

RED CROSS CHAPTER TRAINING STUDENTS

Local Organization is Fully Accredited Nationally; 8 Women Studying

A little known but notable fact about Willamette chapter, American Red Cross, which has headquarters in Salem, is that it is fully recognized by the American Association of Social Workers and University of Oregon as having a staff and organization capable of giving standard field training to students of social work.

Standardization of the local chapter for which much credit goes to Miss Thora V. Boesen, executive secretary, has made it possible for eight women students at Willamette university to obtain needed field training to round out their studies of social work theory at the university during the present semester. These students, four of them graduates and four undergraduates, are doing supervised social rehabilitation work among Marion county families.

They assist the family in budgeting its financial means, working out its individual problems and decide whether or not the family needs to receive county relief. Once a week they attend a class conducted by Miss Mary Anen, executive secretary of the Eugene Red Cross chapter and an instructor in social work at University of Oregon.

The result is that the students upon completing their university and field courses will receive a standard rating as trained social workers, and will be so recognized through the United States. Identity of the eight students are being withheld by Miss Boesen, who feels that public knowledge of their being students might hinder them in their field work.

SILVERTON GRANGE OFFICERS PRESIDE

SILVERTON HILLS, May 22.—The Silverton grange officers were in charge of the May meeting of the Silverton Hills grange at the Grange hall Friday night. Theodore Hobart, master of the Silverton group presided and Mrs. Karl Haberly was in charge of the lecture hour. Mr. Hobart made a report on the grange council held at Albany some time ago. He was also in charge of a comedy paper in which the audience assisted in supplying some of the words. Other numbers on the Friday night program consisted of a paper "The Grange" by George Irselson, instrumental musical numbers by Mr. Irselson; readings by Otto Dahl and Mr. Theodore Hobart and a roll call. Following the meeting refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed.

Announcement was made of the County Agricultural and home economics committee meetings to be held at Union Hill on June 7, the meetings to open at 10 o'clock.

TULIP TIME IN HOLLAND, MICH.

It is tulip time in Holland, the land of windmills. It is also tulip time in Holland, Mich., where, once a year, the residents of the quaint town east of their American habits and return to the customs and attire of the land whence came their forebears to the New World. Here is a typical group, pictured in Dutch costume, admiring the blooms so reminiscent of old Holland.

Drive For Y.W.C.A. Funds Starts Today; Support is Accorded by Mayor McKay

The second drive for a necessary $1800 yet lacking for the running expenses for the coming year for the local Young Women's Christian association opens today with a strong appeal from the mayor of the city, Douglas McKay, to the people of Salem to support this organization which has become a vital part of the civic welfare of the city.

Mayor McKay has been closely connected with welfare service of the city for the past several years having served in various capacities on executive boards of the various organizations carrying on welfare work and from this experience he makes this statement:

"The Y. W. C. A. is the only organization in the city which cares for the well-being of women. In such times as the present economic crisis it is doubly necessary that its organization be not crippled but rather that it be strengthened. Any amount, be it small or large, that the individuals of Salem can contribute toward the necessary amount to keep the Y. W. C. A. functioning as it should, will be so much money for insurance for a healthy civic condition in times of unrest.

"The budget asked by the Y. W. C. A. has been small in view of the large amount of aid Loveland, Amanda Crum, Sarah Drager.

Salem people will be asked to contribute any sum they can to carry this needed work along. The budget has been cut to the bone, and the kick-off luncheon at noon today is being paid for by the individual members, rather than out of the budget collection.

So far this year, more than 500 free beds and many meals, supplied only in case of genuine need, have been given.

Employment Aid Given

Many women with children, young girls and aged women have been helped until employment has been secured or some adjustment made. Credit has been extended to those out of employment.

The Y. W. C. A. is the only place in Salem where a woman or girl, stranded, can be housed until she is located.

STATEHOUSE NEWS WRITER IS CALLED

Death Sunday at 6 p.m. took Claude A. "Jock" Lucas, 48, well-known statehouse news correspondent and magazine writer, at his home at 840 Saginaw street, here.

Lucas had suffered an influenza attack a number of weeks ago but had been convalescing for the last few days. His condition suddenly changed Sunday and death followed.

Twenty years ago Lucas was Salem correspondent for the Portland Telegram and for a time he had worked on each of the local daily papers.

In recent years Lucas had corresponded for a number of magazines and had done considerable free lance news writing.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed late yesterday. The body is at Rigdon's.

Lucas' mother, Clara Lucas, widow of Charles R. Lucas, and a sister, Mrs. Clifford Brunk of Marshfield, survive him.

Francis Barnes Named Recipient Of Albert Prize

At the high school student body election yesterday Francis Barnes was chosen from a field of three students picked by the faculty, to receive the Joseph Albert award this year. Marie Lipold and Elizabeth Smith were the other two students picked by the faculty as eligible for the award.

The presenting of the award is based upon the progress made in character, service and wholesome influence by the student throughout his high school career. His grades must also be above the average.
