PANICKY SELLING PLUNGES WHEAT BERRY PRICES FIRMER TO HIGHER

Wheat Down 17 Cents, Rye 26½ Cents as Sales Rushed

CHICAGO, July 20. — (AP) — Unrestrained panicky selling, three times repeated today, left Chicago grain markets tonight almost completely demoralized after every delivery of wheat had plunged to below $1.

Wheat suffered a fall of 17 cents a bushel since yesterday, and rye 26½ cents. At the extreme bottom, July and September wheat was down to 90 cents, with May at 97¾ cents, 30⅝ cents below the season's top, $1.28⅛, reached by May just 48 hours previous.

Wheat closed excited at prices ranging from the day's bottom figures to 3¼ cents above, with last quotations 12 to 16 cents under yesterday's finish, corn 11⅝ to 14¼ down, oats 7⅝-8½ off.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat — July 90; September 91-92¾; December 95½-96½; May 1.00-1.01.

Corn — July 46; September 53-53¼; December 56½-⅝; May 63½-64.

Oats — July 35; September 34½-35; December 37-37½; May 41.

Advances in the local wheat market, following the nation lead, took another serious set - back yesterday when the price tumbled 15 points, to 70 cents on red and white.

The price dropped 9 cents the previous day, making a 24 - cent decline since Wednesday morning.

Other local markets were unchanged yesterday.

497 ARRESTS MADE BY STATE POLICE

Operatives of the state police department participated in 281 arrests for traffic violations during the month of June, according to a report prepared this week by Charles P. Pray, superintendent. Fines were imposed in the amount of $4292.15.

The officers issued 16,129 warning to motor vehicle drivers and collected delinquent fees of $1676.65. Fifty-nine of the arrests resulted from reckless driving.

There were 216 arrests in the law enforcement division of the state police department. Fines were collected in the amount of $922.70, and 67 cases are still pending in the courts. Thirty-five of those arrested were held for other law enforcement agencies.

Raspberries, Logans Extremely Scarce; Cherries Firmer

PORTLAND, July 20—(AP)—Berry prices were again firmer to higher for the day with an extreme shortage of raspberries and loganberries while youngberries were in greater call and prices firm. Blackcaps were continued slow.

There continued an acute shortage of local apricots and the bulk of sales here were of Californian. The latter were mostly quoted around 65 to 75c per box of 15 lbs.

Pea market was a trifle better, mostly 2c with Brownsmead 2½c top.

Celery market was steady to firm with shipping call $1.75 half crate.

Cherries were a trifle firmer in spots with a general 4c top for Bings-Lamberts.

BUTTER PRICE OVER EXCHANGE'S LEVELS

PORTLAND, July 20—(AP)—Sales of butter were no longer being generally made on the basis of the prices quoted on the produce exchange for the reason that open market prices were higher than the former officially listed.

The differential between top and bottom scores was considered too great and the latter were selling at a wider premium on the open market than other offerings.

Butterfat values were firmer with premiums continued.

Trading in eggs appeared steady but there remained a mixture of prices. Despite the assurances of the trade that storage eggs were not being withdrawn the official report showed otherwise.

Slow trading continued in the market for live chickens and especially hens which were in greater offering than immediate need. There was no further change in the price.

Country killed meat markets were still affected by the weather which has slowed demand. Prices were easier to lower except for hogs.
