EGGS UNCHANGED LAMBS, HOGS DECLINE LOCALLY

PORTLAND, June 26-(AP)-Market for butter continued to reflect increasing steadiness and even strength in spots. Latest survey suggested decreasing churning, operations along the entire on the local market to start the coast with the total output of the week, while wheat took a flying country likewise decreasing.

There was a generally unchanged situation in the egg market here. Prices continued mixed with co-ops quoting the highest price along the coast which sug- cally. Lambs were quoted at $4 gests that outside business from here would be impossible. Steadiness was showing for the volume only and a cleanup of last at $1.50 per crato yesterday, week's arrivals was generally shown. Good demand for both live and dressed turkeys. Leghorn broilers were advanced to 11%c pound in spots. There was no change generally n prices on country killed meets.

Lambs were now in good call and there has been general cleanup of veal and hogs. Beef alone was inclined to drag a trifle.

PORTLAND, June 26 .- (AP) Sensational rises were forced today in all North American wheat markets. On the Portland futures market all new high points were reached for the season in July, September and December with rises of 61/4 cents bushel in each during the day. Sales included 1000 bushel July,

17,000 bushel September and 12,-00 December. On the Portland merchants exchange cash wheat gained 7 cents for local and 8 cents bushel for Montana spring and winter. Advances of 10 cents barrel in the price of patent flour and 20 cents average in bakers was announced with a further rise of a dime scheduled for tomorrow in local patent and more promised if the price of wheat holds. Heavy sales of flour were confirmed for the east but no export business of importance was shown.
