Chancellor Kerr, Others to Be Interviewed; Cause Is Not Understood

gene. Invitations from Willamette university and others will be considered, it was pointed out, but because the invitation authorized today by the board had been requested by Gary, it was generally believed that the invitation from the state schools will be accepted.

The board today cleared its decks for the opening of the new fiscal year July 1 by moving toward further coordination of functions in some instances, approving minor budget adjustments, and otherwise disposing of a mass of accumulated business.

The board delved a bit into athletics, changed somewhat the setup as regards music instruction at the university and college, abolished one high priced office, passed upon a mass of personnel matters, nearly all of minor general interest, and took steps to get federal aid for construction and student loan funds if such is found available.

Another athletic move besides the basketball tournament invitation, was the approval of the appointment of George T. Scott as assistant football coach at Oregon State college at a salary of $2295. Scott is now head coach at Baker high school, is an alumnus of Oregon State, and former teammate at Nebraska of Lon Stiner, new Oregon State football mentor.

CHESS BODY FOUND; SEARCH CONTINUING

Grappling for the body of Howard Herron, 23, of Gates, in the deep hole in the Santiam river where the body of John T. Chess, 20, of Chicago, was found yesterday proved fruitless, Coroner L. E. Barrick was informed last night. The body of Chess, recovered yesterday forenoon, was brought here by conservation corps men last night, released by the coroner, and then taken on to Vancouver, Wash.

Search for the body of Herron, who with Chess was drowned Monday while attempting to cross the Santiam river in a rowboat 10 miles below Detroit, will be continued today. Chess' body was located at approximately the spot suggested by Walter Gerth of West Salem.

Young Chess, brought west from Chicago as a recruit in the conservation corps, is survived by the father, N. S. Chess of Chicago. The government will return the body there for burial.

TRUCKMEN ADVISED TO AVOID PAYMENT

Membership in the organization yesterday was near the 2000 mark. Anderson averred several thousand farmers would be left without means of livelihood if the new truck law became effective. He said he referred to those farmers who engage in hauling to augment their scant profits from sale of produce.

Trio of Marriage Licenses Issued Here on Tuesday

Three marriage licenses were issued Tuesday at the county clerk's offices here. Friday marks the beginning of the new "gin marriage" law and thereafter applicants will be forced to wait three days between the time a license is applied for and the day it is issued. Licenses issued yesterday were:

Ned T. McCoy, 1363 Plaza street, a contractor, to Ruth M. Armstrong of Portland, domestic science teacher.
Kenneth T. Waite, 24, laborer, to Monetta Ellis, 20, 1036 Highland avenue.
Oscar Lindquist, 451 North 19th street, a farmer, to Ida Pearl Bjelde, 555 North 20th street, a housekeeper.

WILLAMETTE'S YEAR IS RESULTFUL, SAYS

President Doney Says new Construction Unlikely; Debt is Avoided

Willamette university is ending one of the quietest but most successful years in its history, President Carl G. Doney observed this week. "There is a dearth of outstanding events to report to the trustees," he commented. "We have been free from much financial distress."

President Doney said he would like for the school to avail itself of prevailing low prices to construct needed additions to the university plant but he indicated he did not favor taking moneys for building purposes from endowment funds.

"If we should invest $100,000 in a new building it would mean a loss of $5000 from endowment income and an addition of $5000 to operating costs," the president stated. "That would mean a deduction from payments made to professors. When and if we build, funds should be raised from new subscriptions, a number of which are in sight but are gifts which will probably not materialize until better times are here."

Business Manager Savage said yesterday that he was hopeful the school would end the 1932-1933 year, June 30, without any indebtedness and with no recourse to bank borrowings. Last June $4,200 was borrowed temporarily to pay all bills and salary claims to that date.

PUBLIC URGED TO ATTEND FESTIVAL

Special Train Leaves Here At 9:30 Friday Morn; Buttons on Sale

The special train which the Cherrian-American Legion group has scheduled to take Salem folk to Portland Friday morning for the rose festival, is open to public at the same low rate which prevails for the musical groups which will participate in the parade, King Bing Frank Deckebach Jr. said yesterday.

"We urge the Salem public to cooperate with us in sending one of the biggest rose festival delegations ever to appear from this town," King Bing Deckebach said.

He pointed out that the dollar tickets, which entitle roundtrip passage on the special train leaving Trade and South Commercial streets here Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, are on sale at the American Legion booth downtown and by all Cherrians. The Legionnaires are also selling a 50-cent button to defray drum corps expense. This button entitles the holder to all attractions at the festival.

It is hoped that 150 Salem persons will march in the Salem section of the parade, in which will be entered a Cherrian float. The parade will start at 3 o'clock.

"Don't forget that the festival tickets are good the entire week end, with return to be on any regular train," the king bing reminds, adding "and Portland has provided headquarters for the Salem visitors at the Oregon hotel at Stark and Broadway; so let's send a big group and show Portland we appreciate their courtesy."

WILL SEE WORLD

MONMOUTH, June 7—Miss Florence McCleary who had charge of the Oregon Normal school's cafeteria for the past three years, and also made soup all winter for the training school's soup kitchen sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association, left here yesterday for Portland to secure her passport for a trip around the world. She will teach in Castle Rock, Wash., next year.

Directors to Meet—The board of directors of the Salem Y. M. C. A. will meet at the Y for its regular monthly noon luncheon today.

HEFFRON'S FILING IS AGAIN REJECTED

The secretary of state, for the second time in less than two weeks, yesterday rejected the application of F. C. Heffron of Eugene, who sought to file as a delegate to vote upon repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution. The convention will be held in August.

In his previous filing Heffron changed the printed pledge and indicated that he would vote to retain the amendment regardless of the result of the vote in Lane county at the special election July 21. The pledge provides that candidates shall vote according to the majority vote in their respective counties.

Heffron deleted the entire pledge in his application received at the state department Wednesday. He demanded that the secretary of state either accept or reject his application immediately.

SCOUT FIELD RALLY EVENTS ARE LISTED

Although Boy Scouts are required to make bows and arrows to earn merit badges in archery, they will not be required to use home-made equipment in the archery contest which will be one of the features of the annual Cascade area field rally to be held at Sweetland field at 7 o'clock tomorrow night, the rally committee decided at a meeting at the chamber of commerce last night. Contests on the program were as follows:

Class A—Semaphore signaling, fire by friction, Morse signaling, wall scaling, archery contest and bugling contest; Class B—Knot-tying relay, transportation relay, chariot race, dressing race, first aid to injured and skinning the snake.

In the transportation relay, scouts will use the firemen's carry, four-hand chair carry and arms and legs carry. In the chariot race, scouts will line up in the fashion of horse teams, race to a goal where the "driver" will pick up a hat with his teeth, and proceed to the finish line.

Surviving are the widow, Clara Amelia Allen; seven sons, Maurice S. of Eugene; Merin E. of Yoncalla; Clair E. of Roseburg; Glenn F. of Twin Falls, Idaho; Keith R. of Jefferson; Dodge R. and Neil G. of Albany; two daughters, Marion G. Allen of Stockton, California, and Elsie L. Allen of Albany; and four sisters: Mrs. Mary Freeman, Whitehall, Wis.; Miss A. Blanche Allen, and Mrs. Alice Thomas of Minneapolis and Miss Ida M. Allen, Los Angeles. Three sons are deceased.

MARION S. ALLEN PASSES AT ALBANY

Family Came to Oregon in 1901, Locating on Farm At Jefferson

Marion S. Allen, 74, for many years a resident of Jefferson, died Monday at his home in Albany after a prolonged illness. Funeral services will be held at the Albany First Methodist church and burial at the Masonic cemetery there.

Marion Stanley Allen spent his boyhood at Whitehall, Wisconsin, and from there went to Eau Claire, where he was employed in railroad work. On September 2, 1885, he was married to Clara Amelia Kolb of Eau Claire. They resided in Minneapolis until 1889, when he left the railroad and moved to a farm in New Richmond, Wisconsin.

They came west in 1901, locating on a farm four miles east of Jefferson, where they resided until moving to Albany late in 1926.
