Club President Tells Standing Committees

A meeting of the year book committee of the Salem Women's club was held in the board room of the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon. At this time Mrs. Clifton Mudd, president of the club, announced standing committees for the year.

The year book committee includes Mrs. L. E. Bergsvik, chairman, Mrs. Percy Kelley, Mrs. J. A. Brownson, Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Miss Eula McCully, Mrs. Claude T. Ellison, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen and Mrs. William F. Fargo.

Press committee includes Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, and all chairmen of departments, and committee chairmen. Club history committee includes Mrs. Mary Bayne and Mrs. W. C. Dibble. Mrs. Dibble is one of the few charter members of the club and she it was who inspired the idea of keeping a club history.

Legislative committee, Mrs. Helen Louise Crosby, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. J. U. Campbell, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Hannah Martin.

Friendship, Mrs. F. G. Shipley, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. Seymour Jones, and Mrs. Albert Hunt. Mrs. U. G. Boyer was again placed on the house committee for the year. Other members include Mrs. George Swift, and Mrs. Mary Bayne.

Hospitality committee includes Hannah Martin, president, and Mrs. Mark McCallister, present vice president. As a result of the year book committee meeting Wednesday it is reported that about a fourth of the work is ready to submit to the printer and it is expected that the work will be accomplished speedily this year.

A delightful compliment paid to Mrs. P. W. Brown at her home on North Cottage street were the calls paid by many friends offering congratulations on the occasion of her 80th birthday recently. Many flowers and gifts were added to the good wishes.

Mrs. P. F. Thomas will present a group of piano and violin pupils in recital at the American Lutheran church Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Thomas will spend the weekend in Corvallis.

Mrs. Scott is Club Speaker; Al Forbes Luncheon Guests Weddings Take Important Place in Valley Social Affairs of Week

Silverton Hills—Mr. and Mrs. Al Forbes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Murray Tuesday at luncheon. The Forbes were recently married in Idaho and were on their way to Eugene to attend a class reunion at the University of Oregon of which they are both graduates.

Mrs. Forbes will be remembered here as Miss Mary Largent. She formerly lived at Silverton with her parents and is a graduate of the Silverton high school. Since her graduation she has been teaching in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes have taken over the management of the Bristol hotel in Boise Idaho, and after a short wedding trip here in Oregon will return to Boise to take up their work.

Mrs. Forbes brings the news that her sister, Mrs. Maude Cosho, has just been elected to a two year term as city treasurer at Boise. Mrs. Cosho will be remembered here as Maude Largent. She taught at the Hull school here for two years, going from here to the University of Oregon from which she graduated shortly before her marriage to Harrison Cosho who was killed in an accident a year ago.

Woodburn—An interesting wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches, 24th and Lincoln street, Portland, Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock when Miss Catherine Addink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Addink of the state training school, became the bride of Farley E. Mogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mogan of Portland. Rev. John Beard, pastor of the Mt. Tabor, Presbyterian church, officiated.

The bride was becomingly attired in an afternoon frock of blue crepe and wore a corsage of gardenias. Her dress accessories were white.

Mrs. James Gardner of Vancouver was her attendant. Mr. Riches acted as best man for Mr. Mogan.

A reception was held at the Riches home after the ceremony with Mrs. Lee King of the training school and Mrs. Gene Forsyth of Portland serving.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Mogan will reside at 1585 Jefferson street, Salem.

The bride has been employed as secretary to Superintendent Laughlin at the training school the past two years.

Mr. Mogan is a member of the state police department located at Salem.

Smart Bridge Tea Fetes University Maids

Miss Roberta Mills and Miss Carolyn Braden were the inspiration for one of the most attractive bridge teas of the late spring at the home of Mrs. Walter Spaulding Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Spaulding as hostess.

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Leone Spaulding and introduced to guest rooms which were a delightful study in pink and green flower arrangement. Cards were in play for several hours. Favors for the card tables were distributed by Jessamine Weaver.

At the tea hour Mrs. H. L. Braden and Mrs. Roy Mills, mothers of the honor guests, alternated at the urns. The table was a colorful study. Silver candle holders bore pink tapers and arranged in silver bud vases were single orchids in orchid color. Assisting in serving were Miss Ila Mills, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, and Miss Dorothy Dalk.

Bidden in compliment to Miss Braden and Miss Mills were Miss Henrietta White, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Myra Belt, Miss Kathryn Rowe, Miss Ruthita Hoffnall, Miss Wilda Fleener, Miss Virginia Bright, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Harriet Adams, Miss Dorothy Dalk, Miss Jermie Upston, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Dorothy Alexander, Miss Mattie Rump, Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Ruth Chapman, Miss Bonetta Edwards, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Kathryn Goulet, Miss Sue Pringle, Miss Ruth Fleck, Miss Faye Cornutt, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Savilla Phelps, Miss Margaret Purvine, Miss Genevieve Emmons, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. H. L. Braden, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Clifford Spaulding of Newberg, Mrs. Dan Schreiber, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Lewis C. Griffith and the hostess, Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Nellie Muir, Mrs. George Clark, Miss Helen Allen, and Mrs. R. L. Guise. Those serving on the hospitality committee were Mrs. R. E. Burnett, and Mrs. Mabel Ballard.

Silverton—The local firemen gave an old time charivari for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Carpenter, newly married, Tuesday night. Mr. Carpenter is a member of the Silverton fire department.

Mrs. Carpenter was before her marriage, Miss Dorothy Neal. The young people are making their home on Adams street.

The young couple were taken on a ride out one of the fire trucks about town Tuesday night.

Birthday Compliment Planned Saturday

Mrs. William Effenberger of Dallas and Ed Blessing of Salem will entertain Saturday night with a birthday party complimenting Mrs. Blessing and Mr. Effenberger.

A dinner at the Blackbird Inn at Rickreall will be followed by an evening of dancing in Dallas and then a midnight supper party at the Effenberger home.

House Guest Inspires Pretty Tea Afternoon

Mrs. Paul V. Johnson entertained with an attractive informal tea between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock at her home Wednesday afternoon complimenting her house guest and cousin, Miss Marcella Cormier of Olympia, Wash. The tea table was gracefully centered with a mixture of summer flowers. Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Julia Johnson, and Miss Roberta Mills assisted in serving.

Silverton—Mrs. Fern Davenport will present her piano students in a unique recital Monday night at the Methodist church at 8 p. m. The recital is arranged in playlet form and is entitled "A Glimpse of Fairyland." The church stage will be decorated to represent a woodland scene and a throne will be erected for the queen of the fairies.

Beryl Ottaway, violinist and Fred Baker, reader, will assist Mrs. Davenport. The program has piano duets and trios besides the solo work. Mrs. Davenport extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Persons taking part are: Miriam Mulkey, Earla Garver, Dorsey Tweedie, Eileen Stanton, June Baker, Thomas Hall, Phyllis Tweedie, Marie Hall, Marjorie Inman, Elizabeth Hall, Thelma Leek, Helen Hicks, Mable Norton, Margaret Higginbotham, Francis Higginbotham, Marjorie Baker, Elaine Peterson, Jo Anne Tweedie, Virginia Case, Bobby Sidwell, Melvin Heater, Keith Tweedie.

Bride-Elect Guest For Pretty Party

Miss Ruth Powell who will become the bride of Harold Zwicker early in July, was the inspiration for a pretty affair at the home of Mrs. Floyd E. McCarroll recently.

A color scheme of rose buds and sweet peas in colors of salmon pink and white were used for the luncheon table. Cards were enjoyed for the early part of the evening and then a shower of silverware was presented to the bride-elect before the late luncheon hour.

Guests in compliment to Miss
