

Webfoot Ball Tossers Coming Today to Oppose Bearcats

REINHART WILL SEEK REVENGE

First Victory in Three Years Is aim of Oregon men; Gemmel may Pitch

The Webfeet are coming! That is, if the weather man is wrong and the amateur prognosticators are right. For today is the heralded occasion on which the moon changes, bringing good weather. And if it doesn't work out that way, the Oregon Webfeet are not likely to come, for Billy Reinhart, so it's said, has a horror of wetness.

It has been three years since Oregon defeated Willamette on the diamond—or for that matter, on the maple court, but that's a different story. Back in 1930 Oregon beat Willamette at baseball, but in 1931 Willamette won three games, and in 1932 they didn't play.

Mt. Angel is Winner Over Brooks Team

MT. ANGEL, May 23.—Mt. Angel defeated Brooks here Sunday 9 to 1. Scoring four runs in the first inning. Mt. Angel took the lead and was never headed. Wolf, Mt. Angel pitcher, set the Brooks batters down in easy fashion, allowing only seven scattered hits and giving no walks while Swedge, Sunday hurler, was touched for 13 hits, gave six bases on balls and hit two batsmen.

Ramp, shortstop for Brooks, handled several difficult chances without an error and Johnson, playing second base for Mt. Angel, did likewise.

ST. PAUL, May 23.—(Special)—St. Paul defeated Monitor 8 to 3 Sunday in a Mid-Willamette league ball game.

CURT COMMENTS

The other day we scanned for several hours the questions in the "culture test" which was administered to the sophomores at Willamette university. It ruined our golf game for the next day, besides puncturing any vain belief we held as to being cultured. And we would, we fear, rather shoot say an 85 than know the answers to all those questions.

And incidentally among all those questions, we failed to notice any mention of any subject even vaguely concerned with the world of sport. There seems to be no doubt that if the purpose of education is culture, sports are out of place in the colleges. And yet in this age, one would be left out in the cold in many a conversation among supposedly cultured folk if one lacked a talking knowledge of golf, football, horse racing in some localities, and even that unrefined pastime, baseball.

The Northwest conference track meet will be held at Forest Grove Saturday. Willamette has been about fourth or fifth in final standings in that annual event for a number of years, but we wouldn't be surprised to see the boys somewhere among the first three this spring, though they will have to edge out Whitman, Pacific or Puget Sound, all of which have strong teams, to get there.

Unless Puget Sound has some people we don't know about and Whitman and Pacific boys have been running and heaving weights under wraps, Willamette will take two or three first places—and that will be quite an accomplishment too, in view of past history.

The Bearcats are pretty strong in the distance runs, but we note that Whitman has a two-miler who has gone around in 10:06, so Brown and Lange will have to do some stepping.

CHEMAWA WINS TERRIBLE GAME

Salem High Youths err ten Times to Give Indians 16 to 2 Victory

CHEMAWA Indian school's baseball team evened up the season's series with Salem high Tuesday, by defeating the red and black 16 to 2 on Olinger field. The Indians banged out 12 hits off three Salem high pitchers, but that wasn't the worst of it; the Salem high boys, who had been taking their workouts as a ping pong table or somewhere during recent rainy afternoons, fumbled and heaved the horsehide for 10 errors.

The worst inning was the seventh, in which Coach Les Lavelle's playful lads circled the paths for seven tallies on just one hit. The errors were mostly bad throws, but one was due to the fact that Quistad, Salem's third baseman, had been hurt in fielding a hot one and didn't tell anybody about it.

Witzel, Salem's starting pitcher, did well until the third when Katchka smacked out the first hit—a home run. Things got gradually worse and in the fourth Sherrill relieved Witzel, to run into the major portion of grief in the sixth. Cottew then took up the burden and did much better, thanks to improved support. He allowed three hits and two runs in the last three innings. The Indians earned four of their 16 runs.

Reed Comes From Under To Win Bout

Robin Reed jerked his way out of a surfbord and neatly floored Jack Kennedy for the winning fall at the armory last night.

The first bout, the roughest of the evening, between Toby Christensen and Fred Marcissa ended in a draw. Christensen repeatedly jumped out of the ring, cried, and threatened Harrington. Christensen took the first fall in 8.45 with a reverse motion. Marcissa knocked down the second fall with a flying mare. The time was 3.15.
