Combined Recital To be Presented

A recital which will endeavor to demonstrate the possibilities of well-rounded environment for childhood will be that presented by Mrs. Jessie Bush Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and again at 8:15 o'clock in the Bush Ratcliffe studio in Nelson hall.
The afternoon will be a recital in which Mary Lou McKay will be presented in a program of preschool activities. She will present six piano solos, two readings, and two dances the latter of which have been developed as a student of Barbara Barnes.
Assisting her will be Warren Downs who will play two cello solos on a small cello and he will be accompanied by his sister, Flavia Downs. The setting for the afternoon recital will be juvenile. Furniture and musical instruments are all small. The piano is a tiny one similar to those used in cabarets abroad.
The evening program will present three graduates of Salem high school, Jack and Bill Bush and Miss Rachel Pemberton. The evening is planned more as a musical than a recital for the work presented is that done by the students while taking full high school courses. The music developed has been only one of the many activities of the school years and the results of the music work is to show the possibilities of keeping the school child's cultural development complete.

This program will be vocal and piano work with Miss Flavia Downs as accompanist. Miss Dorothy Keaton will present readings. The programs are open to the interested public.
Miss Jeanette Waddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Waddle, who will become the bride of John Byron Winters of Wheeler, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect's parents in Hansen avenue, has been the inspiration for a number of parties during the past weeks.
An attractive afternoon affair was given Wednesday afternoon at the Harry Scott home near Liberty with Mrs. Scott as hostess. A pre-nuptial shower was a feature of the afternoon.
Mrs. S. W. Seles has also been a hostess in compliment to the bride to be.
Miss Waddle graduated from Salem high school with the class of 1932. Following the wedding ceremony which will be read by Rev. D. R. Schierman the young people will go to make their home at Wheeler.

A. dining room Tuesday night with covers laid for Mrs. Helen Hamilton, Gertrude Chamberlin, Mabel Currie, Betty Elfosen, Agnes Emmel, Alice Falk, Dorothy Franks, Olga Gath, Mildred Judson, Lenora Naegell, Anna Peters, Helen Richardson, Esther Richner, Muriel Rowe, Marie Shindler and Bessie Tucker.
Many interesting reports were given of the week end trip to Camp Santaly.
The members held a general discussion of vacation plans and Misses Alice Falk, Olga Gath, Betty Elfosen, Harriet Stimmler and Agnes Emmel were appointed to make plans for the first picnic of the summer.

Loren Davidson Weds in Pendleton

Of interest to a large circle of friends in Salem is the announcement of the marriage June 11 in Pendleton of Loren Davidson to Miss Doris Reimann. Following the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Davidson motored to Taft and returned to Salem this weekend where they will make their home.
A reception to welcome the newly wedded couple was given at Wednesday night at the First Christian church. A large number of church members and friends called during the receiving hours to extend greetings.
Mr. Davidson has been music director of the First Christian church since last fall. Previous to that time he was director of music in a Pendleton church. He attended the University of Oregon.

Among the official delegates to the Women's Relief corps in conjunction with the G. A. R. convention, is Mrs. Blanche Davis, past patriotic instructor of the W. R. C., formerly of this city, now of Coquille, Ore.
Other delegates of W. R. C. No. 48 in the party with Mrs. Davis, are: Mrs. Mary Dunn, past department president; Mrs. Madeline Coates Bennett, past department senior vice - president, and Mrs. Mary Schroeder, all of Coquille; also Mrs. Mary Wagner, president of Barton W. R. C. No. 46. They leave tonight by motor for their respective homes.

Betrothal Told Of Interest In City

In keeping with the summer wedding season here comes the announcement of the engagement of June Davies, popular Salem miss, to James S. Nutter. The wedding is being planned as an event of the late summer and will be in the nature of a quiet garden ceremony at the home of the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Davies in east Portland.
Both of the young people are well-known in Salem and have many friends here. Miss Davies is a graduate of Franklin high school in Portland and has completed three years of study at Willamette university. Mr. Nutter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nutter of Ashland and a graduate of Ashland high school. He has also attended the local university for three years and at present is a member of the Associated Press staff in Salem.
Following the wedding the couple plan to make their home in Salem.

Amundrud-Mortensen, Nuptials Celebrated

Miss Martha Amundrud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Amundrud of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, and Norman J. Mortensen, were married in a simple ceremony June 16 at the English Lutheran church in Portland. Rev. William Becker read the nuptial service.
Miss Christine Weins of Salem was the bride's only attendant, and Harold Mortensen, brother of the groom was best man for Mr. Mortensen.
The bride wore blue chiffon made in long sweeping lines. With this she wore white accessories and a corsage of delicate pink roses.
Following the ceremony a wedding supper was given at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. James Redman of Milwaukie. Covers were placed for 18 close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen.
Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Portland. As a going away gift Mrs. Mortensen wore a white ensemble with accessories to match.
Mrs. Mortensen prior to her marriage had been a nurse connected with Salem and Dallas hospitals.

Miss Ruth Moore Dinner Hostess

Miss Ruth Moore, retiring president of the Business and Professional Women's club will entertain with an attractive dinner at the Marion hotel at 6:30 o'clock Friday night complimenting the executive board with whom she has worked this past year. A business meeting will follow the dinner hour.
Covers will be placed for Miss Grace Gilliam, Miss Clara Uhlau, Mrs. Maud Ramseyer, Miss May Cleveland, Mrs. Winnifred Hayrick, Miss Laura Hale, Miss Lois Ohmart, Miss Hetta Field, Miss Juana Holmes, Miss Alene Phillips, Miss Josephine Shado, Miss Mord Dimick, Mrs. Emily Howard, Miss Daisy Hayden, Miss Ruth McAdams, Mrs. Lillian Cadwell, Miss Grace E. Smith, Miss Julia K. Webster, Mrs. Esther Hagedorn, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Mrs. Susan Varty, and the president, Miss Ruth Moore.

Interesting Guests At Burtis Home

Recent guests for a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burtis of Shaw were Mr. Burtis' granddaughter and husband, Lloyd C. Lewis, Lieutenant-Commander of the U. S. frigate "Rawleigh."
Lieut.-Commander Lewis has had a highly interesting naval career and world-travel. At the age of 15 he became an Annapolis naval cadet, and, by highly efficient service, worked his way to his present rank, which now entitles him to retirement. During the World war he commanded a destroyer in a convoy fleet in east Atlantic waters. For the major time since the World war he has been stationed at Washington, D. C., but for the past year has been stationed on the west coast.
Lieut.-Commander and Mrs. Lewis also visited at Vancouver, B. C., stopping here again enroute to Kentucky where they will make their future home.

Women Given Signal Honor

Seven women now living are honored by having their portraits displayed in the 80-foot mural by Hildreth Meiere, distinguished American artist, which constitutes the background for the exhibit of the National Council of Women in Chicago's Century of Progress exposition.
They are: Cora Wilson Stewart, founder of the Moonlight schools; Dr. Florence Rena Sabin, famed for medical research; Dr. Alice Hamilton, first woman to be given a professorship at Harvard; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, suffrage leader; Judge Florence E. Allen, first and only woman supreme court justice in the world; Amelia Earhart, trans - Atlantic field, and Frances Perkins, the new secretary of labor. These likenesses appear in the narrow border of the mural, in which are presented 20 historic women who have greatly influenced the life of the century and 80 history-making episodes in which they and other women have figured.

Bidgood-Mitts Vows Plighted

Miss Gungadene Bidgood daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bidgood, became the bride of Clifford Mitts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitts at sunrise on the lawn of the Bidgood home, near Molalla, Wednesday morning.
Rev. Glen Hartong of Woodburn, read the impressive ceremony in the presence of friends and the members of the immediate families.
As the sun peeped over the Cascades to greet the first day of summer and while Miss Eleanor Mitts, sister of the groom, played the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin," the wedding party took its place before the lovely floral altar.
The bride was attended by her father and her bridesmaids, Mrs. Melvin Mitts of Molalla, and Miss Ruth Wilson of Independence.
Following the ceremony Mrs. Melvin Mitts sang "At Dawning," the second verse of which was composed for Miss Bidgood's wedding by Clara Barabohamew, an Oregon poet of Oregon City.
The bride wore a gown of peach crepe and carried a shower bouquet of Apheila roses and sweet peas. Miss Wilson was gowned in blue crepe and Mrs. Mitts in a peach of pink roses and lupia.
Clifford Mitts was attended by his brother, Melvin Mitts.
After the ceremony breakfast was served at tables centered by bouquets of pink roses and the places marked by rose bud decorated cards painted by the bride.
Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mitts, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mitts, Rev. and Mrs. Glen Hartong and little son, Glen, Mrs. Albert Cox and daughter, Martha, of Salem; Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Eleanor Mitts, Arthur Mitts, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bidgood, Rollie, James, Kenneth, Omer and Dean Bidgood.

The newlyweds left for a 10-day outing after which they will reside on their farm home west of Molalla.
The National Institute of Music and Arts held its annual picnic Tuesday at Silverton park. A one o'clock luncheon was served. The afternoon was spent in games and swimming and an informal good time.
