

Eugene Townies Invade for Contest With Senators Today

COLLEGIANS TO BE PROMINENT

Game Part of Double Header With Salem and Stayton Juniors First, 1 p.m.

STATE LEAGUE
	W.	L.
Federals	3	0
Salem	2	1
Schapps	2	1
Eugene	1	2
Bend	1	2
Albany	0	3

Today's Schedule Eugene at Salem. Schapps at Bend. Federals at Albany.

Reinforced recently by the signing of several University of Oregon players, the Eugene Townies will invade Salem today, determined to boost their standing in the State league at the expense of the Salem Senators. The game, varying from the usual program, will be part of a double header, and will follow the clash between the Salem and Stayton American Legion Junior squads. The first game will start at 1 p.m. sharp, and the second before 3 o'clock.

Rivalry between Salem and Eugene is strong in all sports, and in summer baseball it has intensified greatly in recent years. The Townies are expected to bring a number of fans along with them, and attendance of home fans is expected to reach the highest figure of the season to date. It is certain that all of the fans who saw the Senators perform against Bend a week ago, will be on hand again if it is at all possible, and many others have heard from them of the exceptional team the Senators are developing this year.

The Senatorial lineup is expected to differ little today from that of a week ago, though Parrish, pitcher and infielder, will be on hand and may be shifted into the fray. "Squeak" Wilson will match curves and fast balls with the youthful but effective Bob Wiltshire of Eugene, and a mound duel such as the fans saw last Sunday may develop.

Although two of the past games have been marked by tight pitching, five of the Senators are hitting over .300. Manning leads with .444, and the others in order are Seales .385, Keber .364, Gribble .333, Colgan .333. Moye is close to that class with .286.

Players recently seen in University of Oregon uniforms who will be here with Eugene today are Duke Shaneman, catcher; Lee Chester, slugging first baseman, and Jack Gordon, outfielder Johnny Londahl, second baseman, was freshman coach at the university this spring. Nearly all of the Townies have Webfoot at one time or another, excepting Wiltshire who is just out of high school.

EUGENE TOWNIES' INFIELD STARS

Two of the infield performers of Billy Reinhart's Eugene Townies who will play the Salem Senators here this afternoon. Left, Del Russell, slugging third baseman whose present batting average is .500 for the season. He is a cousin of Kermit Russell, former Senator pitcher. Right, Chuck Wirth, dashing shortstop who got a tryout with the San Francisco Seals a couple of seasons ago on the recommendation of "Frisco" Edwards, then manager of the Senators.

Kitball Playoff to Start Monday; Leading Athletes Of City are Participating

The playoff for the spring championship of the Salem Kitball league will start Monday night on Sweetland field, with four teams, the two highest in each of the circuits, engaging in a six-game round robin. The Monday night game will bring together the two undefeated champions, Salem Linen Mills and Pade's Grocery. The games will be at 6:45 p. m., and admission is free.

A number of Salem's prominent athletes are taking part in these kitball contests, as may be judged from the roster of the four clubs in the playoff: Salem Linen — Serdotz, Marr, Foreman, P. McCaffery, F. McCaffery, DeSart, Elliott, Schaeffer, Bachelor, French and Marr. Pade's Grocery — Hill, Seguin, Steinbock, Seales, Schwartz, Barwick, Reed, Moore, Barnes and Pade.

Western Paper — Goode, Keber, Burch, Adolph, Bone, H. Slinger, L. Singer, B. Kitchen, L. Kitchen, Galloway, Burrell and Schmidt. Teachers — Brown, Gilmore, Ellis, Hauk, Drynan, H. Ashby, Cranon, Burrell, Sumner, Gibson, Salstrom, W. Ashby.

The Teachers boast in Drynan, a pitcher who has had wider experience than the others, he having tossed them over in Portland leagues. He figures along with Hauk, Gilmore and Brown in the strong attack of this team. Salem Linen has the best organized aggregation, all of the boys having played together two seasons. In Serdotz the weavers have a chucker with great control and exceptional speed.

Monday is the opening day for the four-team, six-game round robin playoff between the top teams in the two kitball leagues. The games will be played at 6:45 p. m. on Sweetland field and admission is free. Also on Monday or Tuesday the flight will be made up for the Bobby Jones handicap tournament at the Salem Golf club, and match play will start, with a week allotted to each round so that the tourney will finish at the same time the series of pictures is completed.

Tuesday will be a great occasion in the history of wrestling locally, for it will mark the first visit here of Gus Sonnenberg, probably the best known modern heavyweight of them all. He will meet Ted Thye at the armory. Special seating arrangements are being made in anticipation of a record crowd turning out to see the "dynamiter." Harry, Kent, ex-Oregon State college football star, will also appear here for the first time, against Joe Reynolds of Salt Lake City, in the one-hour bout, Dutch Bohnke and Jack King will grapple for 90 minutes in the opener.

And so on Wednesday there will be another round of American Legion Junior county games but the Salem Juniors will be playing away from home, as today's contest winds up their home season at least insofar as the regular county schedule is concerned. Aside from the kitball series, there won't be much doing, as far as we can recall, the rest of the week.

The great state tournament removal scene appears to be over. Results we might mention are a realization here that the event might some day be taken away, and discovery of who some of Salem's friends and Willamette university's friends are.

Coast Colleges Clamp Down on Soliciting

DRASTIC RULES ARE DRAWN UP

Any Student Interviewed by Representatives to be Ruled Ineligible

SPOKANE, June 10.—(AP)—The Pacific Coast conference ruled drastically against the practice of recruiting promising high school athletes by any representative of a college or university, at the closing session of the semi-annual meeting here today.

Not only was the practice of recruiting condemned in theory but faculty representatives in the conference ruled that any athlete solicited to enter a university or college shall be declared ineligible for competition in the conference.

The conference refused to ban scouting of football games and to limit the number of players participating in football games.

It also refused to prohibit broadcasting of football games in the 1934 season, but in deference to a strong fight by several members of the organization, set up rules by which the members could control the sponsorship and distribution of such broadcasts.

Members of the northern division completed a basketball schedule for the 1934 season, but the football schedule for that year was held over until the winter meeting, which will be held at San Francisco December 11 and 12.

The ruling against recruiting of high school athletes covered every phase of the practice. And held that any activity which throws a representative of athletic organization of a school or college in contact with high school athletes shall be interpreted as being for the purpose of recruiting.

Western Paper is strong in the hitting department with Bone, Adolph and Keber its leading sluggers. In L. Singer this team has a pitcher with a mean curve.

Pade's also has a clever twirler in Steinbock, and some hard hitters in Seales, Hill, Steinbock and others.

The Teachers boast in Drynan, a pitcher who has had wider experience than the others, he having tossed them over in Portland leagues. He figures along with Hauk, Gilmore and Brown in the strong attack of this team.

HEREVOLUTIONIZED WRESTLING

Here is Gus Sonnenberg, for whom the most characteristic type of wrestling offense recently brought into vogue, is named. He will make his first appearance in Salem Tuesday night, meeting Ted Thye of Portland. Sonnenberg was for a long period recognized as the world heavyweight champion wrestler, but lost his title to Ed Don George. He may meet Jim Browning, considered to have the best title claim at present, in Portland in the near future, but this is not certain.

Walter Cline Champion of Spring Tourney; 24 Coming From Oregon City is Word

Walter Cline was crowned Saturday as the champion for the spring season of the Salem Golf Club, when he defeated Bob Taylor 2 up in the final match of the spring handicap tournament championship flight. The match was exceedingly hard fought and both contestants turned in some brilliant shots.

Cline won the first hole of the match and from that point on, Taylor found himself continually striving to regain the lost ground. They halved most of the holes through the first nine and Taylor was still one down when it was finished.

Taylor lost the tenth but later made that up, and he was still one down when they reached the 18th, with a chance to tie the match up at the finish, but Cline won that hole.

Word from Oregon City Saturday was that the team coming today for a match with the Salem club would include only 24 men, instead of the 30 or more expected Friday. Play will start promptly at 9 o'clock this morning. The local club is planning to extend itself to equal the hospitality its team encountered at Oregon City several weeks ago. Several of the women members of the Oregon City club will be present.

The lineup of the Salem team, revised slightly since Friday, is expected to be: Taylor, Cline, Ritner, Woodmansee, Hendrie, Stacey, Victor, Lynch, Lengren, Nash, Day, Flannery, McGinley, Eyre, Skelley, Walker, Starr, V. Kuhn, Anunson, T. Kuhn, Merchant, Isom, Elzig and Kietzing.

Root and Hartnett; Haines, Vance, Johnson and Wilson. Cincinnati 3 9 1 Pittsburgh 4 9 0 Kolp and Lombardi; Swift and Grace.

Philadelphia 3 4 0 New York 5 9 2 Holley, Hanson, A. Moore and V. Davis; Fitzsimmons, Luque and Mancuso.

Boston 3 6 0 Brooklyn 3 6 0 Brandt, Betts and Hargrave; Bengt and Outen.

GOODMAN WINS NATIONAL OPEN

Slumps Near end, Guldhaf Almost Catches him but Misses Short Putts

By ALAN GOULD NORTH SHORE GOLF CLUB, Glenview, Ill., June 10.—(AP)—By the slim margin of a single stroke and a missed four-foot putt on the home green by his one close pursuer, Johnny Goodman, broiled, dapper little insurance salesman and 23-year-old amateur "giant killer" of Omaha, Neb., today climbed on top of the golfing world as the new open champion of the United States.

After a phenomenal outburst of shot-making skill that at one dazzling juncture threatened to explode all existing open championship records to bits, Goodman survived a dangerous slump with just enough of his previously lopsided margin to stave off the closing rush of Ralph Guldhaf, sensational 21-year-old professional of St. Louis.

Goodman finished the 72-hole championship struggle with rounds of 76-66-70-76 for a total of 287 that fell only one stroke short of the all-time record. Guldhaf, six strokes behind at the outset of the last 36 holes, rallied superbly to take second place with 76-71-70-71—288.

Guldhaf's dramatic closing challenge was the only thing that saved the tournament from being turned into a rout. He picked up seven strokes on six holes as he reached the last turn in 35. He needed another 35 to tie the Goodman but he missed a three-foot putt on the 15th to waste the first of his last big opportunities and he failed, finally, to get down a four-foot putt on the 18th green after a remarkable recovery from a trap.

It was a close call for the Nebraska "game cock", after he had all but shot the tournament to pieces by taking a six-hole lead and then opened fire on the last round with a 4-3-2, including an eagle and a birdie. But he pulled himself together after a six-hole debacle to shoot the closing nine within a single stroke of par. He proved he was as game as they come, under pressure.

Hurry Off Takes Belmont Stakes; Quoted 12 to 1

NEW YORK, June 10.—(AP)—With long, hungry strides fairly eating up the ground in a great stretch run, Joseph E. Widener's Hurry Off, a slim, bay son of Haste, today won the 65th Belmont stakes at Belmont park and further scrambled the three year old championship situation.

Hurry Off was so lightly regarded by the crowd of 15,000 that he was quoted at 12 to 1 to win the richest three year old purse of the year, which grossed $64,490 and gave the winner $49,490.

CURT COMMENTS

Do you think it's the right thing to do, Mr. Schmidt of the Grand theatre, to bring us three more days of "Rain" right on top of all we've been having?

We thought, with school sports all finished, that there would be a lull in the sport business. There is in midweek, when people are busy at their regular jobs, if any; but busy weekends make up for that.

Today, for instance, there's a double header starting at 1
