Home Wedding is Quiet Morning Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Taylor, daughter of Mrs. James Taylor, became the bride of Dennis Patch in a quiet home ceremony at the Taylor residence Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, read the service in the presence of the immediate members of the families and a few intimate friends.

The nuptial vows were exchanged before a large window banked with flowers. Mrs. Enoch Dumas played the wedding marches.

Miss Gladys Taylor, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Robert Lousch of Corvallis, a fraternity brother of the groom, acted as best man for Mr. Patch.

The bride was smartly gowned in white and carried Cecil Brunner roses. The maid of honor wore blue and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony an informal wedding breakfast was served. Mrs. H. P. Chase presided at the urns and Mrs. W. M. Pennington, aunt of the bride, assisted in serving.

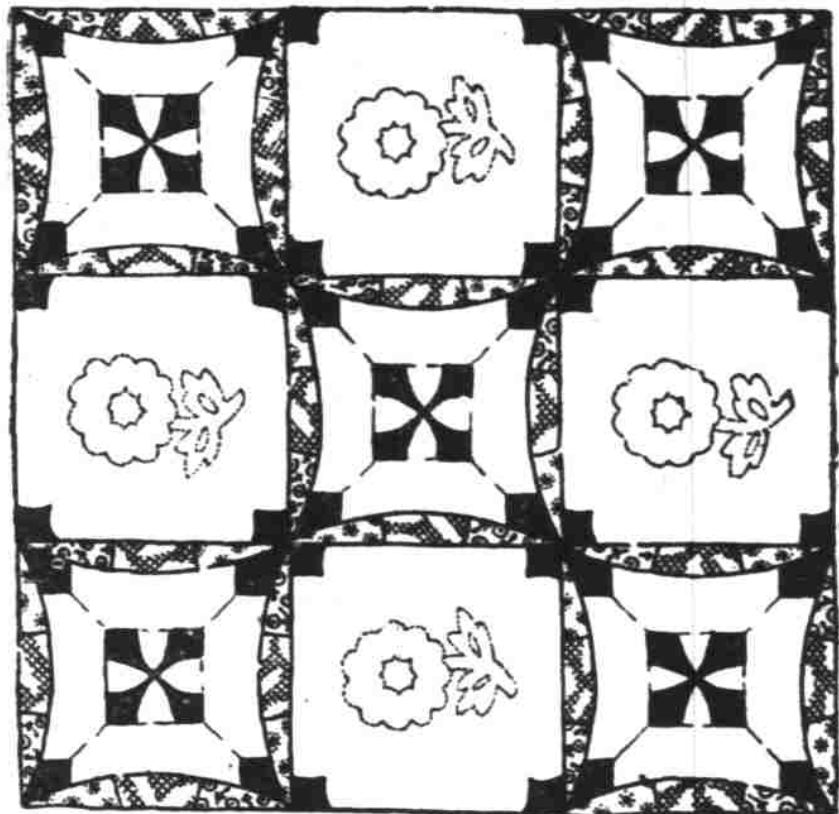

Following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Patch left by motor for a few days at the beach and will then be at home in Corvallis for the summer. This winter Mr. Patch will teach at Halfway, Ore., and there the young people will make their home.

Mrs. Patch is a graduate of Willamette university, where she was prominent in college activities and those of her sorority, Alpha Phi Alpha. Since her graduation she has been prominently connected with the affairs of the younger set.

Mr. Patch is a graduate of Oregon State college and was a member of Beta Kappa fraternity.

Mrs. Patch wore a modish white ensemble with accessories to match her going away attire.

PATCHWORK QUILT PATTERN

By LAURA WHEELER

Even though the women of the early 19th century scorned crowned heads, coronation patterns were popular for quilts and to today they still are favorites. This graceful variation makes a charming pattern that is easy to do. Another attractive feature of this quilt is that scraps of material can be used to form the round-edged patches, at the sides of the blocks. This feature makes it especially popular as a friendship quilt, for it offers the opportunity of using a variety of material harmoniously. The floral quilting motif fits in well with the airiness of the patchwork block.

The pattern comes to you with complete, simple instruction for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, quilting motif, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents for a pattern for this design to The Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept., 83 Eighth avenue, New York city.
