

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Women of Rotary Enjoy Pleasant Afternoon

Women of Rotary met for an afternoon of cards at the home of Mrs. Walter Molloy Monday afternoon. Tables were arranged in the back garden of the Molloy home and following bridge an attractive tea was served. Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. Dan Fry Sr. presided at the urns. Miss Jewell Minier, Miss Elizabeth Steed and Miss Bellrole Molloy assisted in serving.

Mrs. Margaret LeFurgy and Mrs. A. F. Marcus held winning scores for the afternoon of cards. This meeting was the last of the season for the organization. At this time each was presented with a quilt block to be completed before the opening meeting of the fall at which time a quilt will be made from the various blocks. Mrs. Dan Fry Sr. is in charge of the quilt plans.

Present were Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. Lef Bergsvik, Mrs. W. J. Busick, Mrs. J. E. Binkhorn, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. P. A. Eiker, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. Dan Fry Sr., Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. F. T. Jenks, Mrs. Walter Minier, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. W. G. Morehouse, Mrs. Walter Molloy, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. Roy Simmons, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. Homer Smith Sr., Mrs. Homer Smith Jr., and Mrs. W. L. Phillips.

Mrs. LeFurgy Will Be Hostess

A pretty affair of today will be the small luncheon for which Mrs. Margaret LeFurgy will be hostess at her country home near Monmouth.

Guests have been asked for luncheon and an informal afternoon. Those hidden include Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Homer Smith, Sr., Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., and Mrs. George A. White.

Mrs. Ella Lantz entertained with an attractive afternoon of cards at her home Tuesday afternoon complimenting members of the P. L. E. and F. club. Mrs. Frances Greenwood and Mrs. H. E. Hoss held winning scores for cards. A pretty dessert luncheon preceded the afternoon of cards. Present were Mrs. Mary Apdin, Mrs. H. E. Hoss, Mrs. Azzel Hixon, Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. Maggie Knighton, Mrs. Pearl Kinser, Mrs. Frances Greenwood, Mrs. Kathryn Taylor, Miss Myrtle Burk and Mrs. Lantz.

Pattern

Keep your shoulders broad and hips slender... it's the 1933 silhouette, and do it with this captivating frock! How swagger the flounces, applied in caplet manner, how smart the high neckline, bodice closing with perky buttons and slim skirt panels. All young things who need a wardrobe brim full of smart clothes, will choose it... to be fashioned of crisp cottons that are so smart and inexpensive.

Pattern 2662 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 requires 2 3/4 yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new summer edition of the Anne Adams Pattern Book is ready. Afternoon sports, golf, tennis dresses, jumpers, house frocks, special beginner's patterns, styles for juniors, and cool clothes for youngsters, and instruction for making a chic sweater are among the fascinating items. Send for your copy. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Address all mail orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th Street, New York City.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Wednesday, June 21

All day meeting of Women's Union of First Congregational church with Mrs. Mark McCallister, 710 South Winter street.

Informal tea at Knight Memorial church with women of church as hostesses.

Past Noble Grands association with Mrs. Lucy Siegmund, 1396 Lee street.

County Federated clubs at Brush College picnic grounds.

Women's Union of Temple Baptist church with Mrs. M. E. Abbott, 2590 Cherry avenue, 2 o'clock.

Friday, June 23

Three Link club at Odd Fellows hall, all members urged to attend.

W. W. G. of First Baptist church, Mrs. Lydia Mattson, 1029 Highland street, 7:30 o'clock.

Neighbors of Union Veterans, 8 o'clock Women's clubhouse.

Neighbors of Woodcraft, Fraternal temple, potluck dinner, 6 o'clock; regular business meeting 8 o'clock, visiting organizers special guests.

Miss Vera Dow Becomes Bride of Arlo L. Pugh at Pretty Wedding

Marie Bissell and Harold Zumwalt Announce Engagement; Bride-Zumwalt Honored

Lalish Center—Before a bowler of roses and ferns in the living room of the Guy Dow home, the nuptial vows of Miss Vera Dow and Arlo L. Pugh were pledged on Saturday afternoon. The impressive ceremony was read by Rev. E. G. Hornsack in the presence of close relatives of the young couple.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of pale green, and Miss Eva Dow, as bridesmaid, wore white. Erwin Dow, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Those present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dow of Melama, Mrs. Dow and Dorothy Dow of Middle Grove, Mrs. Lee Dow and Fern Dow also of Middle Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Pearsall and children, Roy and Eva, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Dow of Melama, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Russ and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pugh and daughters Florence and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dow and John, George and Lavina Dow.

The young couple left immediately for their honeymoon. They will make their home here where the groom is engaged in farming.

Woodburn—At the last meeting of the Legion auxiliary for the suite of Mrs. Scollard was elected president to succeed Mrs. Vena Dodge who has held that office since its organization about three years ago.

Other officers named are Mrs. Mary Adams, first vice president; Mrs. Bertha Bentley, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Adams, secretary; Mrs. Alice Beck, treasurer; and Mrs. Mae Engle, historian. Mrs. Lydia Yoder, Mrs. Alice Glat and Mrs. Vena Dodge were elected to the executive committee. Delegates to the state convention to be held at Klamath Falls are Mrs. Vena Dodge and Miss Scollard, with Mrs. Mary Adams and Mrs. Bertha Bentley as alternate. Members elected to the county council were Miss Mary Scollard, Mrs. Mary Adams, Mrs. Mary Adams, Mrs. Lydia Yoder and Mrs. Vena Dodge. Installation of officers will be held in September.

Silverton Hills—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Hall were hosts at bridge Saturday night for the pleasure of Mrs. Hall's brother, Dr. J. B. Davis of Portland and Miss Hazel George of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haugen scored high and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haugen scored low. Guests included Miss George, Dr. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeGulre, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hattberg.

Hubbard—The Woman's Relief Corps met at the Odd Fellows hall Thursday night for the last time as the members have decided to give up their charter. This corps had been in existence 39 years but as there was only one G. A. R. member left, Byron Grim, it seemed best to disband. Mrs. Julius Stauffer and Mrs. Albert Smith took the charter to Salem Friday and turned it over to Florence Shipp, state department president.

Monmouth—A wedding at Albany of local interest was that of Prudence Haller who was married to James L. Norris of Monmouth at the home of her sister, Mrs. Merrill Pimental Wednesday. Miss Hater is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haller of Monmouth. Mr. Norris is in business here, where they will make their home.

Brush College—The Federation of Rural Women's clubs of Polk county will be guests at an all-day picnic when the Brush College Helpers will be hosts at the Brush College community picnic grove Wednesday, June 21. A potluck dinner is to be served at noon.

Woodburn—Donald Warring entertained a group of his friends at his home Saturday afternoon on the occasion of his 11th birthday. Refreshments were served to Jack Beck, Frank Beck, Jimmie Thomas, Evelyn Thomas, John Haurahan, Thomas Donnelly, Pat Whiney, James Ohrel, Jerry Krupicka and Frances and Donald Warring.

Zena—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the weekend was the old fashioned dancing party with which E. L. Cudney and daughter Miss Marilda entertained a group of friends Saturday night.

Double Wedding Solemnized

A pretty double wedding was solemnized Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wallace on North 18th street at which time Miss Zula V. Donnayer, granddaughter of Mrs. Wallace became the bride of Merritt H. Brown and Miss Mildred E. Lynch became the bride of William W. Forgye.

The wedding ritual was read by Rev. Guy L. Drill of the First Christian church. An altar of roses and ferns was arranged on one side of the living room of the Wallace home and here the vows were pledged. Roses in profusion were used for decorative effects about the guest rooms.

The brides were dressed alike in gowns of white crepe, made in long slender line with a quaint trim of shirring. Each carried shower bouquets of pink, white and yellow rosebuds and fern.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. Forgye, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Rev. and Mrs. Guy L. Drill, Mrs. W. T. Wallace, Mrs. Hallie Lynch, Mrs. Pearl Donnayer, Mrs. Johanna Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Crum, Ernest and Hollis Crum, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dolan of Seattle, Leon Fisher of Independence, Dean Fisher, Mrs. Helen Danison, Mrs. Nell Dorrence, Mrs. Pauline Clark and Kenneth Hardin.

Hubbard—The Misses Lenore and Elvira Scholl, Orva and Mrs. Bay Bevens, attended a pre-nuptial shower given at Rural Dell recently by Mrs. Melvin Mitts honoring Miss Gungadine Bidgood whose marriage to Melvin Mitts took place at sunrise Wednesday, June 21.

The young couple are well known here. Mrs. Mitts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bidgood, former residents. She graduated from the Hubbard high school and from the Oregon Normal at Monmouth. While in Hubbard she was guardian of the Camp Fire girls. She is talented both in music and art.

Mr. Mitts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Mitts of Rural Dell. He attended Oregon State and Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitts will live on a farm at Rural Dell.

Perrydale—The engagement of Marie Bissell and Harold Zumwalt has been announced. The wedding will be an event of the near future. A miscellaneous shower will be given for the bride elect Friday afternoon, June 23, at the home of Mrs. W. M. Dennis by the Ballston and Perrydale women.

Hubbard—Mrs. Claude Moomaw and Miss Carmine Scholl were joint hostesses for a shower Saturday at the home of Mrs. L. A. Braden complimenting Mrs. Ursula Wolfer. Miss Lorraine Braden assisted the hostesses.

The invited guests from Salem were Mrs. R. C. Churchill, Mrs. Emmert Johnson, and Mrs. Wallace Hendricks, from Independence, Mrs. Ed Becken; from Portland, Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. H. S. Dalmas, Mrs. C. E. Freeberg and Mrs. F. C. Higgins; from Woodburn, Mrs. William Hardy; from Hubbard, Mrs. J. C. Moomaw, Mrs. Harry Hinkle, Mrs. H. Mallory, Mrs. Elton McLaughlin, Mrs. J. H. Bontrager, Mrs. Kenneth Bents, Mrs. L. M. Scholl, Mrs. E. S. Wolfer, Mrs. H. C. Mack, Mrs. Alice Weaver, Miss Frances Weaver, Mrs. H. L. Carl, Mrs. George Dimick and Miss Merle Dimick.

Valsetz—Mrs. George March, entertained with three tables of bridge Friday night. Enjoying the party were Mrs. Bert Thomas of Salem, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Bert Babb, Mrs. Dug Grout, Mrs. Jim Dodson, Mrs. Frank Hayden, Mrs. Amos Denno, Mrs. Walter Raymond, Mrs. Melvin Rose, Mrs. Harold Bullis, Mrs. Cio Wells, Mrs. Levi Green, Portland.

A lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Amos Denno.

Jefferson—Miss Eva Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Oakley of Jefferson and Mr. John Kulper of Crabtree were quietly married at Vancouver, Wednesday June 14. They will make their home near Sweet Home, where Mr. Kulper will be engaged in highway construction work.

Talbot—The Talbot Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. D. E. Blinston Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made for the next meeting, a no hostess meeting to be in the evening in the Doty grove where the families of the members will be entertained. Special guests were Mrs. E. B. Henningsen and Mrs. Schug.

Students Presented In Recital

A recital of interest Tuesday evening was that presented by Miss Marguerite Luthy in the United Brethren church.

The numbers were presented in two groups, the latter one including an attractive musical play presented by Carol Crozier, Gearge Moore, Virginia Polk, Imogene Birch, Yvonne Curtis, Shirlee Coster, Helen Tanaka, Edith Tanner, Louise Polk, Cayle Cozlen, Helen Anderson, Julia Ann Birch and Alice Rose. These same pupils presented recital numbers and others appearing on the program included Delbert Grimes, Junior Curtis.

Miss Luthy was the author of the attractive playlet entitled "Visitors From Fairyland."

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Mrs. Bert Smith was hostess to members of the Bethel Dorchester Club Wednesday afternoon at her home in Salem. A picnic, planned for June 18 at Silverton park, was postponed till June 25.

Members present were: Mrs. J. D. Clark, Mrs. A. H. Ferustman, Mrs. M. H. Utter, Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. A. I. Eoff, Mrs. Cass Nichols, Mrs. H. H. Boles, Mrs. J. Buchanan, Mrs. Ed Kitchen and the hostess Mrs. Smith. The hostess served a dainty luncheon assisted by Mrs. A. J. Eoff and Mrs. Ed Kitchen.

Mrs. Jack Porter, nee Rosalie Jones, will be a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. Al Jones, over the weekend. Mrs. Porter is now in Portland attending the Daughters of Nile convention in progress there. She expects to remain in Salem for several days before returning to her home in Roseburg.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

The J. L. G. club met at Beattie Schult's home Monday, June 19, for their regular meeting. Plans for going to Portland to attend the Grand Lodge session next week were discussed. All Guards were asked by the captain to wear their pink uniforms next Friday night, as the district organizer, Laura Wood, will be present. Present were Hallie Lynch, Mary Male, Nora Busby, Dorothy Walker, Lillian Kayser, Bertha Ray, Babe McNeill, Florence Bressler and the hostess, Beattie Schult. After the business meeting refreshments were served.

Recently 19 of the Jason Lee young people enjoyed a bicycle hike to Camp Dole. A picnic lunch was eaten at the scout cabin. The party returned later in the evening. Those going on the excursion were: Esther Mae DeVore, Bernice Marcy, Helen Marcy, Betty Evans, Dorothy Miller, Margaret Lapchese, Lavina Deppin, Clara Belle Burns, Evelyn Hurst, Esther Spiera, Frances Graham, Richard Van Pelt, Don Dauris, Maurice Clark, Don Marcy, Thomas Medley, Dean Ellis, Keith Clark, Loren Benjamin, Charles Lapchese, Arthur Howatt.

Jefferson—The beautiful lawn of Mrs. Fred Looney's country home formed the setting for the annual picnic of the Women's club, held there Wednesday.

Special guests were Mrs. Lee Farlow, Mrs. Fred Barna, Mrs. Harley Libby, Mrs. Charles McKee, Mrs. Guy Aupperle, Miss Elizabeth Aupperle, Mrs. George Mason, Miss Alice Harris and a number of children.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Pehrsson-Jensen Nuptials Observed

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea Sampson, Melvin Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Odenberg and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand.

Artist Son Will Visit in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will motor to Portland Thursday to meet their son Bradford Collins who arrives from Chicago for a visit this summer with his parents. It has been two and one-half years since Mr. and Mrs. Collins have received a visit from their son, a successful young artist of the east.

Mr. Collins graduated from the University of Oregon and then went to Chicago where he attended the Chicago Art Institute. Since his graduation from there he has done several murals for prominent homes in Chicago and received much favorable criticism, and he has been doing numerous book illustrations from prominent book companies of the east.

Double Wedding Solemnized

Of interest in teaching circles especially is the marriage of Miss Grace Pohrson and Wayne Jensen, which was performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pohrson at Halsey. Rev. Hardy of the Halsey church read the rites.

The ceremony took place before an improvised bower of greenery, roses, delphinium and gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dan Oldham of Lebanon attended the bride and Wayne Harding of Salem was best man.

Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr., nee Rita Reid of Portland and Mrs. Russell of Marion sang and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Halsey, sister of the bride.

Forty relatives and close friends were in attendance, including Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagley Jr. of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are on a tour to Yellowstone and parts of South Dakota. They will make their home at Brooks.

Both are graduates of the Oregon normal schools.

Miss Ruth Brauti Leaves For Travel

Miss Ruth Brauti left Tuesday night on the first stage of her world travel which will occupy an indefinite length of time and which will take her into 19 countries, including the holy land and the orient before her return to Salem.

Miss Brauti will stop over in San Francisco to visit friends and then go on to Los Angeles where she will visit until July 3, when she sails on the S. S. California en route through the Panama canal to New York.

In New York she will sail July 19 for the continent and will be an event of Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. Al Jones at Jonesmere farm.

A picnic dinner will be served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon will be spent informally in conversation and business. Burt Brown Barker is president of the organization.

It is expected that not less than 40 guests will be present for the Sunday affair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Strand and Miss Doris Strand were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when a group of friends and relatives gathered at their home. The afternoon was spent informally, after which a buffet supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosen, Mr. and Mrs. George Fike, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linquist, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bjelde, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClelland, Mrs. Ida Olson, Earl Strand, T. H. Strand, Miss Thea