Now you can have CONSTANT HOT WATER at low cost

After all, there's no reason why hot water, available at a turn of the tap, should not be considered as important as constant cold water service. In the past most of us felt that such service was too costly. But that's no longer true!

Get the facts about the cost of installing and operating this new system in your home. You'll be surprised at the low cost—for installation prices, too, are lower. Convenient terms. Just call at a Pepeco Electric Store, or see any electric dealer.
