PATCHWORK QUILT PATTERN

PATTERN NO. 442 By Laura Wheeler

Among old quilt patterns the T Block is one that is found in a number of different arrangements, each of which is charming and makes a lovely quilt. In each case the T unit is the same, though its placing varies. The popularity of this design is well deserved for the practical quilt-maker of long ago found it a very simple pattern to cut. By cutting her material into strips of two widths, she should cut the stem of the T from the wider strip, and the rest of the T from the narrower one. The modern quiltmaker, too, will welcome this simple way of cutting a great part of her patches. The quilt is enhanced by the addition of the simple and effective quilting pattern. The pattern comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, quilting motif, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials. Send 10c for a pattern for this design to (The Statesman), Needcraft Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York City.

Fireplace Breakfast Delightful Affair

A charming affair of Thursday morning was the outdoor fireplace breakfast for which Mrs. D. B. Simpson opened her gardens in compliment to the Missionary society of the First Christian church.

The colorful background of the garden combined with the cheer of the gay open fire made the breakfast party a decided success. Covers were placed for about 75 guests. A brief program added to the interest of the morning. This was presented by Mrs. J. Vinton Scott, and Mrs. Fred Toose.

A short business meeting installed officers for the coming year. These included Mrs. Arthur Welch, president; Mrs. D. B. Simpson, vice president; Mrs. O. C. McDowell, secretary; Mrs. Albert Noth, treasurer; Mrs. James Sears, literary secretary; Mrs. Louis Dunn, world call secretary. Miss Anna Nissen was installing officer. The next meeting will be held July 6.

Miss Elizabeth Freeman who was supervisor of nurses in the Marion county department of health for several years, was a health visitor yesterday, attending high school commencement exercises. Miss Freeman is now working for the Red Cross at the Portland office, and has charge of relief work with veterans.

Miss Geraldine Frigaard and Miss Laura Lou Hickman entertained at the Frigaard home Wednesday evening in compliment to a group of the very young set. The young hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Connie Frigaard.

Miss Dorothy Eastridge will be hostess to members of the Alpha Phi Alpha alumna association at her home on South 19th street. Miss Helen Brethaupt will be joint hostess for the evening.

RICKREALL, June 2 — Thieves entered the Bar-B-Que confectionery, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. George Fuller, some time early Friday morning, taking all the supply of cigarettes, a quantity of candy and two slot machines. The loss is estimated to be $15.00. Entrance was made through a small window at the rear of the building.

COLUMBIA-SNAKE PROGRAM BACKED

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3 — (AP)—At the request of Representative Martin, (D. Oregon), Chairman Mansfield yesterday called the river and harbors committee to a hearing on Friday on a proposal to improve the Columbia and Snake rivers so they once more may carry busy steamboat traffic.

In 1906, army engineers recommended that $400,000 be spent to improve the Columbia river from Celilo to Pittsburgh Landing, Idaho, and $165,000 for the improvement of the Snake river from Pasco to Pittsburgh Landing. Although approved by the army engineers, this work never was done.

"Back in the 70's," Martin said, "that was a very busy river. We think it is about time for the army engineers to review that report and see whether the work should not be pursued."

WOODBURN WALKS OVER SANDY NINE

WOODBURN, June 2.—The Woodburn ball team of the Portland Valley league won an easy victory from the Sandy team here at the Legion park on Decoration day by a score of 16-3.

Beck, Woodburn pitcher pitched 7 innings fanning out 7 men. Woods pitched the last two and fanned one man. Sandy scored their 3 runs in the fourth inning. Suckow, Sandy's pitcher struck out four men in four innings, was relieved by Dodd who struck out 1 man in the five remaining innings. Sandy got 3 hits. Batteries: Woodburn, Beck and Woodie Walters; Patch, J. and catcher; Sandy, Suckow and Dodd, pitchers, and Bacon, catcher.

The next game for the Woodburn team will be played Sunday with Oregon City, there.
