

TED FIO-RITO WILL PLAY AT ELSINORE

Popular Director and Song Writer Touring Coast; Gives Two Programs

America's famous song writer and orchestra director, Ted Fio-Rito, comes in person with his famous orchestra to play an engagement of one day, Monday matinee and evening at the Elsinore theatre through arrangements completed with Music Corporation of America officials in Los Angeles.

Born of musical parents in Newark, N. J., hardly more than 30 years old, Ted Fio-Rito has worked with the music within him and brought it out on paper, on the piano, and in the direction of his orchestra. His first song, a hit number called, "Love Bird," was published when he was 19 years old. One year later the youthful pianist formed his own orchestra, playing first at the Oriole Terrace in Detroit and later at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago, where the band made musical history.

About a year ago Fio-Rito's music was first introduced to the Pacific coast and within a few weeks time he became the favorite band of movie land. In San Francisco he became an overnight sensation at the smart Hotel St. Francis. During his long stay there the band was heard nightly over the Pacific coast chain of the Columbia network and many times was featured on NBC network commercial programs. Ted and his orchestra are making a limited personal appearance tour before returning to the Hotel St. Francis for the orchestra's second season.

Slim, Zasu Back Again At Elsinore

Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts are co-starring in "Out All Night," which is a recommendation for any picture at the outset. This picture opens today for a three-day engagement at the Elsinore theatre. Their peculiar abilities in the comedy field make them ideal foils for each other, and they make the most of every scene in which they appear.

Summerville appears as a pampered "mama's boy" raised as a hothouse flower, and Miss Pitts is seen as an attendant in the nursery of a department store, equally ignorant of the facts of life. Their courtship and their subsequent honeymoon trip to Niagara falls are full of the most riotous humor.

The supporting cast is uniformly excellent, and important roles are played by Alexander Carr, Laura Hope Crews, Shirley Grey, Rollo Lloyd and George Hackathorne. Film direction must be credited to Sam Taylor, former director of Harold Lloyd.

HOLLYWOOD SHOWS 'MEN MUST FIGHT'

On the theory that an emotional drama of a nation on the brink of war calls for exceptional acting talent, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer used particular care in assembling the cast for "Men Must Fight," which opens today at the Hollywood theatre.

With the plot centering about a woman who has raised her son to share her hatred of war, the principal feminine role was assigned to the celebrated English star, Diana Wynyard, who made her first appearance before American film audiences opposite John Barrymore in "Rasputin and the Empress" and subsequently scored an outstanding portrayal in "Cavalcade."

Next in importance is Lewis Stone, one of the most popular of the screen's character actors. He has the role of the secretary of state whose position is endangered when his family became leaders of the anti-military faction when the United States is forced into a war in 1940.

SENIORS PRESENT PLAY MONMOUTH, June 10

The senior class of Monmouth school presented "The Road to the City," a play in four acts in the auditorium this week to a capacity audience. Cast members were: Barbara Powers, Thelma Allor, Ruth Allen, Pauline Moran, Helen Blodgett, John Murdoch, Roger Beckley, Charles Parker, Manley Hawk and Robert Price. Edith Clark was director. Music by the high school orchestra was a feature of the very fine performance.

NEW BARN GOING UP SUBLIMITY, June 10

Al Hassler is building an up-to-date barn of all the latest equipment on his farm east of Sublimity. It is being built by the Lulay brothers, N. W. Kremer and son Harold are reshingling the roof on William Bell's barn.

Ted Fio-Rito and Orchestra Monday

A little ahead but its coming—E. G. Robinson in "The Little Giant". This will be the feature at the Elsinore June 18.

Meet Mr. Ted Fio Rito who will lead his men in a mighty orchestra presentation at the Elsinore tomorrow night.

RADIO TROUP COMES TO GRAND TWO DAYS

The Grand theatre will present as an added attraction next Friday and Saturday June 16 and 17, the popular pioneer radio program, the Covered Wagon Days heard every Monday night over station KGW in Portland. This weekly radio feature has been broadcast for over two and a half years and is a dramatization of the procedures of an old pioneer caravan in 1850 which traveled throughout this part of the country at that time.

The entire cast of 15 people will be on hand and all the characters well known to the radio audience will appear. Nate Applegate, Nancy Applegate, Poke Pickens, Cheers Beam, Ial Peters, Tom McKay, and others, as well as an added feature of the old time orchestra.

The show carries special scenery and lighting effects and the patrons of the Grand theatre will be afforded nearly an hour of entertainment that will take them back to the days of old.

Mickey Mousers To Give Revue, Elsinore Friday

After several years of special talent shows each Saturday afternoon on the regular Mickey Mouse matinee program at the Elsinore theatre, plans have been developed for a "Mickey Mouse" revue to be given by the cream of this talent Friday night at 8 o'clock between regular feature shows at the Elsinore.

A program of dancing, songs and comedy skits will be presented with a fitting accompaniment of orchestra music by Boots Grant and his orchestra.

The program promises to be interesting because it is all local talent of youngsters of the city and it is being given at no advance in prices.

Teachers go East to See Fair, Take Studies

Virginia Mason of Jefferson, and Ethel Hekey of Mill City, left early Saturday morning for Chicago, going via the Chicago-Great Northern railroad. They will visit Glacier national park on the way, and see the Chicago Century of Progress exposition. Miss Mason will visit her sister, Mrs. Riley Gilbert and family, in Chicago, before attending summer school in Evanston, Ill., where she will major in dramatic art; thus start working for the M. A. degree. Following summer school, Miss Mason will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones at Cleveland, O., also relatives in St. Louis, Mo., returning home by the southern route, visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Doyle, and family in Pasadena, Cal.

Marguerite and Eleanor Looney also left Wednesday for Chicago, going by way of Seattle and Canada, and will return in the fall through Iowa, Nebraska, the Grand canyon and California. Miss Marguerite will also attend summer school at Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill.

Indians Tell Of School in Parade Float

CHEMAWA, June 10.—The Chemawa vocational school float entered in the Portland Rose festival parade Friday, received one of the three honorable mentions given in the third section of the parade, the largest section.

The float depicted the Indian in his native habitat—a large tepee constructed over the cab of the truck; and also the vocational work done at Chemawa. Indians in costume on the float were Florence Ironing, Evelyn Whitebear, John Blackater and Charles Huber. Presenting the vocational work on the appropriately decorated platform of the truck were: Donna Mae Lafonse, typist, and Wesley Larsen, tailor.

A large open wooden book on which was listed the vocations offered in the Chemawa course of study and with painting done by Alex LaFromboise of the campus, separated the two phases of the float.

Charles E. Larsen and J. E. James headed the group of employees who constructed and entered the float.

Ice Cream Social is Planned for June 16

Story of Cholera-Stricken South sea Island Stars Joan Crawford

"Rain" at the Grand today, is an adaptation by Maxwell Anderson of the stage play by John Colton and C. Randolph which in turn was adapted from the W. Somerset Maugham story for Jeanne Eagels.

It concerns itself with a young woman of limber morals who finds herself quarantined by cholera on a South Sea Island with other passengers of the ship on which she had been bound for Asia. It is the morals of the girl contrasted to the rigorous teachings of the reformer which provides the background of the story. That and the incessant rain whose monotony finally drives the entire company to a state little short of insanity.

Miss Crawford never has attained such artistry as she displays here, and her ecstasy seems to have found its way to every other member of the company. Huston and Gargan are superb, and so are Beulah Bondi, Guy Kibbee, Matt Moore and Walter Catlett.

The photography, which it is understood was done on the island of Catalina, off the coast of California, is some of the best seen in many a moon. In fact, "Rain" must be put down as one of the best pictures of the season.

11 WOODBURN BOYS IN FOREST OUTFITS

WOODBURN, June 10.—Eleven Woodburn boys have enlisted in the Civilian Conservation corps and are in training now at Vancouver, Wash. They are: Carroll Olson, Bruce Kottis, James Howe, Charles Cammack, Arthur Rerick, Donald Jones, Melvin Block, Orville Wilson, Jerome Hanlan, Vernon Trentz and Merle Bice.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet in the church parlor Wednesday afternoon, June 14. A program is being prepared with Mrs. Rae Gibbons in charge. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Maude Mochet, Mrs. C. R. Duncan and Mrs. Joseph Huggill.

Mrs. Gill is Advisor

At the regular meeting of the Evergreen assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls held Monday night, Mrs. Myrtle Gill was elected mother advisor to take the place of Mrs. Ida Garrison who resigned after serving in that capacity the past two and a half years. She was installed by Miss Gwendolyn Strike, worthy advisor. The girls have chosen June 20 as the date for their annual homecoming.

The annual school meeting will be held June 19 at 2 o'clock at the Lincoln school to elect one-director for three years to take the place of E. J. Allen, present chairman of the board who has stated that he will be a candidate for reelection, and a clerk for one year. H. M. Austin, present clerk, has served two years and will probably accept the office for another term if elected.

Crowd at Rickreall As Graduates Given Diplomas for Work

RICKREALL, June 10.—The annual commencement exercises of the Rickreall high school were held Thursday night in the high school auditorium, before a largest crowd ever attending. The stage was beautiful with decorations resembling an outdoor garden.

Judge Harry Belt of the supreme court, gave the class address. Presentation of diplomas was made by W. A. Middleton, chairman of the board.

The graduates were: Margaret Edgar, Elizabeth Rowell, Mildred Robinson, Edna McCrow, Nalda Carroll, Marvin Waring, Chester Cunningham, Stanley Sherwood, Joe Simmons and Gordon Bihl.

Old Boom Days Returning In Keizer Area as Many New Buildings Started

By MRS. G. N. THOMPSON KEIZER, June 10.—So much has been said about depression that it is really gratifying when a building boom such as is on in Keizer, can be reported. Several tracts of land have been sold and new homes are being built.

H. C. Shields, a Salem realtor, sold one and a half acres of his acreage to W. H. Irvine of Seattle on which he is having erected a modern bungalow, which will be ready for occupancy early in July. Mr. Shields also traded the M. L. Hunt place of seven acres north of the school house to James Thompson of Forest Grove. The Hunt family will live in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Langhoff of West Salem with their son Robert have bought 45 acres of the old Claggett donation claim and are building a modern six-room story and a half house. Mr. Langhoff is an employe of the Oregon Gravel company and Robert is a Statesman carrier.

Walter Pearmire recently disposed of his 14-acre ranch west of Keizer school to Ernest Folsom of Coquille, proprietor of the Peter Pan in Salem. Mr. Folsom is remodeling and making decided changes in the place.

August Olson and wife of Portland have returned to their ranch and have torn down the old house which was built 10 years prior to the Columbian exposition in Chicago in 1893. This place was owned by Bill Bybee and was the location of the first race track in Marion county. Mr. Olson is erecting a modern five-room bungalow.

Martin Miller is remodeling his home and adding three rooms. M. G. Wane and family are newcomers in Keizer, having rented the place where M. F. Bradford lived. The latter moved to Salem.

Grange Club Has Business, Social Session, Chemawa

CHEMAWA, June 10.—The Grange Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Beckner hursday afternoon. At the business meeting presided over by Mrs. H. W. Bowden the members decided to piece a quilt, and to hold their meeting of July 5 with Mrs. Beckner who will direct the work. Mrs. Stanley Boston, Mrs. Lyle Beckner, Miss Evelyn Beckner, Mrs. Violet Pelsler and Miss Betty Boston were guests.

Mrs. Boston and Mrs. Beckner served refreshments and Miss Evelyn Beckner favored with solos. Mrs. D. B. Kleihege accompanied. The following were present: Mesdames Charles Beckner, H. W. Bowden, Guy H. Smith, Arch Claggett, Francis Ganland, D. B. Kleihege, W. E. Savage and S. H. Francisco.
