Wilda Fleener is Feted With Many Compliments

Miss Wilda Fleener whose marriage is one of the prominent events of the June social calendar has been the inspiration for a number of pretty social compliments within the past week and still more are being planned.

Tonight Mrs. W. T. Heesman will entertain at her home on 14th street with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Fleener. Guests bidden to fete Miss Fleener include Miss Sybil White, Miss Helen McElroy, Miss Hazel McElroy, Miss Deena Hart, Miss Lu-Lu McClay, Miss Murtie McClay, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Maida Caldwell, Miss Bernice Ziekie, Mrs. Joseph Beatty, Mrs. Archie Warf, Mrs. George Naderman, Mrs. Chaster Langtree, Mrs. Glen Harbaugh, Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mrs. Damon Fleener and Mrs. Heesman.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Lyman D. Sundin was at home to a group of the intimate friends of Miss Fleener. A kitchen shower complimented the bride-elect at this time.

Mrs. Clifford J. Taylor and Mrs. W. A. Cummings were hostesses recently for a pretty miscellaneous shower. A yellow and green color scheme marked the service table at the late supper hour.

Another affair of last week was a 30 cover luncheon given by the officers of the Salem Rebekah degree team at the I. O. O. F. hall. Pink roses and green tapers was an effective table decoration. A gift was presented Miss Fleener.

Wednesday of next week Miss Sybil White and Miss Joyce Anderson will entertain for Miss Fleener. Still other affairs are being planned for the popular bride-elect.

Last Meeting of Nile Club Thursday

The last business meeting of the season for the Daughters of the Nile club will be that of Thursday at the Masonic temple.

The regular luncheon hour for which members are asked to bring sandwiches, will precede an afternoon of sewing. At this time all sewing for the Shrine hospital in Portland is to be concluded and all members are urged to be present to assist.

Mrs. George Dunford is chairman of the hostess committee.

The Three Links club has postponed its meeting planned for this Friday afternoon to June 16. At this time a patriotic idea will be carried out in roll call, each guest being asked to answer with some information or tribute to the flag.

Elmer Lowell who appears in an adagio comique tonight and tomorrow night in the fifth annual dance revue of Barbara Barnes.

Miss Veda Clarice Nendel Bride Of Ernest Hondrick at Woodburn

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bennet, Newlyweds, are Complimented at Dancing Party

Woodburn—A pretty wedding took place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Christian church when Miss Veda Clarice Nendel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nendel, became the bride of Ernest T. Hondrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hondrick of West Salem. Rev. J. Meril Hill performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of white flat crepe with a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms, and carried a white prayer book with streamers of white ribbon and roses.

Miss Veda Boker, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid and was dressed in a frock of yellow organza and carried an arm bouquet of columbine and white roses. Clinton Nendel, brother of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Hondrick. Little Miss Betty Lickie was ring bearer and was lovely in a dainty white silk frock.

Mrs. J. Merlin Hill sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony and was accompanied by Miss Marjorie Howe. Miss Hill also played the wedding march. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hondrick left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in West Salem.

Hubbard—Mrs. Walter McMannis was the inspiration for a farewell party Monday night for which Mrs. Lawrence Scholl was hostess at her home for members of the Woman's club.

At cards high scores were won by Mrs. Julius Stauffer and Mrs. John Friend.

The president, Mrs. Lawrence Scholl presented Mrs. McMannis with a gift from the club as a token of regard.

Those present were Mesdames Julius Stauffer, John Friend, Walter McMannis, Clara Moomaw, Amanda Grimm, A. F. de Leapinase, Frank Beers, Kimes, L. A. Braden, L. H. Bates, Neva McKenzie, Ivan Stewart, Orlie Boje, DeWolf, Ellen Carl, A. J. Smith, Ida Garland, Hugh Wells, Taylor, Kenneth Grimm and Waldo Brown.

Amity—A birthday party was given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Zahlar in honor of Melvin, Edwin and Arthur Zahlar. Mrs. Zahlar was assisted by Mrs. Emma Simpson. Guests present were: Wayne Trisham, Wayne Robins, Wayne Tover, Jack Pace, Johnnie Johnson, Danny McCarty, Elmer Groves, Jimmy Strout, Joan Strout, Junior Rierston, Walter Tovey, Bobby Arnold, Arvin Rootz, Theodore Jasmier and cousin and Leo Symons.

Former Salem Couple Observe Anniversary

Of interest to a large number of older residents of Salem will be the account of the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher now of Pomona, Cal., and formerly of Salem.

Quoting from the Pomona paper:

"In honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher, a reception and tea was given Sunday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robbin E. Fisher, 395 Garfield avenue. Mrs. Robbin E. Fisher and Mrs. Ward L. Fisher, daughters-in-law of the couple, were hostesses.

"Because of the ill health of Mrs. Fisher, only members of the family and a few close friends were guests, enjoying the afternoon informally. Taking of moving pictures of the family group was an enjoyable feature.

"Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have been Pomona residents more than six years, coming from Salem, Ore. They were married May 21, 1883, in Illinois. Their two sons and two daughters were present for the celebration. Dr. Ward Fisher and Dr. Robbin E. Fisher, the sons, and Miss Margaret Fisher, a daughter, living in Pomona. Mrs. E. J. Herman, the other daughter, resides in Los Angeles.

"Present at the reception were: D. W. Fisher's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fisher, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Herman and children, Billy and Gloria, Los Angeles; Miss Margaret Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. May, Pomona; Miss Beckwith and Mrs. Bagnall, friends who are writing in Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Ted St. Clair, Miss Lou Jane Hatch (Glendale), Dr. and Mrs. Ward Fisher and daughter, Barbara, and son, Russell, and Dr. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher and children, Gordon and Janet, Miss Lou Jane Hatch and Mrs. Ted St. Clair are nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher.

Dance Revue Attracts Many

The dance revue which is given as an annual event by the Barbara Barnes school of the dance will call forth a large social interest tonight and tomorrow night at the Elsinore theatre.

Parents and friends of the many people taking part, both small and adult, will crowd the theatre as they do each year to witness the colorful and spirited program given by the dance cast of 50 or 60 people.

Miss Barbara Barnes is dance director for this clever revue. Mrs. Douglas McKay is assistant director. Don Schraupp has taken care of the music and each year this means a colorful and spirited program given by the dance cast of 50 or 60 people.

Mrs. Otto Paulus has had charge of the make-up and lighting effects. Miss Nina Adams and Miss Dorothy Chambers have planned the costumes. Theatrical studies have been arranged by Miss Kathryn Gunnell; Mrs. Alton Hurley has had charge of the ticket sale and publicity. The program has been in charge of Elmer Lowell and Miss Jose Acklin has had charge of the picture publicity.

Miss Carolyn Carroll Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams of Junction City, became the bride of Ralph R. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parker of Mansanta. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams, Rev. S. E. Long read the service. Mrs. Ernest Coons of Eugene, was matron of honor and Mr. Parker had as his best man Harry Gustafson. Mrs. Parker was a teacher at Highland school this past year.

Mrs. Loren H. Basler and daughter, Barbara Ann, of Boise, Idaho, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. DeLong, parents of Mrs. Basler.

According to a myth, a cathedral on an island off the coast of France sinks periodically the island rises from the water amid dense fog and mists. As it comes up, those on the mainland can hear the chiming of the cathedral bells and the music of the monks' chants. When it is fully risen, the mists break away for the cathedral in all its glory. As the island sinks again, one hears the gurgling of the waves as they engulf the cathedral and also the notes of the bells and the music coming from under the water.

KRAZY KAT

PATTERN NO. 444

Krazy Kat and 'his friend Ignatz, the mouse, are with us in this pattern. Their astonished and bewildered expressions have been caught in these simple embroidery designs that will make an attractive pillow, crib cover motif, motifs for children's clothes, or a decoration on accessories for the nursery. These droll figures have long been beloved by children and grown-ups everywhere, and this occasion to embroider them yourself is the first such opportunity given the needlewoman.

The figures are worked out in the simplest of stitches, outline and one-stitch being the only ones employed. The pattern contains one large motif, 10x17 inches; one Krazy Kat, 5x7 inches; and one reverse; one Ignatz, 3x5 inches; and a reverse; and two Ignatz, 1 1/2x2 1/2 inches, and two reverses.

Send 10c for this pattern to the Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept., 83 Eighth Avenue, New York City.

Out of Town Wedding of Interest

The wedding of Miss Kathryn Brigham and James J. Walton Sunday afternoon in The Dalles was of interest in Salem because of the many visits made by Mr. Walton to Salem and also because of so many University of Oregon friends of the young people who reside in Salem.

Both graduated from the University where Mrs. Walton was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and Mr. Walton a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

The bride wore an ensemble of blue and white and wore a corsage of lilies of the valley and gardenias. A profusion of flowers added to the beauty and simplicity of the ceremony which was performed before only immediate members of the family and a few friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stadelman.

An informal reception followed the wedding and then Mr. and Mrs. Walton left for Hermiston where they will make their home.

An interesting account of contacts with young people of the state in connection with Y. P. B. work was given by Mrs. Ruth W. Smith at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon in the organization hall. Miss Jessie Martin presented an interest "chalk" talk. Other speakers were Mrs. H. F. Shanks, Mrs. Beulah Ratcliffe, Mrs. Lena Lisle and Mrs. Necla Buck. Miss Amy Martin presented a group of vocal solos.

Hubbard—Mrs. Rae Baeter of Hillsboro, grand chief of Oregon, made her official visit to the Arlon temple No. 24 Tuesday night.

A feature of the meeting was a farewell to Mrs. Walter McMannis, past chief, as she is leaving soon for Cascade Summit to join her husband who is station agent of that place.

Zena—Members of the old missionary society, which functioned here more than 30 years ago, will be honor guests at the meeting of the Spring Valley Missionary society to be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Shepard, with Mrs. Robert Austin and Mrs. T. J. Merrick as assistant hostesses, Wednesday.

Mrs. Carrie Bunn will entertain for the Royal Neighbors sewing club at her home Wednesday afternoon for an all-day meeting. A potluck luncheon will be enjoyed at noon.

The Royal Neighbors sewing club will sponsor the third of the series of benefit card parties being by them, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irene Speed, 2180 Myrtle avenue.

Mrs. V. E. Kuhn has had as her house guest Mrs. C. A. Allen of Tacoma.

Cabinet Officers Installed

An attractive tea at the home of the advisor, Miss Eloise White, marked the installation of cabinet officers of the high school Girl Reserve Tuesday afternoon. After the installation which was presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, local Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss White, tea was served with Miss Mary Frances Entress and Miss Lola Quessett assisting.

Outgoing officers include Miss Ruth Ward, president; June Weeks, vice-president; Marial Wassam, secretary; Betty Dotson, treasurer; committee chairmen, Margaret McKenzie, Clarice Kolbe, June Keith, Ethel Abel and Gwen Gallaher.

Officers installed for this year include Betty Dotson, president; Clarice Kolbe, vice-president; Arlene Moffitt, secretary; June Weeks, treasurer; committee chairmen, Ethel Abel, Eleanor Curtis, Lola Quessett and Ruth Ward.

Orchard Heights—Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz were hosts Saturday night at one of a series of delightful dancing parties the first of which was given in early spring.

Mission Society To Meet Thursday At VanCleave Home

HAZEL GREEN, June 6.—Mrs. C. W. VanCleave will be hostess to the Women's Missionary society, Thursday, June 8, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Massey will lead devotions. The Otterburn guild will meet at the parsonage Sunday at 2 o'clock with Misses Eva and Ellen Smith hostesses, instead of Hazel Weeks.

The Christian Endeavor gave a one act play, "Troubled Times," Sunday night, with the following cast from the Central church: Ellen Smith, Guy Allen Looney, Charles Shelly, Eva Smith, Ralph Leberman, Kenneth Barnett, Rev. Clark M. Smith, Marilyn Rasmussen, Ralph Smith and Mrs. Smith.

BURNS MAY BE FATAL

ALBANY, Ore., June 6.—(AP)—Dale McTimmonds, 8, of Sweet Home, was in a critical condition at a Lebanon hospital yesterday, suffering from burns sustained Sunday when kerosene exploded as he was attempting to start a fire in a playhouse. Hospital attendants held little hope that the boy would recover.
