Salem Women Will Summer Travel In Orient

Mrs. Cecilia Mielke who is president of the Salem Teachers' association, in company with her two sisters, the Misses Isobel and Helen Mielke, will sail from Seattle June 24, on board the S. S. President Jefferson, bound for the Orient.

They will join the Dragonland cruise and the tour personally conducted by Prof. Henry Landes of the University of Washington, who is a seasoned travel leader. This cruise group will touch all the major oriental highlights in Japan, China and the Philippines, including Peking and the Great Wall of China. Sightseeing will be by rickshaw and sedan chairs as well as by private automobile and train.

The Misses Mielke do not plan to return to their duties until September 1. Miss Cecilia to her position in the Highland school, Miss Isobel to that of assistant cataloger in the state library and Miss Helen to her school position in Coos county.

A number of dinners, picnics, and affairs have been given in their honor, chief of which was the bon voyage party with which Miss Lola Schultz complimented them at her home on Marion street Thursday evening.

The ocean voyage idea with lights and ornamental ships made the rooms attractive. Three tables of auction bridge were in play during the evening, gifts for high scores going to Mrs. Don Smith and Miss Isobel Mielke.

A handkerchief shower feted the cruisers.

Besides the honor guests, Misses Cecilia, Helen and Isobel Mielke, those bidden for the affair were the Misses Agnes Emmel, Edith Starrett, Evelyn Rutherford, Clara Mielke and Mrs. Clay Eckelston, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Ralph Eggstad, Mrs. Myrtle Fritz and the hostess, Miss Lola Schultz.

Reception Planned For Ministers

An attractive reception is being planned for tonight at the Evangelical church complimenting Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Petticoat and family and the associate pastor, Rev. D. Vermillion and Mrs. Vermillion and members who have been received into the church this past year.

The reception hours open at 8 o'clock and all members of the church and friends are invited to call. An informal program will be part of the evening plans.

Mrs. J. W. McCune, Mrs. J. Schindler, Mrs. H. D. Emerick, Mrs. W. W. Corey and Mrs. C. C. Harris will be hostesses for the tea which is being given by the women of the Knight Memorial church at the church Wednesday afternoon.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
It hasn't a jacket, but wouldn't you wear it had? Attribute that to the unusually clever seaming of the bodice and the skillful use of contrast. Your heart will be won by the youthful details... the engaging tie, adorable collar and perky puffed sleeves! Cotton prints fit into the picture perfectly and cost so little that you'll be tempted to make a second frock in another pretty combination.

Pattern 2573 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (not preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new summer edition of the Anne Adams Pattern book is ready. Address all mail orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th street, New York City.

Alumnae Groups Elect Officers

The weekend was a meeting time for alumnae groups of Willamette university organizations. And at this time business of the meetings included the election of officers to serve for the coming year.

Daleth Teth Gimmel elected Miss Beulah Graham president and Miss Hazel Snyder secretary. This took place at the buffet supper at the home of Miss Sarah Dark Sunday evening.

Miss Elaine Clower of Silverton will serve Alpha Phi Alpha alumnae as president for the coming year and Miss Helen Brethaupt as secretary. Mrs. Wilmer Wells will act as advisor.

Miss Elaine Oberg of Portland will act as president for Beta Chi alumnae organization; vice president, Miss Lola Millard; Phoebe Smith, Redding, secretary-treasurer; Miss Elma Neil, assistant treasurer; Miss Eloise White, contact secretary.

Delta Phi alumnae club elected Mrs. Sadie Jo Reed Douglas, president; Miss Beatrice Hartung, vice president; and Virginia Edwards, secretary treasurer.

Wright-Danforth Nuptials Plighted

Miss Eleanor Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright became the bride of Willis Danforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Danforth of Bend Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Dr. Grover C. Birtchett read the service.

There were no attendants for the quietly solemnized garden wedding. The bride wore an afternoon gown of white crepe and accessories and flowers were in white. She was given in marriage by her father.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Danforth have been attending Oregon State college where Mrs. Danforth is a junior and member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and Mr. Danforth is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Danforth will make their home in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McMinnim were in Salem this weekend attending the graduation exercises of Willamette university. Their daughter, Miss Esther McMinnim, was one of the graduating class. Mr. and Mrs. McMinnim were motored from their Washington home last week to spend a few days at Oceanside and then en route from there stopped at Tillamook for a visit with their son, Warren McMinnim, an attorney there. He also was a visitor in Salem over the weekend.

Mrs. C. A. Lytle will be hostess to members of the writers' section of the Salem Arts league at her home on River road this evening. A 6:30 o'clock picnic supper in the pretty gardens of the Lytle home will precede an evening of program and social time. Mrs. Jessie Singleton is leader of the group.

Mrs. J. W. Nash will have as her house guests for the three days of the state convention of the G. A. R., Mrs. Ethel Andrews, Mrs. Mabel Christoferson and Mrs. Hazel Miller, all of Astoria, and Mrs. Ruth Wicks of Albany. Mrs. Wicks and Mrs. Nash are sisters.

Prevention Is Better Than Cure

An opiate will dull periodic pain. But isn't better to prevent the pain? Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets three or four days before the expected discomfort and notice the difference. If you are a stubborn case, you may need to take these tablets regularly for a few months. Persistent use brings permanent relief. Clinical tests prove it.

No narcotics. No dizziness. No unpleasant after effects. Just little chocolate coated tablets that bring results. New size package—50¢ at all druggists.

Garden Wedding is Pretty College Affair

Sunday afternoon in the picturesque gardens of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority home a colorful wedding was solemnized when Miss Leola Johnson, became the bride of Donald E. Faber of Ashland. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Dr. Grover C. Birtchett.

The bridal party took its place to the strains of the wedding march of Lohengrin. Dr. Birtchett entered the garden followed by the groom attended by his brother, Everett Faber, and together they waited at the altar which was a bower of blossoming roses. An arch of ribbons and flowers at one side of the garden served as an entrance for the bride and her attendants.

Sorority sisters of the bride entered the garden through the arch and made a ribbon aisle through which the bridal party passed.

Miss Eleanor Yarnes, bridesmaid, entered first. She wore a gown of Alice blue distinctive with long flounces and a ruffled sleeve and neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses, delphinium and sweet peas. She was followed by Donnie and Patsy Faber, as ring bearer and flower girl.

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Barkley A. Newman, following the ring bearer and flower girl. She wore a gown of peach colored organdie smartly adorned with bits of pastel embroidery. She carried a cascade shower arm bouquet of Talisman roses and old ivory sweet peas. She wore a hat formed by two crossed bands of natural flowers and these held in place a brim of peach colored maline.

Proceeding the wedding march Linden R. Launer of Albany sang "Until" and Miss Bernice Rickman sang "At Dawning." Following the ceremony the bridal party left the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Ruth Schreiber played both marches.

Ribbon girls included Miss Vernita Van Fleet, Miss Frances Poor, Miss Carolyn Schneider, Miss Margaret Morris, Miss Mildred Drager, Miss Lorraine Sheldon, Miss Dorothy McDonald, and Miss Sidney Hannaford.

A large reception followed the ceremony. Receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Barkley A. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Faber, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Faber, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Miss Eleanor Yarnes, Everett Faber and Donnie and Patsy Faber.

Assisting in serving were Miss Lulu Allen, Miss Dorothy Rose, Miss Lucile Flannery, and Miss Edythe Glaisyer.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Faber left for a visit with H. E. Johnson, father of the bride, at Calgary, Alberta. From there they will go to Chicago to visit the world's fair and then will return to Ashland where Mr. Faber is athletic coach in the school there.

Mrs. Faber has been a prominent member of Willamette university school life and is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. Mr. Faber graduated from Willamette where he was associated with Alpha Psi Delta fraternity.

Mrs. Necla Buck will speak at Silverton this afternoon before the Ladies' guild of the Emmanuel Lutheran church.
