

Silverton Juniors Beat Salem, Grab County Race Lead

HITS EVEN BUT SCORE IS 10-2

Salem Catcher's Injury is Factor; Locals Play at Stayton on Sunday

Silverton's surprising American Legion Juniors turned the tables on the Salem Juniors at Silverton Wednesday, winning 10 to 2 to take the lead in the county league. Coomler of Silverton and Gatehell, Salem pitcher, allowed the same number of hits, but nearly all of the Silverton batters who got on bases, got all the way around.

One of the chief factors in Salem's downfall, aside from inability to make its hits count was difficulty in the catching department. Aker, injured in the game with Stayton Sunday, essayed to perform his usual duties but found he could scarcely lift his left arm. Gwyn, totally inexperienced behind the bat, took over the job and though he showed considerable promise, wasn't able to learn all of the business in one attempt.

Due at least partly to the lack of a capable catcher, Gatehell lacked his usual control, wild pitching a number of times though he walked only four batters.

Claggett and Steinke led the Salem team in hitting with two apiece. Coomler, in addition to pitching effectively, led the Silverton boys with three blows. The county race will be all but decided Sunday when Silverton plays at Woodburn. If Silverton wins there, it is "in" but if Silverton loses and Salem vanquishes Stayton again, Salem will have the opportunity at Woodburn next Wednesday to tie the race up at the finish.

The score:

	AB.	R.	H.
Salem	33	2	8
Humphrey, rf.	4	0	0
Salstrom, ss.	4	1	1
Nicholson, rf.	4	1	1
Etzel, 1b.	4	0	1
Claggett, 1b.	4	0	2
Miller, 3b.	4	0	0
Steinke, 2b.	4	0	2
Akers, c.	1	0	0
Gatehell, p.	2	0	0
Penny, p.	0	0	0

	AB.	R.	H.
Gwyn, c.	1	0	0
Delaney, p.	1	0	0
Totals	33	2	8
Silverton	33	10	2
Marsen, ss.	4	0	0
Haney, 3b.	4	0	0
Schwab, 2b.	3	1	0
Slyter, cf.	3	2	1
Earland, rf.	4	1	0
Specht, 1b.	4	2	2
Wiesner, lf.	4	1	1
Riggs, c.	4	1	1
Coomler, p.	4	2	3
Totals	34	10	8

ROOT ALLOWS REDS ONLY TWO BLOWS

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	31	18	.633
St. Louis	29	23	.558
Pittsburgh	29	27	.518
Chicago	27	27	.500
Cincinnati	22	31	.415
Boston	21	28	.429
Brooklyn	21	28	.429
Philadelphia	19	35	.352

CINCINNATI, June 14.—(AP)—Charley Root resumed his old mastery over Cincinnati today, holding them to two scattered singles and the Cubs won, 7 to 0. Chicago, Cincinnati's opponent, lost, 5 to 1. Root and Hartnett; Johnson, Kolp and Hemsley.

Pittsburgh ..... 2 10 0
St. Louis ..... 3 7 0
Meine, French and Grace, Finney; Hallahan and Wilson.

Boston ..... 5 3 1
New York ..... 8 9 0
Frankhouse, Cantwell and Spohrer; Parmelee, Bell, Luque and Mancuso.

Brooklyn ..... 6 11 0
Philadelphia ..... 3 8 3
Benge and Lopez; Elliott, Collins, Liska and Davis.

PENA BEATS MILLIN

CHICAGO, June 14.—(AP)—In the first 15 round boxing contest fought in Chicago in 39 years, Johnny Pena, rugged little Italian featherweight of New York, won the decision over Varies Millin, Los Angeles Filipino at Mills stadium, an outdoor arena tonight.

DUCK RALLY IN NINTH IS SHORT

Angels Have big Inning at Gibson's Expense; Art Jacobs Does Well

	W.	L.	Pct.
Sacramento	41	30	.577
Hollywood	39	30	.565
Portland	38	31	.551
Los Angeles	37	32	.536
Mission	38	34	.528
Oakland	32	36	.471
Seattle	26	40	.394
San Francisco	26	44	.371

LOS ANGELES, June 14.—(AP)—Portland's ninth inning rally fell short by two runs of its goal and Los Angeles took the second game of the current series from the Beavers here today 8 to 7 although three hurlers were required to stem the tide.

A big fourth inning, which saw Sam Gibson retire under duress after he had allowed three previous runs, gave the Angels four of their tallies. The other came in the fifth but Art Jacobs silenced the Los Angeles guns effectively thereafter.

Wynn Ballou received credit for the triumph, although he gave way to Buck Newsom in the eighth. Buck got into plenty of trouble in the ninth. After an auspicious start when Jacobs hit into a double play, Newsom allowed four straight hits including Mulligan's double and topped it off with a walk. Two runs were across and the tying and winning runs were on the bases.

Portland ..... 7 14 2
Los Angeles ..... 8 12 2
Gibson, Jacobs and Palmisano; Ballou, Newsom, Nelson and McMullen.

Hollywood ..... 8 12 2
Oakland ..... 11 15 4
Sheehan, Wetzel, Pake and Tobin; Gabler, Fieber, Salinsen and Raimond.

SEATTLE 7 12 1

San Francisco ..... 5 11 0
Radonitz, Caster and Cox; Davis, Stutz and McIsaac.

Missions ..... 2 6 4
Sacramento ..... 11 15 0
Phebus and Fitzpatrick; Vinci and Wirts.

CURT COMMENTS

It is queer—or is it, after all?—that when the suggestion was made a week or so ago to move the state basketball tournament away from Salem, not one newspaper in the state said it was a good idea, unless we miss some of them.

A big fourth inning, which saw Sam Gibson retire under duress after he had allowed three previous runs, gave the Angels four of their tallies. The other came in the fifth but Art Jacobs silenced the Los Angeles guns effectively thereafter.

Wynn Ballou received credit for the triumph, although he gave way to Buck Newsom in the eighth. Buck got into plenty of trouble in the ninth. After an auspicious start when Jacobs hit into a double play, Newsom allowed four straight hits including Mulligan's double and topped it off with a walk. Two runs were across and the tying and winning runs were on the bases.

Portland ..... 7 14 2
Los Angeles ..... 8 12 2
Gibson, Jacobs and Palmisano; Ballou, Newsom, Nelson and McMullen.

Hollywood ..... 8 12 2
Oakland ..... 11 15 4
Sheehan, Wetzel, Pake and Tobin; Gabler, Fieber, Salinsen and Raimond.

Seattle ..... 7 12 1
San Francisco ..... 5 11 0
Radonitz, Caster and Cox; Davis, Stutz and McIsaac.

SEATTLE 7 12 1

San Francisco ..... 5 11 0
Radonitz, Caster and Cox; Davis, Stutz and McIsaac.

Missions ..... 2 6 4
Sacramento ..... 11 15 0
Phebus and Fitzpatrick; Vinci and Wirts.

Down in Eugene there's a controversy raging about who should be recorded as the winning pitcher in the Townies' game with the Senators here Sunday. Wiltshire was retired for a pinch hitter in the ninth, with Eugene behind, before Inman took the mound in the last half, Eugene was ahead. Highclimber facetiously opines that Cotter Gould was the winning pitcher, because he ran for the pinch hitter who took Wiltshire's place in the batting order, and therefore was the "official" pitcher when the winning run was scored.

You may be surprised, but the rulebook doesn't give the answer. In fact, there isn't any rule in the book to cover the question of winning and losing pitchers, which explains why the American and National leagues figure it out differently.

Elks to Play Grand Ronde Here Sunday

The first Mid-Willamette Valley Baseball association game to be played in Salem this season, is scheduled for next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. when the Salem Elks will meet the strong Grand Ronde team on Olinger field.

Grand Ronde nosed out a victory over the Elks in a tight game at Grand Ronde recently, but the Elks will be strengthened Sunday by the addition of Denny Heenan, recently returned from the middle west where he has been coaching, and Loren Kitchen who has finished the school year at Oregon Normal. The Elks' pitcher is Zorn, former coast league hurler.

A fast brand of ball is played in the Mid-Willamette league and the Grand Ronde team is considered one of the strongest in the circuit. In the Yamhill county division in which these teams are enrolled, they are involved in a tight race with Dayton and Amity.

WOODBURN 9 DROPS GAME; GOLFERS WIN

WOODBURN, June 14.—The Woodburn team of the Portland Valley league, lost its second successive game Sunday to the Bradford Buckaroos of Portland, by a score of 4 to 0. Woodburn made no runs, four hits and one error. The Buckaroos had four runs, 10 hits and three errors.

The Woodburn team will play at Sherwood early in the season. Batteries: Woodburn, Beck and Batcher; Buckaroos, Hewitt and Carlson. Umpire, Gardner.

The Woodburn golfers won a victory over McMinnville Sunday on the Woodburn course, by a score of 3 to 1. This is the second home and home game played this season. Woodburn lost to McMinnville last week by a score of 35 to 25. The next game for Woodburn will be with Silverton there, June 25.

THREE IN ROW ARE DROPPED BY YANKS

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	33	19	.635
Washington	32	22	.593
Chicago	29	25	.537
Philadelphia	26	23	.531
Cleveland	29	26	.527
Detroit	26	28	.481
St. Louis	20	36	.357
Boston	18	34	.346

AMERICAN LEAGUE

BOSTON, June 14.—(AP)—The Yankees lost to the Red Sox again today, 13 to 5. It was the third defeat in a row for the Yankees and their sixth in eight games since leaving New York. New York ..... 5 12 4

Boston ..... 13 15 2
Gomes, Brown, Penneck, Moore and Dickey; Piperas, Kline, Andrews and Ferrell.

Cleveland ..... 2 8 2
Detroit ..... 13 14 1
Brown, Hudlin, Bean and Pytlak, Myatt; Marberry and Hayworth.

St. Louis ..... 14 15 0
Chicago ..... 1 4 5
Hadley and Shea; Gregory, Heving, Miller, Kimsey and Grube.

For riding on his wife's commutation ticket between Norbiton and London, while she had influenza, Guy Temple-Walker had to pay $35 in Kingston police court.

Keber Leads Senators in Base Knocks

	AB.	R.	H.	Pct.
Keber	16	6	375
Manning	14	5	357
Gribble	14	5	357
Seales	17	6	353
Colgan	3	1	323
Moye	11	3	273
Oravec	15	3	200
Wilson	11	2	182
Pemberton	11	2	182
Gibson	17	3	176
Mason	4	0	000

Paul Keber, the only player to hit in all four state league games, is leading the Salem Senators in batting averages.

A pulled tendon in his leg slowed Keber's fielding last Sunday, but he blasted out a pair of singles to boost his batting average to .375. The team average was boosted Sunday from .238 to .252.

Manning and Moye have both hit in the last three games. They were not with the team in its first start. Gribble and Oravec each got two hits Sunday to improve their averages. Oravec continued to set the pace for base pilfering. Seales has hit in the last three games.

The averages:

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

After a lapse of 50 years the people of Kaw, England, revived this year the custom of beating the bounds, in which officials solemnly march along the boundaries of the city.

The Perennial Phantom

By BURNLEY

ON January 16, 1932, the day after Tommy Loughran had been knocked out in two rounds by Steve Hamas, a New York newspaper printed a picture showing Loughran stretched out on the canvas after the final knockdown. Underneath this picture was a caption which spoke of the sensational rise of young Hamas and concluded with a brief tribute to the veteran Loughran.

"This knockout brought to a close the career of the leading master boxer of modern ring history"—that's what the caption said, speaking of Loughran, of course.

Well, now it's June, 1933, and when do we find clamoring for a shot at the leading heavyweight contenders but the same Mister Loughran, whose fist career had been officially brought to a close by the Hamas kayo!

The Philly Phantom has haunted the heavyweight contenders for some years now, and there doesn't seem to be anything the boys can do about it. After Sharkey put him to sleep back in 1929 the fight experts all wrote him off as a loser. Meeting Steve for the third time, Loughran demonstrated that he had come back by jabbing his former conqueror into defeat after ten rounds of hard fighting.

This year has found the Philly boxing master flashing all his old time skill, to the discomfort of the gang who said he was all washed up back in 1932.

Tommy took on another of his former conquerors, King Levinsky, and handed him a masterly drubbing in ten heats.

Then he took on the terrific punching Isidore Gastanaga in a Chicago ring. Nobody else would fight Gastanaga—they said he punched too hard. When Loughran signed for the fight, they said he would get his brains knocked out.

Instead, Loughran flashed one of the best fights of his long career, to hand the Spaniard a terrific lacing. Some of those who saw that fight were of the opinion that Loughran could have whipped any heavyweight in the world that night.

Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

AL. G. BARNES GIGANTIC 5-RING CIRCUS

Shows at

SALEM, OREGON Sat., June 24

Every boy and girl under 16 years of age can go. Simply get one friend to subscribe for The Oregon Statesman, have the order below signed, mail or bring the blank to the office of The Statesman and you will be given a ticket admitting you to the Big Show, Side Show and the Wild West Show. If you don't live in Salem mail the order and as soon as it has been verified your ticket will be mailed.

All Orders Must be Verified. Verification Takes Two Days
Tickets Will be Good at Any Town Where the Circus Plays

HURRY — Send Your Orders In At ONCE
Tickets Now Being Distributed

HAVE THE BLANK BELOW SIGNED AND BRING OR MAIL TO THE CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT OF

The Oregon Statesman

ALL MAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE PAID IN ADVANCE

I Want To Go To The Circus — Your Subscription Will Take Me

Subscription Order
Three-Months' Contract

I have not been a subscriber to The Oregon Statesman for the past 30 days, but hereby subscribe for a period of three months, for which I agree to pay your collector the regular rate of 45c per month. (Three-Mo.-By-Mail $1.25 in Advance)

Name ..... Date .....

Street Address ..... Phone No. ....

Order Taken By ..... Phone No. ....

Street Address ..... Phone No. ....

NOTE:—A new subscriber is one to whom The Statesman has not been furnished for 30 days past. A change of name at the same address is not a new subscription. A renewal is not a new subscription.

It's Easy

Get Busy

Take or mail this order to The Statesman office promptly and get your ticket. Good only for boys or girls under 16.

The Ticket is Good for Admission to All These Shows: The Big Show, The Side Show, The Wild West Show. Tickets Good for Any Performance