

Sixty Thousand May See Schmeling-Baer Fight Tonight

EPIC STRUGGLE IS ANTICIPATED

Adversaries Catch Popular Fancy Though No Title Honors at Stake

By EDWARD J. NEIL
NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—The backdrop of another big heavyweight battle—fantastic medley of crowds and color, thrills and action—slid down today to complete the setting for the 15 round duel of Max Schmeling and Max Baer in the Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

All the old essentials were there for another episode in the list of ring struggles that have raged over the years in the big American league ball park, even though this time the scenery lacked the gawdiness of the affluence it knew in the days of Tex Rickard and the multi-million dollar gates.

There is no heavyweight title at stake, the special lure Rickard used to dangle before the eyes of the faithful, but the attractiveness of the young and punishing punchers, one a former champion, the other a reckless headliner young giant, seems to have excited a populace as few other battles in years.

Tonight Jack Dempsey, Rickard's greatest fighting asset and now his would-be successor as a promoter, believed that his first metropolitan venture would draw a crowd of at least 60,000 and gate receipts close to $200,000, a financial triumph considering the times and ticket prices scaled from $1 to $10. A complete sell out of the ball park, something that never yet has happened for a fight, would gross $400,000.

So brisk was the ticket sale through the day as Baer, the curly headed Californian, moved into town from his training camp at Atlantic City, and Schmeling rested at Lake Swannanoa, that choice ringside seats leaped to a value of $25 each in the hands of speculators.

PADE'S WINNERS IN 14-INNING TILT

Salem Golf Club Defeated 11-6 by Final Splurge; Valley Motor Winner

Another kitball thriller was staged on Sweetland field Wednesday night when Pade's Greens and Salem Golf club teams battled 14 innings before their contest was decided. Pade's put over a five-run rally in the first half of the 14th to win 11 to 6. Elmore Hill drove out the hit that broke the tie.

Pade's scored four runs in the first inning but thereafter was held to one in the fourth and one in the tenth, prior to the winning splurge in the 14th. The golfers got two in the fourth, one in the fifth, two in the seventh to tie the score, and then matched the grocers' tally in the tenth.

Valley Motor and Capital Journal also played a tight game, the Ford men winning 3 to 0. Pade's 11 16 4
Salem Golf 6 9 2

The final game, Hollywood Auction vs. Pade's will be played Friday night instead of tonight, as the players want to hear the fight broadcast. Managers of the four big teams which will participate in the playoff, which takes place at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night at 8:30, to make arrangements for that series.

These teams are Western Paper and Pade's in the National League, Teachers and Salem Linen Mills in the American.

FINANCIAL VIEW OF EDUCATION SCORED

More Satisfactory Living Rather Than Dollar is Proper Aim, Held

In an address rich in thought and with rare felicity of expression Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, spoke to the Rotary club yesterday noon on the problem of unemployment among college graduates. The situation, he confessed, is unparalleled. The unemployment of trained workers is unbelievable and tragical, he observed. Ten times the usual number of applications for positions are coming to him now. In this state a thousand high school teachers will be released, he estimated.

Reviewing some of the causes of this excess of trained mind, Dr. Doney noted the great increase in college enrollment in the post-war years. "The war stimulated attendance, but the objective became commercial. Estimates were broadcast that a college education was worth $150,000; and young people went to college to make sure of good incomes after they received training."

Dr. Doney scored the putting of the dollar mark on education. "The objective of an education is not to fit one for trade, although that is worthy, but to give one an inner equipment which will make life more satisfactory," he declared. "True wealth lies in the comfort and joy which people derive from their work and not in the accumulation of riches which harass and worry. And in the end college training will bring bread because the handsy trained man is man of judgment and has the facility of creative thought and so can adapt himself to changing situations."

In conclusion Dr. Doney foretold that many college graduates would work in humble positions as mechanics or as road workers or as carpenters, but that after their working hours they had resources which would give them real happiness.

'BOHEMIAN GIRL' TO BE REPEATED HERE

"The Bohemian Girl," which was presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university in Salem and Portland, will be repeated because of popular demand at the Salem high school auditorium, Friday night, June 9. No seats will be reserved and all tickets will be 25 cents.

The chorus has been doubled, the orchestra enlarged, new scenery and costumes added to make the opera more appealing. The same presentation which won acclaim in Portland will be given in its entirety at this presentation.

Added features will include ballet dances in the opera and orchestra numbers between acts. New lighting effects will also be employed for this show. All proceeds from the opera will go to the Philharmonic choir of Willamette university to be used in defraying expenses of its trip to the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago this summer as official representative of the state of Oregon. Tickets may be obtained from the Light Opera club and Philharmonic choir members or at the high school auditorium Friday night.

Mrs. Hoge Heads Humane Society

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—(AP)—Mrs. Charles T. Hoge was recently elected supervisor of the Oregon Humane society at a meeting of the board of directors here. The office of general manager, held for 13 years by the late Mrs. F. W. Swanton, was abolished by the board and the office of "supervisor" created. Mrs. Hoge will be active director of the work of the society.

DEFEAT JENKINS

CENTRAL HOWELL, June 7.—The Central Howell baseball team beat Jenkins team of Silverton 7 to 1 on the home diamond Sunday.

SALEM JUNIORS TOP SILVERTON

Gatchell Turns in Five Hit Game, Nicholson Homes Score is 7 to 2

Salem's American Legion Junior baseball team looked about a thousand per cent improved in its second league game Wednesday, as it pounded out a 7 to 2 victory over Silverton. Francis Gatchell, Salem's speed ball hurler, permitted the visitors five hits, and was accorded perfect support.

The Salem boys betrayed no fear of the no-hit prowess of Arland Schwarb, Silverton chucker, and nicked him for 12 hits, including a home run by Jimmy Nicholson and a triple by Mike Miller. Claggett and Salstrom led the home squad in acquiring base hits, each getting three.

Miller's three-bagger started the fireworks in the second, Mike scoring on an error immediately thereafter. Claggett and Aker clicked singles to bring two more runs in the fourth, and Nicholson's circuit swat brought in Salstrom ahead of him for another brace in the fifth. Steinke and Salstrom did the hitting to provide two in the eighth.

Silverton avoided a shutout by scoring two runs on a hit, a walk, a wild pitch and an outfield fly in the sixth.

The Salem boys turned in several spectacular fielding performances. Salstrom and Steinke engineered a neat double play, and Salstrom made one play that looked impossible on a deep grounder far to his right.

PROHIBITION VOTE ARGUED IN COURT

Arguments were heard in the state supreme court Wednesday in the original mandamus proceeding to compel the secretary of state to place upon the ballot at the July 21 election the initiative proposal calling for the repeal of the two prohibition amendments to the state constitution.

The petitioners were filed by George Blyander of Portland, and were completed within the required time. A subsequent opinion by the attorney general held that the law providing for the special election did not include vote upon initiative measures.

John L. Beckman, attorney for the petitioners, argued that the title of the act made reference to initiative measures although this was omitted in the body of the law. He contended that it was the intention of the legislature to include initiative measures.

Attorney General Van Winkle appeared for the state. He said it was imperative that reference be made in the body of the act.

63 Shares P.E.P. Stock Tendered For 111 of C.P.S.

Tender of 63 shares of P. E. P. company stock for 111 shares of Central Public Service corporation stock was made yesterday by P. E. P. company officials as their answer in court here to a complaint recently filed by John W. Fisher and others in a suit to recover the purchase price of stock purchased by them.

The Portland concern was jointly named defendant in the suit with the Central Public Service company and Albert E. Peirce and company. The answering defendant said the tender of the stock was an equitable proceeding and was the best relief which the defendant could afford Fisher and his associates.

Further Tests For T.B. Asked

Thirteen out of a group of 67 persons who were given fluoroscopic examinations this week by the county health department were requested to undergo X-ray examination to determine whether or not they are suffering from tuberculosis. Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer, announced this week. The 67 were persons who had reacted positively to tuberculin tests and included 54 children.

Y CAMP TO BE HELD JULY 28 TO AUG. 3

With the closing of school, plans are fast shaping up at the Y. M. C. A. for the annual summer camp for boys to be held this year at Oceanside, from July 28 to August 3. Y officials stated Tuesday that registration would start immediately and that all boys desiring to attend should sign up as soon as possible as it will probably be necessary to limit the number.

Parents are assured that everything pertaining to the health and safety of the boys will be given exacting attention, and that every safeguard is being taken in the planning of the camp. Any boy may attend who is above nine years of age and a resident of Marion, Polk, Benton, Linn or Tillamook counties. It is not necessary to be a member of the Y. M. C. A.

The fee this year has been cut from $10 to $8 per boy which includes transportation both ways. The one camp will include boys of all ages, divided into groups for classes and activities.

Relief Work Will Be Curtailed Here

Since Marion county's relief employment activities will be severely curtailed this month, due to shortage of funds, able bodied men on the relief lists will have to hunt up jobs as best they can, Miss Thora V. Boesen, Red Cross executive secretary, stated yesterday. She suggested that men should now be able to find employment in hop yards, onion and berry fields.

As far as now known, the county will receive but $10,000 for relief work this month. Relief money in May totalled $23,000 and in April approximately $40,000.

Service at the relief depots also will be pared down to a minimum, according to Miss Boesen. They will be kept open only to provide food for persons unable to work.

Salem, Portland Couples Receive Wedding Permits

Two marriage licenses were issued Wednesday by the county clerk. Sam Farmer, 33, 955 Tamarack street, a salesman, received a permit to wed Myr Balleger, 30, a teacher at the school for the blind, the date set being June 9. Fay Anus Grisdley, 2033 North E. 53rd avenue, Portland, a mechanical engineer, received a license to wed Mary M. Ferguson, 3642 E. 72nd avenue, Portland, director of Girl Scout work.
