steady

CHICAGO, May 22—(AP)— Stop loss selling tumbled wheat down today to a maximum of 8 cents a bushel below recent top

Many small speculators who had made eleventh-hour purchases when the wheat market was going upgrade were pressing to unload today, and found that the aggressive buying which was so much in evidence a short while ago had disappeared, Favorable crop reports from domestic spring wheat territory had a bearish effect, and there was nervous ess relative to uncertainties about administrative procedure under the new farm emergency act. Wheat closed unstable, 1%-2 % under Saturday's finish, corn unchanged to 3-8 higher, from eastern Oregon to eke out Butterfat was a little weaker, but eggs were steady. Green vegetables show the influence of increasing supplies. Oregon strawberries are in better volume and move at lower prices.

TRADING IS QUIET

NEW YORK, May 22-(AP)-Stocks jogged along today in the quietest trading since April 28, most of the time the market's directife was downward, thus continuing reactionary tendencies of late hast week, but toward closing time quotations firmed and final prices were narrowly frregular. American Telephone and Allied Chemical had extreme losses of around 2 points; the former more than recovered its dip while telephone's net decline was a minor fraction. A higher steel operating ratio helped keep representatives of that industry steady; U. S. Steel preferred was up nearly 2 net. American Can, General Motors, Case Harvester, Chrysler, Westinghouse and Bethlehem fin-ished unchanged to a shade higher. Rails were dull with net changes small. Dome and Homestake, two gold mining issues, rose more than 2. Continental Can, Celanese, National Distillers, Nash, Barnsdall and National Biscuit firmed, while Western Union. Consolidated Gas, McKeesport, Coca Cola, Borden and National Dairy eased. Sales come to 2,227.
