

Reed and Jones Clash for Title at Fairgrounds Tonight

NEW INCENTIVE FOR WIN SEEN

Victor to Meet Reynolds, Unscramble Involved Welter Situation

With a brand new prize held out to the winner, Robin Reed of Redport, and Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, will clash at state fairgrounds tonight for the world 145-pound wrestling championship. The wrestling card, climaxing feature of the Four of July celebration sponsored by Capital post No. 9, American Legion, will start at 8 p. m. in front of the grandstand. The main event will follow the fireworks display which is scheduled for 9:30.

The new plum for which the champion and challenger will vie, is an opportunity to meet Jack Reynolds here late this month. And that means a practical settlement of the slightly scrambled welterweight title situation. Reynolds has for many years clung to his claim of the title, though for a long time he was overweight and inactive. About a year ago he staged a successful comeback, but has been rather wary of meeting top ranking contenders.

The situation is clear enough provided one understands it. The "welterweight" championship Reynolds claims calls for a weight of 147 pounds. The Midwest Wrestling association sponsored a new 145-pound championship and selected its initial champion through a tournament in which all contenders had a chance, and Robin Reed won it. He has been the only holder of the title with the exception of Jones, who won it here last summer and then lost it back to Reed.

A match between the 145-pound champion and the 147-pound champion, with both belts at stake if both grapplers made 145 pounds, would clarify the situation completely. Reynolds has not signed definitely, but the chances are excellent.

Reed arrived in Salem Sunday, reporting himself to be in first class condition and pleased to hear that Jones was likewise in fine fettle. Reed went to Portland Monday night but will be back about noon today.

Jack Mitchell of New York, and "Doc" Nelson of North Carolina, are here awaiting the going for their one-hour bout, and "Prof" Newton of Oregon City, and Art O'Reilly of Eugene, are ready to scramble into the ring for their 30-minute fracas which will open the show.

The American Legion committee in charge of the show reports that advance sale of tickets has been excellent. Ringside seat res-

198 PUTOUTS SCORED

Here's one that should set a "natural" for Mr. Ripley. The Olinger and Lincoln playground kitball teams met on Olinger field and battled for nine innings yesterday only to find themselves no better off than when they started as far as determining the winner was concerned for the score at that time stood 2-2. Olinger having scored two runs in the fourth and Lincoln one each in the fourth and ninth.

Then started the marathon. For inning after inning outfielders snagged long flies, infielders scampered all over the diamond to stop hard hit balls and the al first basemen added to their total of putouts but not once did a runner cross the plate until the first of the thirty-third inning. At this point the spell was broken—Curry of Olinger got on base and was immediately brought home on a hit by Sexton; Lincoln failed to duplicate or better the feat in its half of the inning and Olinger had won the ball game 3 runs to 2 after over three hours of playing time during which one umpire broke under the strain and a relief man had to be sent in.

M. Ritchie, W. Ritchie and Jack Lunsford of Lincoln gathered a total of 18 hits between them. W. Ritchie in left field caught over 40 fly balls and Jack Bush scored 75 putouts at first base.

JONES TOURNAY IN SEMI-FINALS

Club Team Will go Sunday To Tillamook; two-Ball Foursome Popular

Semi-finals in the Bobby Jones handicap tournament will be played on the Salem Golf club course, though one quarter-final match is yet to be completed. In the championship flight the matches are Nash vs. Bonesteel and Longren vs. Victor. In the first flight Miller will meet Crews or Chandler and Remington will clash with Merchant.

Next Sunday the club team will go to Tillamook. Fifteen players have been lined up but about 23 are needed and one or two of those planning to go may not be able, so additional members who are able to make the trip are wanted.

The tentative list includes Collins, Chandler, Bonesteel, McGinley, Rittner, Woodmansee, Bernardi, Wood, Victor, Tompson, Stacey, Lynch, Flannery, Nash and Kuhn.

Mrs. E. L. Baker and D. W. Eyre with a net 71 won the mixed two-ball foursome tourney on the club course Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. I. McLaughlin were second with 72. Other scores were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Farrar, Mrs. Gillingham and Jack Minto, Helen Weidemer and Joe Adolph turned in scores of 74; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rittner 76, Mr. and Mrs. William Stacey 78, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Savage 80, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernardi 80, Dr. and Mrs. R. ## CURT COMMENTS

It's sort of discouraging to just an average golfer, the combination of unusual shots we witnessed on the Salem club course Monday. Right in front of us on the first fairway was Mose Palmator, who shot an eagle on the first hole by ramming down a long putt; and right behind us on the sixth was a foursome which included George McLeod, of the 1933 Salem high team, whose dodo on that hole we likewise witnessed. Guess Bobby Jones must be turning out some prize papirs.

Bobby showed us the conditions which must prevail at the time of impact, in Sunday's episode at the Elsinoire which will still be visible today. The final episode will be next Sunday. It's all worth while. And still, Graham Sharkey handed us two words of advice the other day that enabled us to begin stopping our chip shots right where we wanted them on the green, and if we break 90 sometime soon, we won't give Bobby all the credit.

Saw Jerry Owen out on the course the other day, and then saw him there again the next day, so the bug must have bitten him hard. Expect Jerry is getting too old for volleyball and tennis.

Andy Peterson is climbing back up toward the top, after dropping to class C ball at Wheeling; he has been transferred to Durham, in the Piedmont league, which is class B. Andy is said to be still having some trouble with control, but he must have buried some good ball at Wheeling, to merit the promotion.
