

Weddings Take Lead in Social Interest of Capital City Over Weekend

June's First Weekend Features Group of Interesting Marriages

Marriage of Miss Irene Breithaupt is a Pretty Event of Saturday Afternoon

THE wedding of Miss Irene Breithaupt and George G. Van Natta of St. Helens, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Van Natta of Portland, was solemnized in Salem Saturday evening at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt.

The marriage is one of interest in club and college circles of Salem. Both Mr. and Mrs. Van Natta are graduates of Willamette university where they were prominently identified with student body and university activities. Mrs. Van Natta represented Willamette in several inter-scholastic activities and was affiliated with Alpha Phi Alpha sorority and with national Tau Kappa Alpha fraternity. She has also been actively connected with club and church activities of Salem.

Mr. Van Natta graduated from Willamette school of law and at the present time is a prominent attorney in St. Helens where he and Mrs. Van Natta will make their home.

Marjory O'Dell Will Present Senior Recital

Miss Marjory O'Dell will be presented in her senior recital from Willamette university school of music Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock by Frances Virginia Melton, director of the department of piano and theory of the university.

Miss Ruth Schreiber will assist with the orchestra parts on a second piano for the concerto in D minor by Mendelssohn.

The public is invited to attend this recital.

The program includes:

- Mendelssohn, Concerto in D minor
- Allegro
- Orchestral parts on second piano by Ruth Schreiber.

Bach-Hess Chorale
 Schumann Warum? (Why?)
 Schumann Aufschwung (Soaring)
 Schumann Grillen! (Whimsy)
 Balakirew L'Alouette (The Lark)
 De Severac Une vieille boîte à musique (An old Music Box)
 Palmgren Presto alitato

A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Breithaupt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Van Natta, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kelly and Mrs. Alice Fisher presided at the beautifully appointed service table. A bowl of Pernet roses and sweet peas guarded by tall ivory tapers in silver candelabra centered the table. Miss Bernice Newhouse of Springbrook, Miss Dorothy Cornelius, Miss Marie Lippold and Miss Loreta Varley assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Natta left immediately following the reception. For her going away dress, Mrs. Van Natta wore a smart ensemble of navy blue and white. The wedding of Miss Eliza Tucker in Casanova, Virginia, June 10 is a matter of interest in Salem. She will marry Rev. J. Thomas Lewis of Alexandria, Virginia.

The marriage today of James Walton in The Dalles is also of interest in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. James Walton and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett motored to The Dalles today for the event.

Another wedding of interest will be that of Miss Lora Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Mills who will become the bride of Alfred Schmidt in an impressive service at high noon today at the First Nazarene church. Rev. Fletcher Galloway will officiate. Miss Lou Ella Hardy will act as maid of honor and Melford Stull will act as best man. Jesse will be Ernest Friessen, Harvey Ratslaff and Robert Huston.

Immediately following the ceremony the young people will leave for a wedding trip which will take them north. After June 15 they will be at home at 660 Union street.

Anniversaries are Complimented

The anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cochran were complimented at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bradford this past week with a gala party given by the Happy Go Lucky club.

An evening of cards was followed by an attractive buffet luncheon. Guests in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Cochran include Mr. and Mrs. O. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Guib, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cardy, Mrs. Emma Vesper, Miss Margaret Stewart, Miss Mary Stewart, Ralph Enner and Jack Stewart.

Miss Gladys Tipton, teacher at Parrish junior high school left Saturday for Los Vegas, New Mexico, where she will study during the summer months at the University of Los Vegas. Miss Tipton was accompanied by her brother and will make the trip by motor.

Interest in Camp Santaly Grows

Interest in Camp Santaly is growing and registration of those who wish to attend shows the popularity of this annual summer activity of the Y. W. C. A.

High school Girl Reserves will install officers at a tea given by Miss Eloise White at her home on North Capitol Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Elizabeth Galloway and Miss White will be installing officers.

Officers are Named by Club

SALEM MacDowell club closed its season Friday night with a meeting at the home of Miss Mary Cupper at which time reports from the year's work were given, and officers were elected.

Mrs. W. S. Levens will head the club for a second time as a result of the vote Friday night. Other officers include Mrs. Frank Lilburn, vice - president; Mrs. Elza Thomas, secretary; Mrs. S. W. Starr, treasurer, and Mrs. W. T. Jenks, auditor.

The reports from the year's work were exceedingly promising and indicated one of the outstanding accomplishments of the club. In the light of this advance an unusually successful season is anticipated for the coming year.

Following the business session Miss Cupper was assisted by Miss Billie Cupper and Mrs. Harris Lotts in serving refreshments. The club will convene again in September.

Music Teachers To Close Season

Salem Music Teachers will meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mabel S. Powers for the last meeting of the season for the group. Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Mrs. Frank Churchill will be assisting hostesses.

At this time the regular business meeting will be presided over by the president, Miss Dorothy Pearce. She will call for reports from committees which have been serving this year. Following this will be election of officers to serve for the coming year.

Refreshments and an informal social hour will conclude the meeting.
