Travelers Return From Chicago

Miss Lena Beile Tartar who left June 9 for Chicago in company with Miss Mary Cupper, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Tartar of Corvallis and Miss Virginia Tartar of Seattle, has returned to Salem.

The party attended the Century of Progress fair and much enthusfasm is expressed for the marvels of this display. Miss Tartar was especially enthusiastic for the color effects and architectural wonders which have been developed. Music held a splendid place on the programs and of this Miss Tartar took advantage. She also attended several Chicago Symphony concerts and had time for a bit of special study at the American Conservatory of music.

Miss Cupper and Miss Virginia Tartar, both domestic science teachers found much of unusual interest in the exhibits and displays in this department.

Miss Tartar was also enthusiastic concerning the art museums of the fair which house many million dollars worth of art treasure many of which are rare displays from Europe.
