WEIL SERVICES TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Funeral to be at Portland Crematorium at 2 p.m.; Memorial Here Sunday

Funeral services for the late Reverend Mr. Fred Alban Weil, pastor of the First Unitarian church, will take place at the Portland crematorium Friday at 2 p. m., conducted by the Reverend Mr. W. G. Eliot, Jr., pastor of the Unitarian church of Portland and a brother of Mrs. Weil.

Memorial services will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the First Unitarian church of Salem. This will enable Salem friends to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Weil.

Fred Alban Weil was born in North Andover, Mass., May 7, 1874. He graduated from Phillips academy at Andover and then engaged in newspaper work serving as reporter and editor on Massachusetts papers and as Associated Press correspondent from 1895 to 1900. Feeling the call of the ministry he entered Meadville theological seminary, completing the course in 1904 and being ordained in the Unitarian ministry after graduation. He served pastorates in several widely separated fields: Third Church, Chicago, 1904-1907; Bellingham, Wash., 1907-1917; First Church, Denver, 1917-1920; First Parish ("Church of the Presidents"), Quincy, Mass., 1920-1929; First Unitarian church, Salem, 1930 until his death.

Mr. Weil served in the eighth Massachusetts regiment during the Spanish-American war; and during the world war was field director for five southern states for the U. S. public health service. During his pastorate in Denver he was president of the Denver Philosophical society.

In 1905 Mr. Weil was united in marriage to Ellen Smith Eliot, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas L. Eliot of Portland. Three children were born to the union: Thomas Eliot, who resides in Washington, D. C., Frank Tuttle, him when hepleaded guilty recently to a charge of speeding.

LINCOLN RECORD IN T. B. TESTS BEST

Fewer pupils at Lincoln school in proportion to the enrollment are liable to be suffering from tuberculosis than in any of the other eight grade schools in the city, figures obtained at the Marion county health department office reveal. Results of tuberculin tests administered in the schools the past three months show 2.3 per cent of the Lincoln pupils reacted positively. Richmond was next lowest with but 2.6 per cent positive, while Englewood was highest, with 6.8 per cent positive.

The other school positive percentages are: McKinley 4.2, Highland 4.3, Park 4.6, Grant 4.7, Washington 5.7 and Garfield 5.9.

Pupils who have reacted positively to the test are given fluoroscopic examinations and if they appear to have tuberculosis, are requested to undergo X-ray examination.

The Chemeketans Sunday will drive into the Coast range mountains to gain a birds' eye view of Salem. It was announced yesterday. The hikers, armed with field glasses, will climb Dorens peak, which is almost due west of Salem and from which houses on Fairmount hill here are easily discernible through the glasses.

Starting from the Jennie Lind, the party will drive via Dallas, Buell and Wallace bridge to the Gold creek schoolhouse, 32 miles from Salem on the Sheridan-Grand Ronde highway, and from there three miles up Gold creek. The ascent of Dorens peak, a steady though not steep climb, will be made on the forest rangers' horse trail and is five miles long. Atop the peak is a 100-foot observation tower.

W. M. Hamilton in charge of the trip, states that persons not members of the Chemeketans are invited to join them on this hike. Registration will close at the Jennie Lind Friday night.

LOCAL TROUP SENDS TRIO TO ROAD SHOW

Maxine Pettyjohn, Torgerson And Scheuerman Place In Dixon Tryouts

Miss Maxine Pettyjohn, leading ingenue of Chemeketa players; Frank Torgerson, who made many friends with Salem audiences during the past year, and Lee N. Scheuerman, technical director of the group, have won places with the road show that Henry Dixon, former manager for Taylor Street players of Portland, will take out this summer.

These players went to Portland recently for tryouts and survived the preliminaries in competition with scores from Portland and nearby towns. Both Miss Pettyjohn and Mr. Torgerson will appear on the program, while Mr. Scheuerman has been engaged to look after backstage work. All three have been prominent in Chemeketa players activities during the year. Miss Pettyjohn will be remembered for the excellence of her work in "Lift Up Your Eyes" and Mr. Torgerson particularly for his female impersonation in "Glorious Annabelle." Mr. Scheuerman constructed the scene sets used by the group this season.

Rehearsals are under way in Portland but no definite date has as yet been set for the show to go on the road.

Members of Chemeketa players who are interested in summer study in theory of acting, make-up and stagecraft will meet Thursday night at the home of Miss Margaret Mary Zernan, at which time plans for the summer study will be announced. This work is under the direction of Nellie Rowland Green.

Persons interested in working with Chemeketa players may obtain information from Perry Prescott Reigelman, director, at 940 Mill street, or by telephone; or from E. J. Peterson, manager, at Imperial Furniture company on Court street.

Reach for a Lucky

—for always Luckies Please!

Men aren't the only ones who know Luckies are better

We women know that there's always a good reason for everything. And when a cigarette is so unusually mild, so pure and fine-tasting as Luckies are—what other reason but "Toasting" could there be? No man has to tell me that fine tobaccos play an important part—but Luckies please me completely in still another way. My cigarette is such a personal thing—when I place it between my lips I want to be sure not to offend my sense of feminine daintiness. You men have your reasons for saying "Luckies please!"—but with me it's the welcome purity as well as the flavor and mildness that "Toasting" imparts.
