

Silverton Juniors to Invade Salem Today

SCHWAB LIKELY TO DO HURLING

No-Hit Chucker, Brother of Famed Orville, Chosen; Game is at 4:30

American Legion Junior baseball four years ago brought into the limelight a wiry lad who was destined to make history in this particular class of ball by pitching a Marion county team, sponsored that year by Silverton, to the Northwest division championship. That lad, Orville Schwab, graduated out of the junior baseball class immediately following his big accomplishment, but another youth of the same family has risen up to carry on the family honor—and Silverton's.

The younger brother, Arland Schwab, gave notice of his arrival as a moundsman by hurling a no-hit, no-run game for Silverton high this spring, going on from there to win half a dozen starts. It so happened that he pitched neither of Silverton's games against Salem last.

This afternoon local fans who have been watching this boy's progress from afar, will have their first opportunity to see him in action; when the Silverton Juniors come here to play the Salem Juniors at 4 p. m. on Olinger field.

The Salem team defeated Silverton ten days ago at Silverton in a practice game, but they did not have time to look at young Schwab's assortment of throws on that occasion. Several Salem pitchers, with excellent support, held Silverton to two runs in that game, however, and the Salem chances are good if they can collect a few tallies against Schwab's hurling.

Coach Harold Hauk of the Salem Juniors was not certain last night whether he would make any changes in his lineup or not. He expects to start Francis Gatchell, who made a good showing against Woodburn despite the fact that he had been ill for several days just before the game, on the mound if the Jefferson boys is in good condition today. There is some possibility that Mike Miller may be moved to third base and Humphreys may be given a chance in the outfield.

STAYTON, June 6.—The Legion Junior baseball team went down to defeat here Sunday when it played Silverton, the score being 15 to 10. Stayton held a 6 to 1 lead until the fourth inning, when Silverton ran in eight scores on account of ragged fielding. Champ, pitching for Stayton, struck out nine men, while Coomber for Silverton struck out five.

GRAND RONDE, June 6.—(Special) Grande Ronde defeated the Salem Elks 11 to 10 here Sunday in an exciting ball game which wasn't decided until the last man was out. S. Simmons was Grande Ronde's chief slugger of the day.

ST. PAUL, June 6.—(Special) St. Paul defeated Lone Elder 12 to 1 here Sunday, the visitors contributing to the havoc created by 13 St. Paul bingles by mixing in eight errors.

KIBBONS LOSES WITH OWN GRIP

Is Over-Anxious; Thye Wins Fast Bout; Ex-Grizzer Stronger, Faster

Aged experience met youthful strength in the main event last night at the armory, and won, but not by virtue of superiority. Everett Kibbons, because of fresh luck and a quick flare of hot-headed temper, threw himself with his own body scissors, giving Ted Thye the decisive fall.

The third round lasted a minute and ten seconds. Thye had thrown Kibbons out of the ring with an arm twist. Kibbons, boiling with rage, charged back into the ring, punished Thye severely with elbow blows to the face and neck, and then leaped to apply the body scissors. Thye turned away from the jump, Kibbons' hold went home in reverse, and he fell to his back for the count of three.

The match was good and exceptionally fast, due perhaps to the cat-like agility of Kibbons. Undoubtedly, it was the best heavyweight grappling contest witnessed here in years. Thye met his downfall in the first round after a half hour of wrestling. Kibbons was the aggressor, constantly working to keep Thye in the middle of the ring, Thye, ordinarily an average clean wrestler, used his fists, kicked, and refused to break clean in his attempts to "set" Kibbons and stop the rushing tactics of his stronger opponent. Kibbons finally took the fall with a flying body scissors. He lost the scissors as he hit the floor, but held Thye with a body press. The second fall went to Thye with a wristlock. Kibbons weakened himself by a leap into the ropes. He fell back on his shoulders, and Thye pinned him down. The time for the second fall was 4:50.

In the second match, Herman Olson and Chet Wiles went to a draw. Olson, as usual, displeased the fans with a series of wild punches using his fists. The first fall went to Olson in 2:30, with a hammerlock. Wiles took the second round with a series of chin locks, flying knees, and body presses in 2:30. The draw came in the third round, when both grapplers gave up the ghost of a victory.

Patchin substituting for Joe Gardiner, who failed to appear in his match with Prof. Newton, took a victory from Prof. Newton in 11 minutes flat. He knocked Newton out by throwing him out of the ring with a reverse spin. Newton's right shoulder was badly sprained.
