Gus Sonnenberg to Wrestle Thye at Armory Here Tonight

EX-CHAMP SAID IMPROVED NOW

Better Grappler Than When Heavyweight King; has Learned All Tricks

It will be a "big night tonight" for the wrestling fans of Salem, when Gus Sonnenberg, estimated by no less an authority than L. H. Gregory to be a better wrestler than he was when he was world champion, makes his bow on the armory mat.

Gregory declares that Sonnenberg knows more of straight wrestling now and does not have to depend so much upon the headlong diving tactics which brought him to the pinnacle of the heavyweight division within a short time after he started wrestling. In those days he found it necessary to get in one good tackle quickly before the enemy did things to him, for he knew little about defense. Now, Gregory claims, he knows plenty.

Nevertheless, Sonnenberg is expected to display a few of the head butts which made him famous, when he tangles with Ted Thye here tonight. And since Thye is on the other hand, the past master of the shoulder butt, there should be a number of dull thuds in the vicinity of the armory, and nobody should become alarmed over what sounds and feels like an earthquake.

Tonight's show will also mark the debut here of Harry Kent, former Oregon State gridder who is endeavoring to follow in Sonnenberg's footsteps. He will meet Joe Reynolds of Salt Lake City. Jack King and Dutch Behnke will provide the curtain raiser.

First Baptists And Methodists Kitball Winners

The First Methodists defeated the Temple Baptists in a free-hitting contest on Sweetland field last night 15-14 in a church league kitball game, while First Baptist won from Court Street Christian in another close game, 2-1. The latter contest was featured by an enormous number of strikeouts credited to both pitchers.

Batteries for First Methodist, Zarley and Crawford; Temple Baptist, Cross and Chappel; First Baptist, Ross and Cross; Court Street Christian, Walker and Esch.

Tonight Presbyterian will play First Christian and Jason Lee will cross bats with American Lutheran.

TOWNIES RALLY IN 9TH TO WIN

State League Race Closer As Wolfers Beaten by Tail-end Albany

STATE LEAGUE

Sunday's Scores

At Salem 6, Eugene 8.
At Albany 3, Federals 2.
At Bend 3, Schapps 2.

The State league race tightened Sunday, with the tail enders of Albany pulling the leading Wolfer's Federals down into closer proximity to the rest of the league. And, although the Salem Senators lost their opportunity to tie for first place when somebody failed to cover first base in the ninth inning, still the biggest crowd that has attended a Sunday ball game here in years got its money's worth. The Eugene Townies, because of that error of emission, managed a four-run rally to win, 8 to 6.

The Townies lived up to their reputations as sluggers, and held an edge on the Senators in hitting throughout the game, but the Solons made better use of their blows, getting around the bases with great facility despite the strong throwing arm of Biship, Eugene catcher.

The game was nip-and-tuck all the way, with no big rallies until Gibson, Pemberton and Moye hit in rapid succession and Wilson sacrificed to complete a three-run splurge for Salem in the eighth. Salem's earlier runs had come when Oravec led off successfully in the third and fifth, and somebody drove him in each time; and on Gribble's triple and Pemberton's squeeze bunt in the fourth.

Eugene got only one run out of four hits in the third, and two on two hits, a hit batsman and a sacrifice in the fifth. A dropped third strike, two outfield flies and an error let Green score in the seventh after he struck out.

Going into the ninth two runs behind, Eugene picked Orr for a pinch hitter and he came through, Gould took his place and stole second. The next two men went out, then Londahl doubled, scoring Gould. Van Duyn rolled one between Manning and Keber; either could have taken it but Manning did, and nobody covered first for what would have been the final putout. Russell doubled and Bishop tripled to bring in two more runs.

Van Duyn and Bishop had a big day at bat, getting nine blows between them. Salem's hits were better separated, everybody socking the apple excepting Wilson.

COUNTY JUNIOR RACE DEADLOCK

Salem Trounces Stayton by 13-1; Silverton Upsets Woodburn, Wins 4-2

LEGION JUNIOR LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pct.
Salem	2	1	.667
Woodburn	2	1	.667
Silverton	2	1	.667
Stayton	0	3	.000

The Salem Juniors' impressive 13 to 1 victory over Stayton and Silverton's upset victory over Woodburn, 4 to 2, Sunday transformed the county American Legion Junion race from an apparent Woodburn walkaway to a deadlock.

The Stayton boys may have been overly-impressed at the thought of going up against a Salem team, for they kicked everything away until Salem had scored seven runs, in the second inning. Nobody but the pitcher had gotten anybody out up to that juncture. None of the eight runs Salem scored in the first two innings were earned.

From then on Don Champ's supporting cast fielded all but perfectly; but Champ was worn out from the struggle and he gave up after walking in a run in the third. Foster, a southpaw, took up the burden and held Salem to one hit until the eighth, though he was wild and a run was scored on three wild pitches, one of which hit Nicholson and the other two enabled him to circle the bases, with the help of one fielder's choice.

In the eighth a hit and three successive walks caused Foster to yield the mound to Breitenstein, and a hit followed giving Salem three more runs in that inning.

Steinke was the slugger of the day for Salem, getting three blows, Salstrom, Nicholson, Miller, Humphrey and Aker also figured in the hit gathering.

Gatchell held Stayton to five hits, and two of them in the sixth including Gentry's two-bagger, resulted in Stayton's lone score. The visitors also got two in the first, but neat fielding kept them from counting. Nicholson had a busy day in center field, and Miller at third was particularly outstanding.

SILVERTON, June 12 — In one of the best American Legion Junior ball games ever played here, Silverton defeated Woodburn Sunday, 4 to 2. Arland Schwab held the visitors to four hits, and they nicked the plate only in the first and third innings. After they were all through, Silverton got under way and scored one in the fourth, went ahead with two in the fifth and got another in the eighth, the last one being scored without benefit of bingles.

Schwab's pitching was such that fans here contended he would surpass his brother's record. Woodburn loaded the bases in the fourth with one out, but Schwab stopped them there.

Pade's Grocers Take Opener of Kitball Playoff

Pade's Grocery won the first game of the Salem Kitball league championship playoff Monday night on Olinger field, defeating Salem Linen Mills 7 to 2. Steinbock, Pade's pitcher, held Salem Linen to five hits and led his team in hitting with a pair of triples. Barrick also got two hits. Foreman got two of the line weavers' blows. The biggest crowd of the season, approximately 300 persons, attended. Tonight at 6:45 Western Paper and the Teachers will play.

Salem Linen	2	5	1

Steinbock and Pade; Serdotz and Bachelor.

CURT COMMENTS

The Senators played some neat ball again Sunday, but need a few more signals to point out who is going to handle the ball when there is a question. Three ball-ups of that kind occurred. They made much better use of their hits than did the Townies. "Squeak" Wilson managed to get by but he really wasn't right. Oh well, a couple of other good teams got bumped Sunday and the race is still young.

Bobby Jones told us a lot about the backswing and the proper stance Sunday, and while you could sum it all up pretty well in the instruction "be relaxed and natural", still there were a number of pointers aimed to make those things possible.

WILL LIST PLAYERS IN JONES TOURNEY
