county basketball championship; broke even with Dallas junior high in the Polk county championship; and was also runner up for the second year in baseball. The training of Theo. J. Norby, grade school principal, has brought about these excellent results. Mr.

Norby will not be here next year. Numerous scholarships will also be awarded, however the date for all the awarding has not been decided upon.

Taylor Griffith To Speak Sunday At Local Church

The Rev. G. Taylor Griffith, formerly chaplain of the Good Samaritan hospital of Portland, will conduct Sunday's service at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The church school will be as usual with no early Sunday morning service. St. Paul's vested choir, under direction of R. H. Robertson, will present the usual choral service. Rev. H. B. Chambers, former rector of the local church, will conduct both early and 11 o'clock services on June 4. The Holy Eucharist service will be admin-istered at both services.

If you think canaries don't whistle tunes, reserve judg-ment until you hear the year old singer owned by Mr. and Mrs. Buffum, for 45 years residents here. This bird will actually whistle Yankee Boodle so anyone will recognize it! Sure, it's a regular Believe It or Not, but it's gen-uine. It took Mrs. Buffum several months to train the bird, the third she has taught to carry a tune.
