List of Militiamen Who Won Abiqua Battle are Found on Old Document

A yellowed sheet of paper the size of an ordinary business letterhead, the original list of the company of 62 men who fought in the battle of the Abiqua and settled forever the Indian question in the Willamette valley, is the treasured possession of Mrs. C. C. Geer of this city.

Chemeketa chapter, D. A. R., will dedicate a marker to the memory of those soldiers, June 24, at 2:30 p. m., at the site of the battle, three and one-half miles east of Silverton. The general public is invited to attend the dedication ceremonies but it is especially desired that descendants of the men enlisted there be present.

Following is the wording of the document:

RETIRING DIRECTOR PRAISED BY BOARD

Tribute was paid Mrs. Roy S. Keene, retiring school director, by other members of the board at the annual meeting Monday night. Directors Olinger and Neer expressed appreciation of her cooperation and of the highly active part she took in board affairs and conduct of the school system. In reply Mrs. Keene, who served one term and did not run for reelection, asked the board to request her assistance "as a taxpayer" at any time. "Every minute of my three years on the board has been a pleasure," she said. "And I have got as much good out of it as I have put in it." Dr. Olinger, the other retiring director, has served four full three-year terms and part of a fifth when he first came on the board to fill out an unexpired term.
