Beall Returns — Hayes Beall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beall of Salem, returned Monday from Yale Divinity school which he has been attending for the past year and almost immediately left for the northwest students conference at Seabeck, Wash. Beall graduated from Willamette university last spring and received a scholarship to the New Haven School. He reported a good year at school and plans to return next year. He was elected president of the National student council at the meeting at Columbus, O., last winter, and thereby became the first student from the western states to hold that office.

Picnic at Hazel Green Park 5c. — Skiff Replies — Mark S. Skiff, who seeks to be appointed guardian of the estate of his mother, Mary L. Skiff of Los Angeles, yesterday filed a denial of the charges made against him by other members of his family in statements filed in probate court here Thursday. He claims some of the statements are malicious and contends that the estate of his mother is fully protected as are her heirs, by a bond he must give when he is appointed guardian. He renews his application to the court for the appointment of himself as guardian.

CASE FOR O-C FUND CARRIED TO CAPITAL

Benton and Douglas County Officials to go East; Local Stake $7000

Commissioner James E. Smith reported here yesterday after a conference with other county officials held in Corvallis, that Victor P. Moses, judge in Benton county, and Guy Cordon, Douglas county district attorney, have been authorized to go to Washington in an effort to see that Oregon and California land grant refunds are continued by the federal government to the 18 counties now receiving them.

J. R. McCarl, United States comptroller, has ruled that hereafter moneys paid to the counties must come from sales of timber from the government's Oregon and California lands. The county officials here disagree with the interpretation and will seek to have McCarl change it. The specific paragraph of the law in controversy reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the treasurer of the United States upon order of the secretary of the interior, shall pay to the several counties in the states of Oregon and Washington out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, amounts of money equal to the taxes that would have accrued against said lands for the years 1916 to 1926 inclusive, if the lands had remained privately owned and taxable."

Marion county's annual stake in the refunded moneys is nearly $7000, the sum going into annual budget as miscellaneous receipts for the general fund.

SOLOISTS INVITED TO PIONEER PICNIC

Three Salem soloists, Mrs. Harry Harms, Rev. Earl Cochran and Wendell Robson, have been invited to appear on the Pioneer's day program at the annual Pioneer picnic, which opens in Brownsville next Thursday and continues three days. Pioneer day will be observed Friday, when the big parade of the celebration will be staged.

Thursday will be recognized as community day, when small towns in Linn county are expected to send large delegations. Friday, the afternoon speaker will be Bert E. Haney of Portland, and in the evening Dr. William Schoenfeld of Oregon State college.

Saturday has been designated as Albany day, and will be featured by a sales tax debate between Ray Gill, state grange master, and T. D. Potwin, Albany editor.

Hood River Will Assist in Plans Of Chemeketans

Learning that the Salem Chemeketans would take their annual outing at Lost Lake in the Mt. Hood country, the Hood River chamber of commerce is appointing a special committee to make the trip to the lake an enjoyable one for the Salem people. Word to this effect was received by W. M. Hamilton of the outing committee. Hamilton plans to make a scouting trip to the lake June 25, as reports indicate that road conditions in the forest will permit travel close to the lake by that time.

Vesper Services — Rev. Dean Vermillion, assistant pastor, will speak at the Sunday 3:30 o'clock vesper services at the First Evangelical church, Summer and Marion streets. Special music will be given by Linden Launer, Albany soloist. The topic and discussion will be "How Can We Improve Our Time?"

Camp Number is 931 — The number of the civil conservation corps camp in Ochoco forest, at which Marion county boys are stationed, is No. 931 instead of 231, as first announced here. The address is "C. C. C. Camp Maury, Co. 931, Post, Oregon."

Blinkhorn at Olympia — J. E. Blinkhorn, Marion county dairy and food inspector, went to Olympia, Wash., yesterday to attend a conference of northwest milk inspectors, which will run through today. He is expected to return home late tonight.

Estate Filed — The estate of the late Ernest C. Hill was admitted to probate here yesterday. It has an estimated value of $2000. There are seven heirs. Christina M. Hill is to be executrix.

City Engineer III — Hugh Rogers, city engineer, is confined to his home with a severe cold. His illness forced him to leave his office Thursday. He was reported feeling better yesterday.

Fire Car Painted — The little coupe driven by Fire Chief Harry Hutton blossomed out yesterday in a new coat of red paint.

HERE WITH BARNES CIRCUS SOON

MISS CATHERINE LOYAL

Colorful Scenes Feature Of Barnes Circus Coming Here on Saturday, June 24

The circus! Lions, tigers, clowns, acrobats, peanuts, popcorn, and horses, horses, horses.

The Al G. Barnes show, one of the world's largest circuses, will exhibit in Salem on Saturday, June 24.

Transported aboard three special trains with employes numbering 1,080 people, in addition to 108 advance men, an official of the circus here today furnished some statistics. Hundreds of draft horses are carried; innumerable head of ring stock; a menagerie of wild animals will be seen. Twenty-two tents covering 12 acres of ground are used to house the transient city. There are 200 performers, representing 13 foreign countries. Sixty riders headed by the Repenski family and the Loyal troupe will be seen along with Al G. Barnes' 40 dancing horses and 40 dancing girls. The Blondin-Reilms-troupe of aerialists, who perform high up in the dome of the "big top" will thrill and amaze in acrobatic work. Sixty acrobats and 60 clowns will also be a part of the super program.

For more than a quarter of a century the Al G. Barnes circus has excelled with its trained wild animals. More than a score of international wild animal trainers will be seen. Foremost among them will be seen Mabel Stark, who has returned to America after fresh foreign triumphs. For this season she is presenting a group of 17 Royal Bengal tigers in a display of courage, daring and patience.

"The Pageant of Gold," a gorgeous professional fiesta with the charm and romance of old Spain, a glorious fairyland spectacle of pantomime enchantment, will open the circus performance as a prelude. Superb beyond belief, indescribable, a triumph among colossal productions, it is today sweeping all before it with its powerful appeal and the very vastness of its character. It is the crowning spectacle in the long, eventful career of Al G. Barnes. One thousand men and women, horses and animals participate in the stupendous spectacle.

FOG FLYING MENACE IS BEING OVERCOME

Developments in aviation, going as far as the robot-controlled machine guided from the ground from airport to airport, were informally discussed before the Salem Ad club Friday noon by Lee Eyerly, manager of the airport here.

Eyerly said the progress of aviation had been remarkable in recent years. The use of the radio beam by which fliers direct their course when vision is obscured was termed by Eyerly as a vast aid to the industry's progress. Even fog, which is the greatest hazard, is gradually being overcome by improvements in landing signals at airports.

Eyerly described the types of planes being built for commercial use and said they were faster, more comfortable and quieter than any used heretofore.

In conclusion he told informally of his thrilling landing in San Francisco bay, when with three passengers, he made a safe landing on water after being caught in a fog over the landing fields and when his motor failed when he took off up the Sacramento valley for a practice landing.

North Howell to Be Host, Pomona Grange of County

North Howell grange will be hosts to the Marion county Pomona grange Wednesday, June 21. The regular business meeting will start at 10 o'clock, with L. S. Lambert, master, in the chair. Lunch will be served in the grove at noon.

RED CROSS AID TO COUNTY IS $14,363

In Return, $640.50 is Sent To Coast Headquarters, Rossman Reports

Judge George Rossman, chairman of the Marion county chapter of the Red Cross, has received from the western headquarters at San Francisco a report of the amount of aid which has been extended to Marion county through the Red Cross. The Red Cross was the distributing agency for the government flour and cotton goods, and Marion county received these allotments at wholesale values:

1,490 lbs. flour at $3.50	$ 5,215.00
44,308 yds. cloth at $0.65	2,880.02
894 doz. garments at $2.789	2,493.37
186 doz. sweaters at $4.705	875.13
549 blankets at $8.37 each	451.98
180 com. footers at $9.46 each	170.28
Total	$13,785.78

The handling cost was only one percent or about $137 which is properly chargeable to Marion county's share of Red Cross aid.

Then the national Red Cross is making direct grants of $440 to this chapter to help meet the expense of keeping the chapter office open, so the grand total of aid received through and from the American Red Cross is $14,363.63. In return this chapter sent to headquarters $640.50 which is half of the receipts from the annual roll call.

In addition, of course, the national organization has continued its disaster relief, meeting emergencies in 147 counties in 24 states since the first of last March. In the southern California earthquake disaster the Red Cross contributed $100,000 of its own funds, which is more than 50 percent of all memberships received from the Pacific branch during the last roll call.

Merchants Asked To Display Flag For Encampment

Cooperation of Salem merchants in display of street flags and other patriotic decoration during the annual state convention June 20-22 of the Grand Army of the Republic and affiliated bodies is urged by Guy R. Stover, chairman of the general committee of the G. A. R.

Mr. Stover is sending letters to merchants, making this request. Such courtesy will be a special favor to the Grand Army members, and will help to make more memorial what probably will be the last G. A. R. convention held in this city.

Dr. E. B. Burgess To Preach Here, Lutheran Church

Dr. Ellis B. Burgess, D.D., of Cranston, Pa., has been appointed by the United Lutheran church of America to make close study of actual conditions and problems confronting missions in the Pacific coast states covered by the California and Pacific synods. Dr. Burgess made a record for himself in the survey of existing conditions in the New York synod in 1932.

OFFICERS OUTLINE NEW CREDIT SETUP

Delano, Wilkinson Receive Loan Applications; 3 Classes Listed

The setup for loans under the new government credit systems is being announced. F. G. Delano, secretary of the Horticultural National Farm Loan association, and F. A. Wilkinson, secretary of the Marion county N. F. L. A., have received instructions and are receiving applications under the new loan act.

There are three classes of loans: The regular first mortgage farm loans such as the federal land bank has always made; second, loans up to $5000 based on first or second mortgage on land and on chattels if required to make sufficient the security; third, loans on homes.

The machinery for the third class, loans on homes, has not been announced, but is handled through a different organization, the home loan bank, and not the federal land bank. Loans on small tracts of five acres or so come under this class and not under the farm loan class.

Zorn's Shepherd Dog is Killed By Automobile

A valuable shepherd stock dog belonging to Henry Zorn of Camptoe was killed recently. Someone apparently deliberately killed the dog as tracks showed the car was driven out of the main roadway opposite Mr. Zorn's granary, where the dog was found. Recently Earl Burnham lost a dog in a similar manner.
