Smart Luncheon is Compliment to Recent Bride

Mrs. Chandler Brown, nee Eleanor Plamondon, a recent bride who has come to make her home in Salem, was the inspiration for a smartly appointed bridge luncheon at the R. P. Boise home Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Boise as hostess.

The small luncheon tables were beautifully arranged with early summer flowers in pastel shades. Mrs. Frank Snedecor assisted Mrs. Boise.

Guests bidden to compliment Mrs. Brown included Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. Richard Stolz, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Jr., Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mrs. Axel Eoff, Mrs. Wolcott Barron, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. Gordon Hadley, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. John Coughell, Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. Dolph Craig, Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. R. F. Prael of Portland, Miss Elizabeth Keene and Miss Frances Keene of Silverton, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Josephine Crovoyer, Miss Rosalie Burden, Miss Rovena Eyre, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Kay Goulet and Miss Henriette White.

Officers Elected By Music Teachers

Miss Dorothy Pearce will again head the Salem Music Teachers association as a result of the election of officers held at the home of Mrs. Mabel S. Powers Tuesday night.

Other officers for the year will be Mrs. F. F. Thomas, vice president; Mrs. Bertha J. Darby, secretary; Mrs. Marjorie Ratcliffe, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Joy Turner Moses treasurer.

Unusually satisfactory reports were made concerning the work and programs accomplished by the organization this past season.

Mrs. Walter A. Denton made an excellent report concerning the work of music week and special mention was made of the music festival given by the Salem public schools as a contribution to music week activities.

The sponsoring of the local music contest, the first of the kind to be sponsored in Salem, was discussed by Miss Elma Weller and the excellent standing of Salem students who competed outside of the city as a result of the local contest.

Mrs. Frank Churchill extended an invitation to the association to hold the annual picnic in the gardens of the Churchill home. This picnic at the Churchill home is an annual affair for the association.

Refreshments and a delightful informal social hour concluded the last meeting of the season for the Music Teachers.

Kappa Delta Alumnae Entertained

Miss Wilma Coursey entertained Tuesday night for members of the Kappa Delta sorority alumnae. A short business meeting was followed by an informal hour and refreshments.

Present were Miss Eloise Wright, Miss Edna Prescott, Miss Florian Hrubetz, Miss Lois Riggs, Mrs. Harris Lietz, and Miss Coursey.

Salem Matrons Guests of Mrs. Meier

Mrs. Julius Meier entertained with luncheon at her country home near Portland Tuesday afternoon. To this matrons from Portland and Salem were invited.

Motoring down from Salem were Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn.

Members of Alpha Phi Alpha Alumnae association met at the home of Miss Dorothy Eastridge Monday night for a business meeting followed by a delightful social hour. Plans were made at the business meeting for observation of the "ten year" reunion observed by this sorority.
