

Graduation Activities Take Place in City's Social Realm This Week

First Presbyterian Church Chosen For Fleener-Bollman Nuptials

Large Church Wedding Planned and This to be Followed by Formal Reception

JUNE goes forward with more wedding announcements and there are still more lurking just around the corner. Miss Wilda Fleener has announced the place of her marriage, to J. Paul Bollman June 23 at the First Presbyterian church. The service will be a candle light ceremony read by Rev. Grover C. Birtch at 8 o'clock. This will be a large wedding as about 200 invitations have been extended.

Prof. Frank Churchill will play the wedding march which will be that of Lohengrin. Miss Elizabeth Clement will sing "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning".

Reunion Plan Elaborately Planned

AMONG the many attractive affairs planned for the graduation weekend in Willamette university is the "Ten Year" reunion which the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority is planning in celebration of the establishment of the sorority 10 years ago.

Within the past year the sorority has moved into a beautiful new home on North Summer street and elaborate plans are being made for the celebration. Alumnae from all points of the west will be present and from all over the United States and from many places outside the United States alumnae members are sending remembrances if they are unable to be present.

Registration of guests will begin Friday at the sorority home and will be in charge of Miss Muriel White, Miss Dorothy Eastridge is in charge of the housing arrangements.

Friday evening an informal party at the sorority home is being arranged by Miss Helen Brethaupt, chairman, and Mrs. Ruby Delk Phillips and Velleda Ohmart. At this time each one present will sketch in brief form her present activities and these sketches will be combined into a large "round-robin" to be sent to the absent members.

Saturday luncheon will be a picnic in the gardens of the sorority home and the afternoon will be marked with a tea between the hours of 3:30 and 5 o'clock for patronesses and sorority mothers. At this time the gifts from absent members will be presented the house.

All the activities of the graduation program will be attended by the alumnae and sorority members.

Sunday morning at 8 o'clock initiation of new alumnae members will take place at the sorority, and at 9 o'clock breakfast will be served.

The afternoon holds a brilliantly planned wedding. At 2 o'clock in the gardens of the sorority home Miss Leola Johnson, Alpha Phi Alpha active member, will become the bride of Donald E. Fisher of Ashland.

This will be a large wedding with sorority sisters and alumnae invited, in addition to other friends. Miss Johnson is the niece of Barkley A. Newman of Salem.

A formal reception will follow the wedding ceremony. At 5 o'clock a buffet supper will be served with charter members of the sorority as special members. Miss Elizabeth Ogden is in charge of the supper; Miss Helen Stiles is in charge of the breakfast, and Miss Helen Hanke in charge of garden tea. All three are of Portland.

Board Makes Plans For Summer Camp

The last board meeting of the year is being called for the Y. W. C. A. board at 10 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. social rooms. It is important that all members of the committee be present for this meeting because of plans which are to be discussed for Camp Santaly.

A meeting of the camp committee including Mrs. Claude Glenn, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher, Mrs. E. C. Mayor, Mrs. Ruth Vestee, Miss Frances Welch, Miss Eloise White, Miss Gladys Taylor, Miss Martha Jane Hottel, Miss Esther McMillinnee, and Miss Eileen Moore was held Wednesday afternoon.

At this time plans were made for a camp rally June 29 at the Y. W. C. A. Dr. D. B. Hill will show motion pictures of Camp Santaly and a song rally will be featured.

It is urged that all register as soon as possible in order to complete equipment plans for the camp.

It is announced that there will be three senior life savers present with the camp members and this will insure the safety of all girls who wish to learn to swim. Classes in stichery and raffia are being planned as part of the craft work.

Among those home from school is Robert Bishop who has been in the Y. W. C. A. business administration in Harvard university for the past year. Before leaving the east a visit was made in New York city and en route home the Century of Progress was visited in Chicago. Mr. Bishop arrived Thursday and left Friday in company with his brother, Charles Kay Bishop of the University of Oregon where Charles Kay is a student and from which school he graduated last spring. He will return from Eugene today in time for a family dinner at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Additional guests for the dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop of Portland and two sons. Mr. Bishop will be at home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson for most of this summer.

The Sewing club of the Business and Professional Women's club was a guest of Mrs. Lillian Cadwell Friday night at her home. Miss Daisy Hayden was joint hostess with Mrs. Cadwell. Following a 6:30 o'clock potluck supper the evening was spent in sewing and conversation. Miss Juana Holmes and Miss Helen Smith will be hostesses for the club July 14 at the residence of Miss Holmes.

The Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club will meet at 7 o'clock in the Marlon hotel Tuesday morning. At this time Mrs. W. Carlton Smith will address the group. Mrs. Clifford Townsend and Mrs. Carolyn Jensen will also give short talks.

The National Institute of Music and Arts will present a complimentary recital at the armory this afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. A program of wide variety and interest has been arranged.

Several farewell affairs are planned for Miss Hageman and among the first to be given was that for which Miss Clara Zuber was hostess Thursday evening. This was an informal evening with gifts presented to the bride-elect preceding the late coffee hour.

Mrs. B. J. C. Patton entertained with a dinner party for her daughter, Miss Roberta Patton on the occasion of her 17th birthday Wednesday at the Patton residence. Covers were placed for Miss Patton, Miss Charlotte Eyre, Miss Ruth Falk, Miss Lucille Kelly, Harold Bressler, Kenneth Hanson, Paul Patton and Ross Keping. Mrs. Patton was assisted in serving by her daughters, Mrs. Raymond Fisher, and Mrs. Ben L. Jones. An informal evening followed the dinner hour.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis will present in recital her piano class Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock in her studio on North 15th street. Of especial interest will be "a musical journey around the world," presented by Max Liphart. Assisting on the program will be Miss Maxine Taylor of Portland, violinist, accompanied by her sister, Miss Marguerite Taylor.

Those being presented include: Betty Jean Smith, Vivian Webb, Opal Smith, Irene Webb, Max Liphart, Harriett Crawford, Ila Mills and Miss Lewis.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday in the church parlors with Mrs. W. M. Thomas in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Willis Moore is chairman of the hostess committee and will be assisted by Mrs. J. Pooles, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. T. Whitte, Mrs. W. A. Delzel and Miss Anna Stout.

Week's Social Activities Include Wide Variety for Women Of the City

National Visitor, Dances, Willamette University Graduation Activities Scheduled

SUMMER lull may be just around the corner like so many other things that have been this past few months, but like the rest it is still withdrawn from Salem society for yet another week.

One of the busiest weeks of the past few will begin with today for both organizations and society. Tuesday night will mark the visit of the national president of the American War Mothers, Mrs. Lenore Harnsberger Stone of Washington, D. C., who is touring the west in the interest of the national order.

Mrs. Stone will be greeted with a 6 o'clock banquet at the War Mothers chapters of the state and invited friends. Between 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock a reception will be held to which all are invited who would like to meet Mrs. Stone.

State president, Mabel Lockwood, local president, Elizabeth Waters, Mrs. Frances Garver and Mrs. Margaret Eubanks of Portland, Mrs. Emilie Hendricks, Mrs. Ada V. Skiff, and Mrs. Helen A. Carson, will act as hostess committee.

All reservations are urged to be in for the banquet not later than Monday night at 6 o'clock. And there is the dance Monday night at which time most of Salem will step to the strains of Ted Flo Rito and his orchestra guests in the capital city for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy will entertain with a dinner party.

And speaking of dances there is the one for Friday night at Castilian hall at which time a group of maids from one of the city's younger sets will be hostesses. Invitations have been extended to a large number both in and out of the city and as plans are now much may be expected from this smart affair.

This coming weekend will be filled with formal and informal affairs at the various sororities and fraternities and organizations. Reunion affairs, teas, and banquets will be featured. The president's reception for alumni and all friends and supporters of the university will be held June 17 at Lausanne hall with Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney as hosts.
