Severe Drop Sign of Weak Fruit; June Fate in Doubt PORTLAND, May 28-(AP)-The Journal said today that ington prune crop is not only confirmed but looks rather seri-"Reports of damage are coming in quite freely from growers in various parts of the Willamette, Rogue River and Umpqua

"Damage to the Oregon-Wash-

county," the paper said. "The drop has been very serere, suggesting weak fruit, due to the unseasonable cold weather which has retarded the san flow. Whether the normal June drop will be shown or the remainder of the fruit on the trees lost, Homer Lelsy, superintendent of is what is bothering not only growers but distributors

Suggestion of the damage, the survey revealed, is reflected in the stiffening price tendency and even advances in California and Oregon prunes with the former showing marked strength along with recent general betterment in apricots, peaches and pears. Oregon 25-35s are quoted at 1% cents.

Government Action to Raise Prices Said Likely Soon

CHICAGO, May 23-(AP)-A sudden sweep of 2 to 3 cents a bushel in leading grains today accompanied renewal of lively speculative demand.

Buying was based chiefly on Washington reports pointing to probable quick governmental action to lift commodity prices under the farm emergency law. The reports indicated that the new farm administration would attempt to apply processing taxes promptly in spite of tariff truce agreemenets, it being contended that the duties necessary to make the processing taxes effective had been authorized before a truce was established. Wheat closed strong 1 7-8 to 2 5-8 above yesterday's finish. corn 1% to 1 5-8 up, oats % to 1 3-8 advance.

Today's closing quotations: Wheat-May 68%; July 70 1/2-%; Sept. 72-724; Dec. 74 1/4. Corn-May 43 1/4; July 45%-% Sept. 47%-%; Dec. 49%-%. Oats-May 24%; July 2514; Sept. 25 %; Dec. 27 14.

INCREASE SLOWLY

PORTLAND, May 23-(AP)-Slowly increasing total offerings of butter locally were taking care of general needs of the trade. During the late session of the produce exchange there was no change in cube quotations. Values on the open market were safely maintained.

Last week's total visible supply of butter in Portland included 274,271 pounds according to the department of agriculture pounds the previous week. The local manufacture showed a rather fair increase while outstate offerings were decreased during the period

Butterfat continued of unchanged value

Trading in the egg market was generally steady for the day. Demand for current receipts was quite firm and prices maintained. While "peepers" continued to show weakness in the live chicken trade, practically all other sorts of hens and broilers show well maintained demand at recent prices. Some look for an
