

Y CAMP INCLUDES TEN-DAY PROGRAM

Adams and Moore in Charge Of Camp Starting July 25, at Oceanside

Despite present economic conditions, the Salem Y. M. C. A. is sponsoring its annual summer camp for boys at the Oceanside camp site, opening the extensive program July 25 and continuing 18 days.

Camp Oceanside is located two miles north of Oceanside, Tillamook county, facing a half mile frontage of beach. It is bounded by fresh water streams and virgin timber to the inland. This setting makes an ideal location for the variety of camp activities offered to the young camper.

Dwight Adams and Gus Moore, well-known Willamette athletes, are in charge of the camp this year. They will supervise a competent staff of assistants. Adams states that the thirteenth Y camp will be an outing no boy can afford to miss.

The activities play a major part in the camp program. Fishing, competitive athletics, hikes and general camp life are inducements to any boy.

Registration is taken care of at the Y. M. C. A. The fee this year is exceptionally low, being $8 for the ten-day period. Boys above nine years of age, living in Marion, Polk, Benton, Linn, or Tillamook counties are eligible to attend. It is not necessary to be an association member in order to attend Camp Oceanside.

71 Attend Credit Group Picnic at Nelscott Sunday

The Salem Credit association's second annual picnic, held Sunday at Nelscott, was an enthusiastic success, participants report.

Seventy-one persons attended, with dinner served to 85 of these. Twenty of the group motored over the evening before.

Weather at the coast was ideal Sunday, although the thermometer there registered the highest this season.

General committee in charge of the picnic was headed by Frank Doolittle, and included also Miss May Seely, Elmer Baldersee, Miss Laura Cheney and Forest Halladay.

STARRED IN RECENT KIDNAPINGS

Here are the principals in the series of kidnapings which occurred in the United States during the past five months and for whose ransom a total of $650,000 was demanded from their families. Top row (left to right): Charles Boettcher, Denver, Col.; Mary McElroy, Kansas City; Peggy McMath, Harwichport, Mass. Second row: John (Jake the Barber) Factor, Chicago; his son, Jerome Factor and William Hamm, St. Paul brewer. At left, John J. O'Connell, member of the power Albany, N. Y., political family. In addition to the above, August Luer, 78-year-old banker, of Alton, Ill., also fell a victim to kidnap racketeers.

Brush Creek Residents Petition City Council To Favor Sewage Plant

SILVERTON, July 17. — The sewage disposal work at Silverton took a new angle Monday, when a petition from Brush Creek residents was presented to the city council. The petition, which was signed by everyone approached, bore 32 signatures. "And this isn't all," said the Brush Creek residents. "You know that the city is not allowed to use the creek for a dumping ground. The spirit of this law is disobeyed even though the word of the law is kept. The city dumps on the banks of the creek and every high water carries the rubbishage on down for the farmers to fight."

CLAIM PROPERTY ILLEGALLY TAKEN COURT WOULD PICK SUBSTITUTE, SAID

In case there is no legal upset in the conviction of Gordon L. Schermerhorn, sheriff of Jackson county, on ballot theft charges, the vacancy caused by his retirement from office will be filled by the Jackson county court, Attorney General Van Winkle said Monday.

Van Winkle said that Schermerhorn was entitled to seek a new trial and appeal the case to the supreme court.

Schermerhorn was under suspension from office for 90 days, but recently demanded that he be allowed to resume his official activities. In the meantime his bond had been cancelled, and he could not qualify for the office.

The complaint sets out that Compton, Busick and S. B. Elliott contracted to purchase the property—an orchard tract out from Salem—in 1919 for a total price of $27,500. Payments on principal to date have totalled $17,000, plaintiffs assert. Compton and Busick bought Elliott's interest in the property in 1930.

Plaintiffs allege their interests were illegally taken and assert that improvements and payments made on their contract total $28,217, together with interest.

ANNUAL REUNION HELD AT CHAMPOEG

Fifty Members Attend; Miss Ethel Fletcher Chosen As New President

The eighth annual reunion of the Savage - Patrick clans was held Sunday at Champeog park, with nearly 50 members in attendance. Kinsmen present were from Portland, Newberg, Williams, Molalla, Independence, Eugene, Vancouver and Salem.

Miss Ethel Fletcher of Salem, was reelected president and Edward A. Stevens was reelected secretary. The next reunion will be held at the state fairgrounds the third Sunday in July, 1934.

Capt. Smith, custodian at the park, recounted something of the early history of Oregon and the May 2, 1843 gathering as one of the program features. This meeting is of particular interest to the clans, as J. L. Parrish, a cousin of the ancestors, was present at the historic meeting.

Robert Lang of Portland, talented 14-year-old musician, played several numbers on the old organ at Champeog. A genealogical record sent by Mark Savage of Seal Rocks, was read. This included the war records of John Savage of Salem, Mass., in the French and Indian and Revolutionary wars.

Couple Held on Separate Charge In County Jail

Joseph Gigger and Helen Gigger, husband and wife, who live near Hopmore, are in the county jail following arrests on different charges. He is accused of larceny by bail of an automobile belonging to the Eiker automobile company and she was arrested for being drunk in a public place.

Gigger pleaded not guilty in justice court yesterday and will have hearing this morning at 10 o'clock. He is in jail in lieu of $500 bail. She took 24 hours to enter plea and will return at 10 this morning. Her bail was set at $25.
