Back Fees Large — Delinquent salmon poundage fees in the amount of more than $8,000 are now due the state from packers and shippers, according to a recent audit of the books of the state fish commission. The amounts due from the various packers range from $1000 to $17,000. Several of the packers have gone out of business since they contracted the obligation while others are in the hands of receivers. Officials said it would not be possible to collect more than a small part of the amount due.

Still Seek Body — Grapplers were still at work yesterday in an effort to locate the body of Howard Herron, 21, of Gates, who was drowned while crossing the North Santiam river near Detroit a week ago. Herron was a member of the forest conservation corps. High water was said to have hindered grappling operations.

Allen Case Dismissed — A moral charge filed against Dave Allen and Melba Cheese in West Salem justice court last week was dismissed for lack of evidence yesterday when they were given a hearing in justice court at Dallas. The change of venue was made because of the absence of Judge Elmer D. Cook of West Salem.

Speeders Fined — Two outside motorists were fined $5 each in municipal court here yesterday when they pleaded guilty to speeding. They were Erwin Dohberfel of Oregon City and Ladd Sherman of Astoria. During the day city police arrested Theodore T. Higgins of Portland on a like charge, they reported.

Defense Made — Answer was filed in circuit court Monday by Defendant John D. Williams in a suit recently brought against him as administrator of the estate of the late A. L. Pearce by Sarah J. Staninger. Williams says the plaintiff's claims should be dismissed and contends a counterclaim of $320 for rent should be awarded the defendant.

BACK TAXES BEING PAID THIS MONTH

Law Remitting Interest is Taken Advantage of; Funding Plan Used

A considerable amount of back taxes is being paid into the sheriff's office here this month by delinquent taxpayers who are taking advantage of the opportunity created by the 1933 legislature which remitted all interest on taxes delinquent for the year 1930 and thereafter. The new law, effective June 9, provides that interest will be resumed July 1 and back taxpayers are seeking to clear up their obligations within this month.

In Marion county delinquent taxes date back to the 1926 roll, in 1926, may be spread out until June 30, 1933. The law does not apply to delinquent taxes where certificates of delinquency have been issued and sold to parties other than the county court. No adjustment can be made in these certificates since legislative adjustment would constitute an abrogation of the rights of contract.

MARY E. JEWELL ANSWERS SUMMONS

INDEPENDENCE, June 12.—Mary E. Jewell, 70, died at the family home here June 10. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., at the Keeney funeral home, with Rev. K. A. Nelson officiating. Burial will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

A. W. PRESCOTTS VISIT POLK FARM

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Prescott arrived in Salem late Sunday night by auto from Alabama, where Mr. Prescott is manager of a large fruit acreage owned principally by Jonathan Bourne of Oregon political fame and now a Washington resident.

The Prescotts will spend a few days at their orchard in Polk county and then motor to Seaside to visit relatives and friends.

The country is not entirely certain what direction the new administration is giving to our affairs but most people are willing to let experiments take place.

CHURCHES TO GIVE MISSION BENEFIT

The advisory council of the Open Door mission has arranged for a benefit program to be given Friday night, June 23. The following church choirs are assisting in the combined chorus of about 200 voices directed by Prof. Cameron Marshall of Willamette university:

First Methodist, First Christian, Calvary Baptist, German Baptist, Knight Memorial, First Evangelical, First Presbyterian, Christian and Missionary Alliance, Court Street Church of Christ, Free Methodist, Jason Lee M. E., Leslie M. E., Ford Memorial, Englewood United Brethren, Bethany Reformed, Temple Baptist, Church of God, Highland Friends, First Congregational, South Salem Friends and American Lutheran.

ELEPHANTS AWARE OF COMING QUAKE

Five minutes before the earthquake broke in Southern California early this year the elephants grew restless and started charging around, said Earl DeGropper, advance press man with the Al G. Barnes circus which shows here in two weeks, who visited Salem to get advertising under way for the show.

"Elephants seem to sense happenings in nature. They get nervous and excited before a storm breaks; and they did the same before this earthquake."

"Another thing about an elephant, he will not cross a shaky bridge or put his weight down on something that isn't solid and firm. He will test out a bridge with one foot before trusting it with his weight," said DeGropper.

The circus is showing now in Nevada. It has winter quarters at Baldwin Park near Los Angeles and the animals are used in the movie studios for animal pictures. The start was delayed this season

HISTORY OF SCENIC PLACES CALLED FOR

Local Citizens are Greatest Source of Expenditure At Coast, Mountains

Oregon's citizens themselves are the greatest source of recreational expenditures at the state's coast and mountain resorts, Ray Conway, manager of the Oregon State Motor association, told chamber of commerce members Monday noon. They spend more money on travel in the state and on equipment for their vacation retreats than do out-of-state tourists.

Conway urged citizens here to learn and to tell the stories behind the scenic attractions of Oregon. "People no longer are content alone to see a natural beauty spot; they want to know the story, the history behind the scene."

Recreation should not alone be considered as a business to bring money to merchants and auto dealers, but it should be valued principally for its values to the vacationist who profits in bodily and spiritual health, Conway declared.

He said the completion of the North Santiam highway would open a great wonderland of recreational opportunity to Salem people and to Portlanders who will make a loop trip into the Santiam country. Some through travel from California coming over the Weed to Klamath Falls road, will turn at Sisters and come into the valley over the North Santiam, Conway opined.

BUS DISCUSSIONS TO BE THIS WEEK

A series of 11 meetings is being held in as many Marion county school districts this week for the discussion of school bus transportation, which has become the main issue in non-high school districts for the June 19 election of five directors to the new non-high school district board of education. All persons of voting age who live in non-high school districts are being urged to attend these meetings, which will be as follows:

Middle Grove and Central Howell June 13, Hayesville June 14, Brooks June 15, Union June 16, Donald June 17. Meetings were held last night at Union Hill and Aurora.

Candidates favoring transportation are W. P. Collard, zone one; J. S. Coomler, zone two; Willis R. Dallas, zone three; C. V. Murray, zone four; F. A. Doerfler, zone five.

Debit Checks in Banks Here Gain During May 1933

Debit checks passing through the Salem banks for last month totaled $77,595 more than for the corresponding 31 days in 1931, according to the report made by the Babson statistical agency to the chamber of commerce.

The May, 1933, report was $9,484,305 and for May, 1932, the figure was $8,606,710.

The large job business which developed here this spring probably accounts for the increase, the chamber manager believes.

JOHNSON APPEARS DESPITE INJURIES

Three fractured ribs which he received in an auto mishap near Philomath Sunday noon did not prevent W. E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson from speaking at the First Methodist church here Sunday night and then continuing in his Oregon campaign against repeal of the 18th amendment. "I've been in a number of accidents in my life but none were fatal," he laughed.

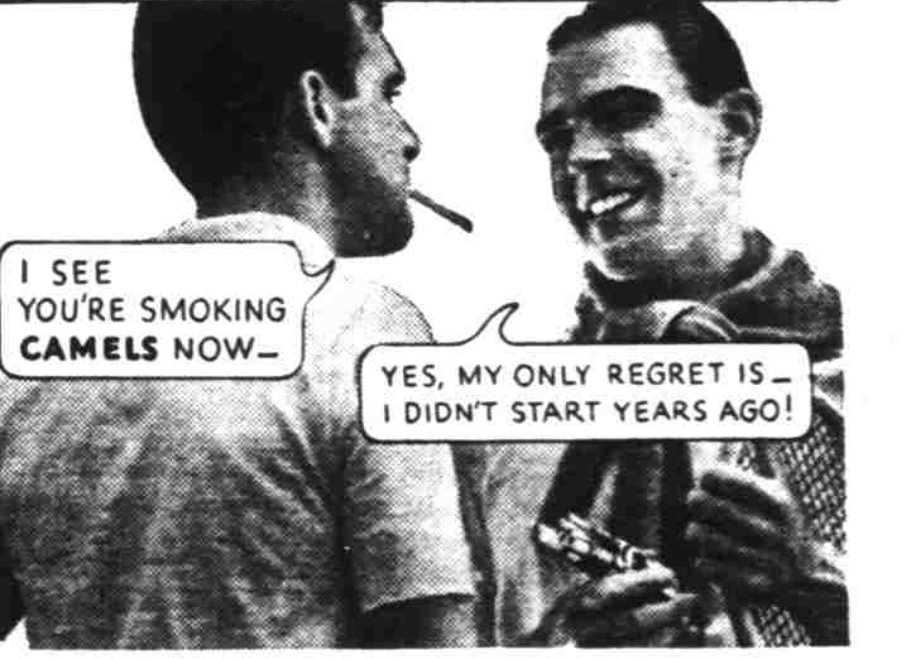

Johnson and Thomas W. Gales, anti-saloon worker from North Dakota, were both shaken up as was R. E. Close, driver of the car when it overturned on a gravelled road. Johnson is 71 years of age. A crowd heard him Sunday.

GOSSER ON TRIAL IN JUSTICE COURT

Trial for Gena Gosser, accused of assault and battery, and preliminary hearing for Loren Hall, charged with burglary, will come up in Judge Miller Hayden's justice court today.

Gosser pleaded not guilty yesterday to the assault, alleged to have been made upon Herbert Martin, and will stand trial at 1:30 o'clock today. He did not raise $50 bail.

Hall will come up for hearing at 10 o'clock this morning on alleged burglary of Peter Struve's chicken house. He is in jail, being unable to raise $50 bail.

LOW PRICE CARS VS. CHEAP CARS

We do not build a low-price car: the cost to us of building our car is pretty high. But we do sell a high quality car at a low price. Almost every new Ford V-8 car we have built so far this year, has cost more to manufacture than its selling price was. As you buy them at only $490 to $610, we have to depend on increasing volume to make up the difference. The reason for this is simple: — a manufacturer who gives good value must expect to lose money on the first cars he sells because he cannot charge all his costs to the people who are first to buy. But with the purchaser it is different — he cannot afford to lose anything on a car. It must give him full value from the first, and keep on giving him full value for years. Two things make possible our combination of low prices and high cost quality:

1. Volume Production
2. Taking only one profit

First, we set our price at what would be fair to the public on the basis of economies we enjoy in volume production. Then, in order to justify and maintain our low price we must get volume sales. Thus it comes that a car which is really high-cost to make, is also low-cost to buy. There is a difference between a cheap car and a low-priced high quality car. Ford prices are always fixed at a point which makes it profitable for a customer to buy. Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller. And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one. It pays you to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it.

Henry Ford
