

CLOVERDALE SCHOOL ENDS YEAR'S STUDY

In Joint Program With Summit Hill; Awards Presented to Many

CLOVERDALE, May 24—The Cloverdale school, of which Miss Melba Berg has been teacher for two years, closed Friday with a program and picnic at the school house held jointly with the Summit Hill district. Mr. Bestwater, teacher of the Summit Hill school, had charge of the contests. Miss Berg was presented an appropriate gift by Ivan Hadley in behalf of the people of the district.

Chester and Vernon Hodges, Florence Gannar, Gordon Kunkle and Alvin Beardsley were awarded progress pins for penmanship. Edith Schifferer and Pauline Shoen were awarded Palmer Method pins; Rose Davis a health herald pin; Rose Davis, Gertrude Cook and Aaron Dumbuck received certificates for perfect attendance during the year, and Gertrude Cook received a certificate for perfect attendance for three consecutive years.

Cloverdale will no longer be known as District 131, as since the consolidation of the Summit Hill and Pleasant View schools with Cloverdale the number has been changed to 144. A much better and larger school is hoped for as the result of consolidation.

TURNER, May 24—The Turner high school senior class day exercises will be held in the school auditorium Monday afternoon, May 29, at 2:30 o'clock. The annual high school play, "The Fascinating Fanny Brown," will be given Friday, May 26, at 8 p.m.

POPPY SALE SLATED 27TH AT MONMOUTH

MONMOUTH, May 23—Acting Mayor Halladay has designated May 27 as Poppy Day in Monmouth, receipts of sales to be used as aid to veterans in their peace-time difficulties. Mrs. J. W. Tilton is sales chairman.

H. K. Sickafos, F. E. Murdock and B. B. Friesen, delegates to Grand Lodge of I.O.O.F., and Mrs. F. E. Murdock, local Rebekah delegate, are home from Pendleton, reporting an unusually good time enjoyed by them in the round-up city.

The Girls' league group of Monmouth high school was hostess Friday afternoon to a tea complementing their mothers at the high school. Miss Edith Clark of the high school faculty presided. A short program included: songs by the junior and senior high school girls' quartets; duet by Anetta Schweizer and Dorothy Rydell; violin number, Barbara Powers; piano solo by Mildred Miller and Mildred McLaughlin.

Auto Sales for Cash Numerous; Few Contracts

Cash sales of automobiles are 75 per cent of auto business handled by the Chevrolet agency here, Douglas McKay, dealer, reported Tuesday. "A few years ago 75 per cent of our business was handled on installment contracts," he noted. "Nowadays people seem reluctant to sign long-time commitments. As a consequence installment contracts outstanding are far less than a few years ago; in our own case less than 10 per cent as large. People who are buying cars are in the majority of instances paying cash for the difference between their trade-in and the balance due on a new car."
