KERR FUNERAL IS HELD AT LEBANON

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Viola Kerr, mother of this city, Frank G. Bowersox of this city, were held in Lebanon yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. L. Heins of that city. Interment occurred in Corvallis beside the body of her husband, Samuel T. Kerr, who had preceded her in death by some four years. Grave-side services were in charge of the Corvallis W.R.C.

Mrs. Kerr passed away at the home of her son, Fred Kerr, Lebanon, where she had resided for seven years. Death was attributed to heart trouble. She was 77 years of age at the time of her death. Born in Pennsylvania, she was married to Mr. Kerr in Linn county, Iowa in 1872. The family came to Oregon in 1878, residing in Corvallis until seven years ago when they moved to Lebanon.

Surviving are three sons, two daughters, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The sons are Clifford Kerr, Corvallis; Dolph of Portland and Fred of Lebanon. The daughters are Mrs. Lillian Bowersox of Salem and Mrs. Nita Johnson of Oakland, Calif. A son, Davon, passed away last January.

Well we had nice weather for one day anyway if we did have a thunder storm to follow. We have resolved not to predict weather hereafter.

We are told that if we would get a bunch of men and go up to Table Rock and shovel off the

Accident Policy Of Otto Schiess Good Investment
A dollar investment which has already multiplied itself 80 times was made some months ago by Otto Schiess in one of the North American accident insurance policies offered through the Statesman.
Schiess 231 North Front, was injured about the knees February 27 in an auto accident at North Commercial and Center streets, and since has been unable to work. The Statesman yesterday received to pass on to him the second $40 check on the insurance policy, and he will receive $10 per week until he is able to return to work.

Railroads Will Spend Big Sum
ST. PAUL, May 25—(AP)—The Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways announced today they would spend more than $13,000,000 this year for track and building maintenance. The Northern Pacific plans to spend $5,875,000, representing a slight increase from 1932. The Great Northern budget will be approximately the same as last year, when $7,771,027 was used.

BREWERY COMPANY INCORPORATES HERE
Articles of incorporation for the newly organized Salem Brewery association were filed late Thursday with the county clerk here. Frank T. Schmidt, Kola Nels and Ross H. Wood are incorporators.
The articles of incorporation authorize $75,000 of preferred stock at $1 a share, par, and $50,000 of common stock at $1 a share, par.
Preferred stock is to have prior claim annually to profits up to six per cent of the stock's par value, and is to share ratably with common stock after the latter receives six per cent dividends. The preferred stock is not cumulative. It becomes voting only when dividends have been passed for two years.
The association is authorized, under its articles, to manufacture beer, ale and other malted drinks and to engage in retail distribution of them.

MRS CHARLOTTE KELLY DALLAS, May 25.—Mrs. Charlotte Kelly, 53, wife of C. L. Kelly of this city, died Monday afternoon at the state tuberculosis hospital at Salem. She contracted tuberculosis about a year ago following an attack of flu and was taken to the hospital eight months ago. She is survived by her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Bergstrom of Molalla. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Henkle and Thomas funeral home.

Legion Banquet Plans Revealed
Reservations for the American Legion banquet to be held here Saturday, June 3, when National Commander Louis A. Johnson visits, must be made not later than May 30. H. G. Malsion, general chairman, announced yesterday. The largest gathering of legionnaires and members of the 40 and 8 since the Portland convention is expected in Salem for the commander's visit. Places at the banquet to be held at the Marion hotel have been limited to 200. Commander Johnson will make his only official Oregon stop here.
