Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Be clever as well as smart when planning your summer wardrobe—Fashion has introduced an intriguing way to help you accomplish it. Namely the "two-in-one" costume—the frock with cape attached today! When the occasion is a bit formal, wear the entire ensemble... when not, doff the cape, and reveal a chic sports frock boasting this line and a new sleeve treatment. Cotton or linen are excellent.

Pattern 1509 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 4-8 yards 39-inch fabric for dress and cape. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this Anne Adams pattern. We'll plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new summer edition of the Anne Adams Pattern book is ready. Afternoon, sport, golf, tennis dresses, jumpers, house frocks, special beginners' patterns, styles for juniors, and cool clothes for youngsters, and instruction for making a chic sweater are among the fascinating items. Send for your copy. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Address all mail orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th street, New York City.

Newlyweds are Inspiration for Delightful Affairs During Week Wright-McClain Wedding at Lebanon Holds Interest for Jefferson Folks

Silverton Hills. — Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tschantz, whose wedding on July 3 at Vancouver, Wash., was recently disclosed, have been the inspiration of a number of affairs. Among these was a very charming dinner given Sunday night by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tschantz. Besides the honor guests, covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duval, Ray Keller, Agnes and Morris Duval and Eugene, Orval and Lucille Tschantz and the host and hostess.

Wednesday night the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. John Tschantz were joint hosts at a reception given at the Silverton Hills community club in honor of the young couple. Two hundred fifty guests were present for the evening. Assisting in serving at the buffet supper tables were Mrs. E. A. Buehli, Mrs. Henry Duval and Miss Vera Buehli. Dancing was enjoyed for a time with music furnished by the Charles Mulkey and Leslie orchestras. Sweet peas, roses and greenery made the hall attractive for the occasion and the honor guests received many lovely gifts. Out-of-town guests for the reception included grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Davis, and Mrs. Minnie Ballard. Mrs. Jack Mortimer, Jack Mortimer, Jr., and Glenn Ballard, all of Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tschantz will make their home at the home of his parents during the summer as he is assisting his father with the farm work.

Mrs. Tschantz was before her marriage, Miss Zina Davis, the daughter of Mrs. Ray Wallace of Silverton.

You know EXACTLY what's in your own home made mayonnaise

Some folks like mustard in their mayonnaise, but some can't stand mustard at all. Some find freshly squeezed lemon juice better for the family than vinegar. And everybody wants to use a really nice salad oil like Wesson Oil . . . and an egg just out of the shell. Fresh-made, fresh-served home made mayonnaise is just about the most delicious dressing there is. And you know that your own home made mayonnaise is made of the finest things . . . made the way your family like it best and the way it is best for them.

HERE'S THE NEW MIXER THAT WHIPS IT UP IN 1½ MINUTES! PERFECT MAYONNAISE EVERY TIME!

It works with one hand while you pour with the other . . . whips up a perfect mayonnaise in 1½ minutes . . . the time required for the pint of Wesson Oil to pour out of the can. When the can is empty, six more strokes and your mayonnaise is finished. It can't fail.
